One of the most complete and successfully worked breweries in the city is owned and managed by Mr. P. Bajus, and we make this assertion after an examination of the premises and the machinery with which it is stocked. Fully eighty years ago Mr. Robbins commenced the manufacture of beer on the site of this brewery. Some years after the business passed into the hands of Mr. Wens, and in 1842 Mr. Jacob Bajus become preprieter, and under his direction it reaped handsome rewards. OUR PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS. BAJUS' BREWERY. Inspector Language, in his report the Ontario Government, says that the proceedings of this Asylum, both in respect to the movements of patients and its general operations, have been mere varied and important than in any former year. The returns show that at the close of last year (1875-76) there remained under treatment and eare 377 patients, that during the past year 95 were admitted, 43 men and 52 women, making a total of 432. These numbers do not include the convict lunation received from the Kingsten Peaitentiary anterior to or during the past year, or patients betime since then. The last change was longing to the Province of Quebec, but made last fall by Mr. P. Bajus, into whose includes those only whese maintenance hands the institution has passed.

In this apartment the lager receives the finishing touches, the puncheons holding it being of the capa. city of 300 gallons, and pitched inside for the purpose of giving the beer a peculiar flavour. This branch of the business is presided ever by Mr. Geo. Ziegler, of New York, an expert in the manufacture of lager. The ice house is well arranged. The floor is laid upon cedar joists, covered with two inch tongued and grooved planking, then with two layers of felt, and finally by No. 21 galvanized iron, soldered and made perfectly air and water tight. The walls are battoned and lined in a suitable way, while the roof is tinned and the
