Our contemporary has made another wicked and snappy attack upon a teacher of the Collegiate Institute. It now accuses him of being an active and bitter partizan, and of having canvassed in the interest of Mr. Gunn. Our contemporary will have to swallow this assertion, as it did the statement that Mr. Godwin was a correspondent of the Addington Reporter. Mr. Godwin has not canvassed for Mr. Gunn. The most he has done in the present political campaign has been to go to four or five places in his neighborhood and show canvassers where certain gentlemen lived. I was ordered by my physician to take it and commenced about the last of August and since that time I have felt like a different man, and also look differently, and all for the better, as the doctor can testify was unable, in the summer, to walk any distance without much fatigue. I can now take my gun and travel all day and feel first rate at night and eat as much as any lumberman. Have not bled any since I took your prepara tion, and now can inflate my lungs without feeling any soreness, and I think I can luffate them up to full measurement same as before was tick, have also gained in flesh; my weight in the summer was 173 lbs., and now is nearly 190 lbs, which is pretty well up my former weight. The foregoing is a correct statement which am prepared to swear to, and I hereby autho-
