The train, boat and car services has been largely increased. Visitors may now reach the grounds by railway from Grenelle and from the station at St. Lazare. The railway route, however, is circoitous, and it may be doubted whether the additional lines of trainway laid down, indeed the whole supplementary service, will be adequate to the public needs. The system of awards has not yet been finally determined on. As a general principle, the judgment of French-men will be preponderant in the French section, and that of foreigners in the other, and the juries will have to draw up full reports. Beautiful faces are those that wear-It matters little if dark or fair-Whole souled honesty printed there. Beautiful eyes are those that show, Like crystal panes where hearth fires glow. Beautiful thoughts that burn below. Beautiful lips are those whose words Leap from the heart like songs of birds, Yet whose utterance prudence guides.

Silent rivers of happiness.
Whose hidden fountains but few may guess. Beautiful graves, where grasses creep, Where brown leaves fall, where drifts lie dee FULL DETAILS OF THE PROGRAMME-THRE
