HEAR, HEAR '-Information from undoubtedly reliable sources indicates that Hon. Mr. Joly, upon the opening of the Legislature, will not only have the majority of four or five which was elected to support him, but that he will be accorded a strong support from many members of the Conservative party from whom it was not looked for or expected. Several vofind his duties will come to a very speedy luntary offers of support have been tendered to Mr. Joly. - Free Press.

> THE popular verdict of the travelling public is that the Colonnade Hotel, Phila delphia, cannot be excelled by any other house in the Quaker City. PULMONARY CONSUMPTION arises from a de cline or deficiency of vitality in the natural ency manifests itself not only in a general wasting or atrophy of the whole body, but also in a peculiar degradation, chiefly in the lungs and lymphatic system, of portions of this bid plasm into a sluggish, low lived, yet proliferating matter, which, instead of maintaining the nutrition and integrity of the tissues (which is the natural office of bioplasm) clogs them and irritates them with a substance which is more or less prome to decay, and eventually involves them also in its own disintegration and des

To remedy this deficiency by sustaining the vitality and sufficiency of the bioplasm, and thus provide for the general building up of the whole system. is the office and design of Robinson a Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto phosphate of Lime.

Porus Flaster. - There has never been a time when the healing of so many different discases has been enused by our ward application as the present. It is an undescuted fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters. They are very soft and pitable, still very adhesive; and a sure ourse for Weak Backs. Fains in the Side and Breast; and are invaluable to those who have a Cold of long standing, and often prevents Consumption. Some even tell us shey believe they were entirely cured by the use of them of a long-seated consumption. Prepared by GEORGE E. MITCHELL, Lowell, Mass, and sold by all Dynggista.
