BOARD OF AUDIT at 11 a.m. MONTHLY Meeting at St James Church Tem-perance Society at 7:30 p.m.

The Liberal Government of Quebec is still in power in spite of the adverse predictions of the Tory organs. Hon. Mr. Joly has even been sustained in the evenof the Speaker's vote. Strange anomaly this that a Cabinet should command support enough to keep in office in an assem bly where we have been so confidently assured the Opposition is in the ma jority.

The recent return of the Liberal candidates, Wilson and Roberts, as members o the Imperial Parliament for Middleboro and Flint, respectively, furnishes a current proof that the Conservative wave has not so completely overswept the British Islands, as some are trying to make it appear. The results of these by elections would indicate that the war party, even aided by all the prestige of Beaconsfield's much vaunted diplomatic successes, would not have all its own way in the event of a general election. One of the above candidates, Mr. Wilson, was elect ed by a majority of 2,892, a sufficiently decisive defeat for the Tory party of the place, and an indication to the Government that their policy has not won universal admiration.

Now that Lord Dufferin has definitely announced his intention not to consent to a prolongation of his term as Canadian Viceroy, what is to become of our friend, the Leader's semi-official announcement, that he would likely remain here till a "new and better Cabinet" was appointed ! The Imperial Cabinet had requested His Excellency to stay on for the reason and the purpose just stated. And he has refused to do so. This is surely a piece of contumacy on the part of his Lordship, for which he should be called to account. In thus declining to remain to usher in the new and better Cabinet, cannot our Tory contemporaries discover an attitude of under friendliness towards the present Grit Government? No charge for the auggestion, but if there's anything in it Dord Dufferin should at once be classed with Governor Letellier as a partizan Administra tor, and abused accordingly.

QUEER PEOPLE.

The Toronto Telegram thinks that the country will object to Sir John Macdonald more on account of the "queer" com known simply as the "Central Total pany he keeps than because of his own personal demerits. This is certainly kind of left-handed compliment to the Tory party which embraces, in fact connists of, the "queer people" to whom our contemporary alludes. To be thus declared to be incomparably worse than their admittedly corrupt Chieftsin is the unkindest cut yet dealt by the Independent organ to the sub-Lieutenants and the rank and fyle of the Tory party. In justice to the latter, however, it has to be said that, bad as they may be, their gravest folly was that of condoning their Chieftain's crimes and re adopting him at their leader after his conviction of them-The hero of the Pacific Scandal iniquity is justly regarded as the incubus of his party. He is the millstone which will continue to keep his party under the water. "Queer people" the Conservatives undoubtedly are, but they deserve this appellation for the rank folly they perpetrated when they confided their fortunes to a man who had dragged their party through the mire of failure, disgrace and public contempt.

THE PRESIDE NCY.

Republican expectations are being turned to General Grant as candidate for Wolfe Island, S. S. No. 1. the next Presidential term. Scarcely a Wolfe Island, S. S. No. 4. more unlikely candidate than he could have been selected from the ranks of the party before the last election, so unpopular had he rendered himself by means of his nepotism and his general indifference to, or his quan encouragement of, official corruption. In his absence from home the irregularities of his regime are growing more hazy, and the exigences of his party are compelling Republicans to think that being his sixtieth birthday, which he of Ulyanes and his military prowess and feared he would not survive. No Rou prestige as the only means of escape from manow before him ever attained the age their present party desperation. Thus the ever would. A little over a year ago the vision of a third term in the White House Grand Duchess Helene died shortly beseem to be a returning possibility to fore completing her sixtieth year-a cirwho but a short time since was cumstance that looked, to the Czar, like To be the Republican nominee, however, by no means implies recovery of the him into deep despondency. General Grant has had his full share of Presidential honours, and cannot do better than to continue resting on his laurele. It is not very likely that he will ever again enter the political arens. At any rate, he will think twic, or oftener, before risking defeat as candidate for the Presidency.

Presidency.

Exactly why the manufacturers should have the sympathies and the taxes of every other class of the community in a time like the present does not very clearly appear. In past prosperity and it present ability to outrice the financial tempest no class of Canadian citizens can begin to compare with our manufacturers. Their palatial residences bestud the country in every direction. As a class they are the monied princes of the land All through Ontario the invariable ac companiment and complement of the humming hives of industry is the adjacent Great House of the proprietor, giving both without and within, the most ample evidences of unstinted and luxurious wealth. So universally is this the case that the fact we have cited cannot escape

As mere specimen proofs of what we say, we might mention the McLarys of London, the Noxons of Ingersoll, the Barbers of Streetsville, Haggart of Brampton Glenu and the Gibbses of Oshawa; to say nothing of Messrs, Sand ford, Moore, Wanzer, the Gurneys and many like them in Hamilton, Toronto

New York, July 8. A Raleigh, N.C. special gives the outlines of the new election law passed by the last Legislature, and charges that by its provisions the negro vote will be thinned out, as a vote can be rejected by judges of the election after a challenge, even if the challenged party takes an oath that he is a qualified voter. On the first day of the registration a Democrat, appointed for the special purpose, went to six places of registration who presented himself for registration, Cleveland, O., July 8 - A farmer from Knox county reports that farmers are se-

New York, July 8 - The Times says the time has come, in the estimation of a good many sober minded property owners of this city to decide, whether or not it would be economical and wise to abandon the Rrooklyn Bridge just as it is. The subject has been taken up by the council of political Reform and its members have already began a contest to pre-
