

Persecuted by Elise.
THE DEMAND, MADE BY THE SPIRIT OF A FORMER MATE IN LOVE.

A strange domestic disturbance exists in a family whose place of residence is San Jacinto street. The gentleman and his wife live alone, and while the former cherishes his better half, she does him in return, they are both of the opinion that they will be compelled to separate.

The wife, who has been the past few months developing a spiritual medium, and developing such phenomena as make her husband think that he admits that, in order to find peace and comfort, he will be compelled to leave his wife, whom he adores above all other creatures on earth. She, too, looks at the master in the same way and is free to confess that she will no peace for them until the separation occurs. The spirit mediums themselves are unbroken by this, and, while they are not particularly frightened, prove never that a source of great annoyance to her and her husband. The furniture is laid about the house, the bed on which they sleep is tilted, and a thousand other mischievous pranks are played by the ghosts.

The spirit that causes the greatest disturbance is that of a young man who was the husband's rival for the hand of his wife, and which inspired their separating, having communicated to the medium the fact that she never gave them peace or quiet until they do so. The medium is a most sensible woman; and they had kept the entire matter a secret, hoping that the annoyance would cease, but the spirit in question becomes more violent each night, and he and his wife have mutually agreed to live apart for a while at least.—Dallas Herald.
