CLUES TO A HOMICIDE COMMITTED TEN YEARS AGO. Ten years ago last April Andrew Leamy, a prominent citizen of Ottawa County, met with a tragic death near his own residence, near the Chelsea Road. The circumstances connected with the case were of the most suspicious character, and at the time it was very generally believed that he had been waylaid by roughs and robbed and murdered. De ceased had spent the day in the city, and on returning home in the evening met inquest was held, but no light could be thrown on the manner of his death. An open verdict was therefore returned. At the time, however, it was known that when he left home that morning he had in his possession a very valuable gold watch and chain, as well as a small sum of money, but when picked up the watch and chain were missing. This naturally created great excitement in the community for a time, and the authorities at Aylmer undertook an investigation. There were no new developments, however, and in the course of time the matter was almost forgotten. Nothing more was done until yesterday, when Bailiff Clawson, of Aylmer, informed Mrs. Leamy. wife of the deceased, that a woman had called on him, and said that on the night of the 21st of August her husband presented her with a gold watch and chain, which she produced and handed to Mr. Clawson for inspection. She said this was Mrs. Learry's watch, but how her husband came into possession of it she did not know.
