SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE Is a local and constitutional remedy, and is applied to the massi passages by insufficient, thus allaying inflammation and pain and at once correcting, cleansing, and purifying the secretions. Intercally administered, it acts upon the organs of circulation, keeps the skin moist, and neutralizes the acid poison that has found its way into the stomach and thence into the blood. Thus a cure progresses in both directions, and it does not seem possible for human languagity to devise a more rational treatment.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

A purely vegetable distillation entirely unlike all other remedies.

In the preparation of this remarkable remedy every herb, plant, and bark is subjected to distillation, whereby the essential medical principle is obtained in vapor, condensed and bottled. What remains in the still is inert, valueless, and totally unfit for use in an organism so delicate as the nasel passages. Tet all south are insoluble compounds of woody fibre; all tinctures, saturated solutions.

Gentlemen. — About twelve years ago, while travelling with Father Kemp's Old Folks Concert Troupe as a tenor singer, I took a severe cold and was laid up at Newark, N. J. This cold brought on a severe attack of Catarrh, which I battled with every known remedy for four weeks without avail, and was finally obliged to give up a most desirable position and return home, unable to sing a note. For three years afterwards I was unable to sing at all. The first artack of Catarrh had left my nissil or years and throat so sensitive that the aligntest cold gams and throat so sensitive that the slightest cold would bring on a fresh attack, leaving me prostrated. In this way I continued to suffer. The last attack, the severest I ever had, was terrible. I suffered the most exeruclating pain in my head, was so hoarse as to be seare by able to speak, and coughed incessantly. I thought I was going into quick consumption, and I firmly believe that had these symptoms continued without relief they these symptoms continued without relief they would have rendered me an easy victim. When would have rendered me an easy victim. When in this distressing condition, I commenced the use of Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarin. Very relactantly, I confees, as I had tried all the advertised remedition without beneal. The first dose of this wonderful meditine gave me the greatest relief. It is hardly possible for one whose head aches, eyes ache, who can scarcely articulate distinctly on account of the choking accumulations in his throat, to realize how much relief I obtained from the first application of Sanyond's Radical Cure. Under its influence, both internal and external, I rapidly recovered, and by an occasional use of the remedy since, have been entirely free from Catarrh, for the first time in twelve years.

Respectfully yours,

GEO. W. HOLBROOK.

An Electro-Galvanio Battery combined with a highly Medicated Plaster containing the choicest medicinal Gums and Balsams known to modern Phar-These Plasters have now been before the public for two years, and, notwithstanding the immense number of remedies in the ferm of liniments, lotions, pain-curers, and ordinary plasters, they have steadily increased in sale and met with universal approval, as evidenced by over one thousand un-solicited testimonists in our possession. Many re-markable cases have been certified to by well-known citizens in all parts of the United States, copies of which will be sent free of charge to any one desiring them. Improvements, in many ways, have been made, as suggested by experience and use, until it is believed that they are now perfect in every respect, and the best plaster in the world of medicine. All we ask from every sufferer in the land is a single trial. The price is 50 cents, sithough the cost is double trust of any other plaster. But, notwithstanding the efforts of the proprietors to make the least plaster in the world for the least money, any a milar remedy can be bought, num-bers of unser spulous dealers will be found ready to misrepresent them for selfish motives and endeavor to substitute others. cament of course be regarded as coming from the Committee of which, by the favour of the General Assembly, I was apprinted Convener. For an obvious reason it could not be submitted to the Committee before being presented to the Assembly. On that account it is confined to a brief statement of facts. In these circumstances the writer has one advantage to which he has pleas are in adding another, to wit, that the Assembly will naturally look to some of his co-delegates to supply deficiencies, and in so doing the or-delegates will have purfect freedoin in giving utterances to their imprersions and opinious with respect to the meeting, in many respects most remark. able, which we had the privilege of attending. The General Assembly of 1877 appointed delegates to the first meeting of the "General Council" of "The Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the world holding to the Presbyterian system," and instructed the Committee on Correspondence with other Churches to fill during the course of the year such vacancies as might occur in the list, ac that the full number of delegates appointed to the Presbyterian Church in Canada might be btained. After much correspondence and many changes, the lis: was finally sent to the Secretary of the Scotch L cal Committee, and of the General Committee appointed by the Conference House within five minutes. W. SNODGRASS. Convener of Committee on Correspondence with other Churches. Rev. Principal Grant said credit was due to the delegates who had gone to the Pan-Presbyterian Council, at such expense of money and time, and bore the cost themselves. It was an extraordinary meeting - the Church was so broad been manifested here. One Church had used hymns for conturies; another organs since the Reformation; a third admitted Baptists; and another had a partial must contribute to the advancement of sential, and things which were indiffer-

Rev. Principal Grant moved, seconded by Rev. Dr. Walters, St. John, N.B., That the Assembly has listened with much satisfaction to the report of the delegates appointed to attend the Presbyterian Conneil at Edinburgh, and thanks the delegates for the diligence which they manifested. Also, that the report of the Jommittee on Correspondence with other Churches be received and approved of.
