SICNIFICANT.

Who can inform us why the so-claimed safe and staunch Tory county of Cardwell has not yet been supplied with Tory candidate. So far as we can ascertain it is the only riding in Ontain where the Conservative party is without a standard bearer. For quite a consi derable time in the Tory lists of candidates Mr. Gunn's name was inserted in the Ministerial column and Sir John' omitted as candidate for Kingston, al though the Chieftain's nomination for this city was made some time before Mr. Gunn was decided upon by the Liberal party as his opponent. At length the name of Sir John Macdonald was tardily inserted in the lists as Tory nominee for Kingston. The so-deemed "safe" constituency of Cardwell, how-yet remains "open," so far as the are concerned, Mr. Pattullo having been for some time in the field as the Reform candidate. It will be remembered that after his defeat by Mr. Smith it the county of Peel (which had been held as a Tory stronghold for many years) the late Hon. John Hillyard Cameron took refuge in this same county of Cardwell Is this bit of history to be repeated in the political experience of this city and its late member? Is Cardwell being reserved as the asylum of the sure-to-be defeated Sir John? The indications all point in that direction. The Tories are doing well thus to provide for the very probable contingency of their Chieftain's defeat by the indignant electors of the

THE REAL PROTECTIONISTS.

Our able contemporary has unwittingly done the Liberal cause a material service by freely quoting the opinions of leading Reformers on the subject of Protection. The simple organ seems to be highly 'taken' with these favourable allusions to moderate protection, and delusively imagines the tables may turned on Reformers by the reproduction of them. A fatuous blunder, this, for which we were hardly prepared, even from the local mouthpiece of the stupid party. As thelorgan labours to show, it is quite true that the Liberals have proven themselves to be the true Protectionists. To go the length of judicious PRO-TECTION, and yet stop short of onerous the result being that $57 was subscribed and unjust TAXATION, is, and has been, the consistent policy of the present Government. Canadian Reformers are NOT FREE TRADERS, as the Tories are vainly trying to to make themselves and the country believe. The Liberals are the INCIDENTAL PROTECTIONISTS. while the Tories have been declared by Sir John himself to be mere TARIFF TINKERS. No other construction can possibly be put upon the Boyd telegram which declared that "HE NEVER PROPOSED AN INCREASE, BUT ONLY A READJUSTMENT OF THE TARIFF." Reformers believe in fair and reasonable protection to home industries. Their party record furnishes ample proof of the truth of this statement. They have not talked protection, merely, as have their opponents, but they have meant business and given tangible proof of their sincerity by giving protection. True, the Liberals never clamoured for inordinate protection whom out of office for the sake of getting in, but when they obtained the power they accorded INCREASED PROTECTION (to the extent of the requirements of the revenue) by raising the Tory tariff of 15 per cent. to J7 per cent., the present figure. On the other hand the Tories were in power for twenty years, and when in office DECREASED THE PROTECTION to OLD "struggling manufacturer" by Expuerse THE TARIFF to 15 per cent, the figure at | of business relating to or affecting houses which it shoul till raised by the present and lands. This will supply a business Government. Never till they were did the Tory leaders pretend to demand the very thing they not only refused to grant, but actually, as we have seen

And yet, forsooth, because Mr. Guns is the Liberal caudidate, he must foreg a friendly practice he has followed fo years lest he may awaken a maliciously ill-favoured reflection like that to which we have adverted. Had we been equally desirous with our contemporary of converting the accessories of the departer into political capital we might have it dulged in a fling at the Chieftain fo precisely the same offence (?) of following recently the remains of a Kingstonian to the parrow house. We did indeed allude to the incident, but only in terms of com mendation that our local member and Sir Oct. 8 John Macdonald should be seen paired off Oct. 9 & 10 in the funeral procession, and to express sion for a truce from political conflict could present itself than in the presence North Ontario, Perth Perry Sept. 16 to 17 of the dead. We suppose in opposition to Mr. Rochester, the present Conservative mem ber, Mr. May has announced himself, also as a Conservative candidate for the County of Carleton. If this be the veritable John May who was rescued from the ruin of rum in the 'Rine' campaign in Ottawa city, his candidature will have some non-political interest for some, at least, of the people of Kingston. There s, however, a political peculiarity about Mr. May's address to which we wish to refer. He emphatically declares 'I am and always have been a Conservative' and then immediately adds, "I am an enemy to all class legislation'. and further on, "I shall insist upon economy in the public expenditure with a view to REDUCING THE BURDEN OF TAX ATION.", May he be elected, say we, fail ing a still better man. Sensible 'Conserservative, and deserving of special and honorable mention, thus to repudiate the policy of 'class legislation' and invidious 'taxation,' which his chief proposes to impose upon the already sufficiently tax burdened people of Canada. We shall hail Mr. May's return to Parliament, at any rate in preference to the taxationist hold. who has lately represented that constituency. A GREAT BALLY FOR SHIBLEY, Mr. Patterson's address was declared by donald and the polished blackguard, Ald. Drennan, to admit so much.
