KINGSTON PRESBYTERY.

On Tuesday the Kingston Presbytery met in Napanee, the Moderator, Rev. Mr. Young, of Napanee, in the chair. Many items of business came up, but only n fe v are of interest to the general reader at the present time.

Rev. John Cormack, of Harrowsmith, tendered his resignation, which will be considered and probably accepted at the next meeting of the Presbytery. On Tuesday evening a meeting in the interest of Queen's College was held, and such was the impression left upon the audience that yesterday Rev. T. G. Smith alone received from seven persons subscriptions to the amount of $700 for the Endowment Fund.

Dr. Fee appeared on the scene and endeavored to quell the disturbance, but failed. Finally, Col. Hance, who lives not far distant, was heard approaching, and immediately there was a scatterment of the disorderly and cowardly ones. To some these midnight marauders must be known, and we trust that Magistrate, and be taught a little respect and civilization. It is downright cowardice for four or five to beat and belabour one man in the dark, when they have a chance of escaping identification; and we have no sympathy with those who engage in such dishonorable business.
