

The Daily British Whig

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 20, 1878.

The strength of the public sentiment on the Temperance question in Ontario has been repeatedly indicated by the legislation which has been enacted in its favour in the local House. Perhaps nothing more distinctly denoted the strength of this feeling in the House than the large vote recorded in favour of the motion to curtail the appropriation for alcoholic liquors in the lunatic asylums, one of these being defeated on a vote of 42 to 37.

It is a matter of no small credit to the Ontario Ministry, after the necessarily heavy drafts upon the Provincial Treasury, not only for the maintenance, but for the erection and establishment of institutions for the insane and blind, the deaf and dumb, as well as for the criminal classes, to say nothing of the numerous subsidies to various deserving railway projects, that there should remain in the treasury a surplus of five million dollars. As a good deal of the recent Provincial expenditure has been incurred for the erection of accommodation for the unfortunate classes above referred to, a very considerable curtailment in these appropriations will in future be possible.

Curiously enough, at nearly the same time a Terry Highland deputation has been waiting upon the Macpherson at the Capital, with a frenzied expression of patriotic indignation at presumptions Cartwright's insinuation about the 'prelators' insinuation about the 'prelators' insinuation about the 'prelators'.

A very noticeable incident of the Quebec Ministerial crisis is the fact that Sir Francis Hincks has strongly commended and defended the action of the Lieutenant-Governor in the premises.

There is not much doubt that the construction with which the name of the famous Temperance agitator, Mr. Rice, has been associated, will be eagerly seized upon by many to cast discredit upon the cause he has represented.

Between two and three o'clock yesterday, R. Rice, accompanied by a man and a woman, drove through King street on his way to the railway station, and took his departure from the city on the 3:15 P.M. train. It was stated in yesterday's issue that he was stopped on Monday night at Collins' saloon, corner of Queen and Esther streets.

THE GREAT DROUGHT.—Drought is the dreadful drawback to Australian life. It is the terror of the equator. The New South Wales Agriculturalist, under date of Jan. 26, mentions how seriously it impairs railroads extension. Forage for horses can only be obtained at prices so high that contractors will not proceed with work.

THE TORONTO RIOT.

Of nothing is it more true, that one wrong begets another than in the matter of religious (or strike and rioting). This trouble is always sure to excite reprisal, and the defeated or injured party in one encounter invariably considers it incumbent upon him to pay back with interest, if possible, the grudge due to opponents, on the dubious principle that two wrongs do make a right.

THE NORTH COUNTRY. PARHAM VILLAGE.—A Gazette correspondent relates that Parham, or Smith Mills as it is called, is a pleasant little village about forty miles north of Kingston, and nearly in the centre of Hinckley's Township.

PROBABILITIES.

The Opposition in the House evince a pretty well feigned anxiety for an early dissolution. They are longing to get into the waiting embraces of the people at the polls, so sure do they affect to feel that they will then be upheld by the popular arms to the place of power again.

CURRENCY.

It costs nearly $38,000 per year, to run the Supreme Court of Canada. Dr. Woodgate has been re-elected in London on a charge of forging a $500 note.

THE RIOT ON MONDAY.

FERDINAND PARKER'S DEFEAT IN THE DEBATE OF THE PROCEEDINGS. Monday's riot is still the topic of general conversation. Enquiry yesterday revealed a number of occurrences which, owing to the storm of the night preceding, were not generally known.

BRITAIN.

THE STEAMSHIP MONOPOLY.—New London, March 19.—It is rumored among the Catholics in England that the Pope will shortly make Dr. Newman a Cardinal.

TORONTO.

The Governor General Insulted.—The Rinc Movement, &c. Toronto, March 20.—The Irish Canadian refers to the Patrick's day, just past, as a day of humiliation, because in this Province it was not celebrated generally with the usual processions. It appeals to Irish patriotism not to let the deep shame of this last festival of St. Patrick pass upon them ever again.

WAR TELEGRAMS.

A Greater Difficulty Becoming More Apparent. GREAT DISTRESS. The distress in Servia continues. Five thousand roubles have gone to Wrang and Pirot to bring provisions.

RUSSIAN STATEMENTS. The Agency News says that the text of the Treaty with Russia is communicated to the Powers, and as Russia recognizes such Power's liberty of action at the Congress, it would seem there was no larger object in the formally required by England than that of settling the conditions to the Congress.

OSMAN PASHA'S RETURN. It is expected Osman Pasha will soon be released by the Russians and return to Constantinople.

THE TURKISH LOAN. In the House of Commons Sir Stafford Northcote stated the February dividend the Turkish guarantee loan was paid on by England. The amount was £77,448. A portion of the dividend should come from the Egyptian tribute, but this has not been paid. The Khedive had promised to forward part of it immediately. England had taken steps to obtain a half of the $7,448 from France, which was joint guarantee.

BAD IMPRESSIONS. Vienna, March 20.—The semi-official Political Correspondence prints a St. Petersburg letter which declares England's claim produced so bad an impression in Russia that a meeting of Congress is impossible, it is believed that Congress will meet on April 24.

GREAT ANXIETY. Berlin, March 20.—North and south German newspapers express great anxiety about Austria's future. Russia is buying large quantities of salt-petre and torpedoes.

THE INDEMNITY CLAUSE. A St. Petersburg correspondent believes the Czars did not permit any portion of the indemnity when he ratified the treaty. Well informed people discredit the existence of a secret defensive and offensive treaty.

WELL SERVED. A Paris special says it is stated Russia now proposes to raise the whole treaty to the Congress, leaving it the right to select the articles for discussion. It is believed England will refuse this compromise and Russia eventually yield.

THE TIMES ON TREATIES. The Times, after considering the terms of the proposed Convention, says, 'Nevertheless England must adhere to the demand that the entire treaty of San Stefano be submitted to the Congress. The hope of a statement for the future of development of a system of public law, and upon the maintenance and increase of the authority of Treaties. If the public law of Europe be valid until formally repealed, a new arrangement between Russia and Turkey falls ipso facto by its very nature within the scope of the Treaty of 1856 and 1871. It is not in the power of Russia, and it is not even within the competence of the Congress, to decide whether or not certain clauses of a new Treaty fall within the cognizance of the signatories of the old Treaty. It is bound to take the instrument into consideration as a whole.'

A VIENNA DISPATCH says the deadlock between Russia and Europe is complete. Austria and Germany are altogether opposed to England's demand. Austria has been confidentially informed of the considerations of peace, and considers them moderate and acceptable of further modification at the Congress.

A PESTH SPECIAL STATES the Austro-Hungarian Government has ordered the suspension of work on five Russian torpedo boats, commenced near Russia, pending enquiry.

A PERSA DISPATCH reports the Russians, in consequence of the Porte's objection, have relinquished the idea of going to Bukjuro.

ENGLAND'S GROUND FOR WAR. Vienna, March 20.—It is urged in official circles here that England has no ground to make war without first going to the Congress. If she does not, she will have the disapprobation of Germany and Austria. If England compromises the Congress, Austria's policy will be thwarted, and the hopes of an ultimate Anglo-Austrian alliance must be abandoned. The Berlin Cabinet holds the same view.
