In addition, it was surrounded by a strong fence of kauling stalks plastered with mud, in which there was only one gate, and it is said that on the bursting forth of the flames, the gate-keeper locked the gate and ran away. Many of the Chinese showed much courage in trying to render assistance, as testified by an eye-witness, who, passing just at the time, hastened to do what he could in tearing down the fence and ran away.

The scene presented after the herrible, and the picture of it rises before my mind as one that never can be effaced. The contortions of the features, the positions of the hodies, hands, limbs, mouths, and eyes, the same as when the flame and smoke overtook them, reminded one of the description of Pompeii. Had the gate been left open probably many more might have made their escape, but so rapidly did the flames spread through the mat aneds, and in the straw and mats spread on the ground as a protection against dampness, that before an opening could be made in the fence faw even were left to linger on in suffering. How the fire originated no one seems to know-a spark, probably, from the range where a the time the millet was cooking. -Hong Kong Mail. ----A CARD

BE WISE. Too often a cold or slight cough is considered a very ordinary, trifling affair, just as well left to go as it came, and hence systematically neglected until a simple curable affection is converted into a serious pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware that a cough or cold should never be trifled with, cromptly use Bryan's Lubuonic Wafers which have sustained their reputation for over 30 years. They are always efficacious, and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25e per bes.
