REFORM RALLY.

If the general electoral campaign were not a game at which two parties car play, the Conser atives might complacently regard the proceedings of their recent Convention as having assured success for them at the approaching election. Unanimous and enthusiastic as their recent proceedings were alleged so be, they are notlikely to have everything their own way. The annual meeting of the Ontario Reform Association has been summoned for Tuesday evening, 5th February, in the City of Toronto, and will doubtless be a largely attended political gathering. We sincerely trust that the Convention will include representatives from every riding in the Province, and that in its numbers, the character of its proceedings, and in every other important respect it will prove worthy of the unsullied record of the Liberal party of Canada, and worthy also of the upright, honest Government now supported by that party in Ontario and the Domin-The et.emies of good government are wily, active and united in the determination to re-seize the reins of power. ANTI QUACK.

To the Editor of the British Whig. Sig. - Some misapprehension being kely to arme from the statement made in egard to the finances of the Orphans Home, in your paper on Saturday, it is iestrable to explain that the amount mentioned as means of the Society,$5,798 ncludes the begreet of $3,600, by the late Mr. Watkins the interest of which, when invested, will only amount to the sum of $200, which the Society received from him as an annual gift for many years, and forming a part of the regular income of the Society. And owing to the delay in receiving the bequest, after the demise of Mr. Watkins, the income of the Society has been considerably reluced during the last two years. There was also included in the above amount a legacy of $400, from Mrs. McLeod, which has been expended in outdoor buildings, required for the conventence of the Home.
