SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

A purely vegetable distillation entirely unlike all other remedies. IN the preparation of this remarkable remedy every herb, plant, and bark is subjected to distillation, whereby the essential medical principle is obtained in vapor, condensed and bottled. What remains in the still is inert, valueless, and totally unfit for use in an organism so delicate as the masal passages. Tet all sauffs are insoluble compounds of woody fibre; all tinctures, saturated solutions.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

Is a local and constitutional remedy, and is applied to the misal passages by insufficient, thus allaying inflammation and pain and at once correcting, cleansing, and purifying the secretious. Internally administered, it acts upon the organs of circulation, keeps the skin moist, and neutralizes the scid poison that has found its way into the stomach and thence into the blood. Thus a cure progresses in both directions, and it does not seem possible for human ingenuity to devise a more rational treatment.

U SURPRISING CURE. Gentlemen. — About twelve years ago, while travelling with Father Kemp's Old Folks Concert Troupe as a tenor singer, I took a severe cold and was laid up at Newark, N. J. This cold brought on a severe attack of Catarrh, which I battled with every known remedy for four weeks without avail, and was finally obliged to give up a most desirable position and return home, unable to sing a note. For three years afterwards I was unable to sing at all. The first attack of Catarrh bad left my nasal organs and throat so sensitive that the slightest cold would bring on a frash attack, leaving me prostrated. In this way I continued to suffer. The last attack, the severest I ever had, was terrible. I suffered the most excruciating pain in my head, was so hourse as to be scaredy able to speak, and coughed incessantly. I thought I was going into quick consumption, and I firmly believe that had these symptoms continued without relief they would have rendered me an easy victim. When these symptoms continued without relief they would have rendered me an easy victim. When in this distressing condition, I commenced the use of Banpond's Radical Cure for Catarra, very reluctantly. I confess, as I had tried all the advertised remedies without benefit. The first dose of this wonderful medicine gave me the greatest relief. It is hardly possible for one whose head aches, eyes ache, who can scarcely aniculate distinctly on account of the choking accumulations in his throat, to realize how much relief I obtained from the first application of Sanford's Radical Cure. Under its influence, both internal and external, I rapidly recovered, and by an occasional use of the remedy since, have been entirely free from Catarra, for the first time in twelve years.

Respectfully yours.

These Plasters have now been before the public for two years, and, notwithstanding the immense number of remedies in the form of liniments, lottons, pain-curers, and ordinary plasters, they have steadily increased in sale and met with universal approval, as evidenced by over one thousand unsolicited testimonials in our possession. Many remarkable cases have been certified to by well-known citizens in all parts of the United States, copies of which will be sent free of charge to any one desiring them. Improvements, in many ways, have been made, as suggested by experience and use, until it is believed that they are now perfect in every respect, and the best plaster in the world of medicine. All we ask from every sufferer in the land is a single trial. The price is 25 cents, although the cost is double that of any other plaster. But, the cost is double that of any other plaster. But, notwithstanding the efforts of the proprietors to make the best plaster in the world for the least money, any similar remedy can be bought, numbers of unscrupulous dealers will be found ready to misrepresent them for selfish molites and endeavor to substitute others.
