HIS PICTURE. As the only likely chance of giving the gentleman prominence, an Opponent organ has presented its readers with a wood cut portrait of Mr. Borboan, M. P. for Drummond and Arthabaska. Under the conviction that he is likely to have no other claims to notoriety, the explanatory intimation is added that he was "the successful candidate who defeated Hon. Mr. Laurier, much for the same reason, we dare say, as the amateur artist appended to his first crude sketch for the purpose of identification, "This is a horse."
