TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 21
A MIDDLING FRIEND.
A little red rose bloomed all alone In the hedge by the highway side, And the Wind came by with a pitying moan, And let the breeze come through!
"You are choked with the dust from the sandy ledges, and the rain is on your head, and the sun is on your face, and the wind is on your hair, and the dew is on your cheek, and the frost is on your nose, and the snow is on your hair, and the ice is on your feet, and the hail is on your back, and the sleet is on your face, and the rain is on your hair, and the sun is on your face, and the wind is on your hair, and the dew is on your cheek, and the frost is on your nose, and the snow is on your hair, and the ice is on your feet, and the hail is on your back, and the sleet is on your face, and
