Eloquent Addresses of Rev. Principal Grant

To-day the Annual Convocation Queen's College took place; and as usual it proved a very interesting event. It was but a following up of the brilliant entertainment which occurred last evening, in the shape of a Conversazione, with the additional importance of the announced results of the session. The programme of to-day passed off with great eclat. The attendance of former graduates, Alumui and friends was very large outside the regular Staff and Students of the University. The distinguished visitors from a distance were: Rev. Donald Ross, B.D., of Lachine; Rev. Dr. Jenkins, of Montreal; Rev. Dr. McNish, Cornwall; Rev. D. M. Gordon, B.D., Ottawa ; Rev. Donald Ross, Lancaster ; Rev. First, let me say to you and to them that old Alma Mater manifests all the lusty strength of youth both in work Concealment or ratification is the policy done and in appetite. This past session we have had more students than ever beat any and all times to indulge in illufore; the graduating class is the largest that leaves and the freshman class the largest that entered the College during the twenty six years of her history; and the professors declare that they never had under their care men more earnest and promising. We have had no cases of azing, and no need to enforce discipline. The tone of the students within the walls has been good, and outside the sacred precincts, so far as I can learn their influence on the community is un to the College during the past session by easingly for good. The morale must be excellent that ensures order without Rev. people are to-day dying from thee ffects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The results of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existance of enjoyment and usefulness, as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its case. You can buy a sample bottle for
