REMEMBERS.

LECTURE BY Dr. CADIZEN at Portmouth on 7.30 p.m.

THE FLAG SLANDER.

The frequency and determination with which Sir John Macdonald, Dr. Tupper and other Tories in the House return to the charge upon Mr. Jones, and in order to brand him with disloyalty, put forward into that gentleman's mouth which he never uttered, prove how much more they set by their flag slander as a means of raising a false political cry in the country.

GOV. LITTLETON AND THE CRISIS.

A Stamp Act was the existing cause of the American revolutionary war. A similarly high-handed injustice, with an enormous Railway Bill-tyranny superadded, is the occasion of the present political crisis in Quebec.

"The Candle of Bohemia."

The lecture of Dr. Burns last night on the above subject, delivered in the Brock Street Presbyterian Church, fully justified the reputation of the doctor as a lecturer of high attainments, and we feel safe in saying he satisfied the most sanguine expectations entertained regarding him.
