The Fever Scourge-No Police Partiality to be Allowed-An Election How,

(By Telegraph To-day.) Montrest, Sept. 10. - Application has enry E. Strenger, British Consul of New Orleans, for help to aid British subcots suffering from yellow fever. Ald McShane drew the attention the City Council to the alleged partiality of the police owing to the influence of the Mayor in favor of Conservatives at the political meetings. The Chairman of the Police Commissioners gave assurance that there was no partiality, and police would be at the disposal of Liberals and Con-servatives alike to quell disorders. Bailiff Morcor was assaulted by a Conservative bruiser named Frank Jarvis, in the Windsor Hotel on Saturday night fter the Conservative meeting. hercer has had Jarvis arrested and Jarvis has brought counter charges. Mercer's eyes are in mourning. The secused Orangemen intend going to jail to-day having requested bail bonds to be surrendered with an object of having the case brought to speedy issue.

COLD-BLOODED TORY ASSAULT.

A MR. PERRY KNOCKED FROM THE PLAT

and the temper they have been in can be inferred from the cold-blooded assault on Fred. Perry, after he had been invited to the platform by the Conservative orator, Mr. Chapleau. A. M. Ogilvie denies this morning the statement that he was a party to the outrage. There can be no doubt but that Ogilvie insulted Perry and that Ald. Kennedy, a notorious Tory bruiser, struck him with a cudgel and knocked him off the platform to the ground. The Tories themselves initiated this policy of rowdyism at Mr. Darling's moeting, and, taking all in all, the two parties in the Western Division are only about quits, although the reception the Chieftain was certainly bitter disappointment. The statement of the Guzette that 10,000 people were present is a gross exaggeration.

He would have no person act for him. He had no use for an agent; that he had no bribery or corruption to do.

Eventually the City Solicitor was summoned to give an opinion, and while this was in preparation Sir John Macdonald and the Mayor entered, and for a time the law was read and discussed, but yet without satisfaction. Upon this opinion the Returning Officer accepted the papers of the Independent candidate, the Doctor masing affidavit that he knew the persons who signed the requisition, and that they had signed the document properly, and that he knew England. imself. He objected to appoint an agent because he said he could not get a man who was sufficiently honest and intelligent. He created quite a bit of applause when he referred to his triumphant application of the law, which he said he had specially studied and reviewed.

Sir John Macdonald and Mr. Gunn had their papers put on file at a later hour. They had the requisition attested according to the Returning Officer's idea of the law, and each had an agent appointed, Sir John selecting Mr. J. B. Walkem, Mr. Gunn taking Mr. J. STREET PRACAS.

Last evening a renewal of party disturbances took place. The O. Y. Britons' Band landed on return from the Orange pic-nic about eight o'clock. They played a quick step on their way up town, and were accompanied by three hundred persons. In the Market Square a atone fell among the players, and stantly there was commotion. Two pisa rush for the sidewalk, and a row seemed imminent. Mr. Thos. Robinson called upon the Band to fall in and march on and Police Constables Nesbitt, Campbell and McCormick used their services to the same end, and the procession moved away, the band playing "The Protes" tant Boys." One man was searched for s revolver, but none was found. Mr. Robinson counselled the band to proceed to the Orange Half and disperse, but it proceeded eastward towards the Roman Catholic sections. At. Mrs. Hogan's corner another excitement occurred, and two men are said to have been found under a cart and punished by the friends of Band for alleged firing of stones. young woman was here arrested by the police on a charge of firing stones, and taken to the station, where a crowd gathered. She was released, however, on personal recognizance to appear to-day for trial. The Band next proceeded to Chapel, where another lively breeze oc curred. Some windows of Mr. Gormley's takes presension of the River Cunere, in house and one near by were broken. Mr. fork, William McLaughlin was a subject of attack on a charge of throwing stones, and the police escorted 307 men in hospital out of 2,640 of a band also had a skirmish on the hill near the quarry, and at another point Mo Lough lin appeared again, and an encounter with some of she crowd occurred. This morning the young woman was discharged without any trial. We have given the facts without varnish, as they are told to us. We have already said a great deal in discouragement of these rows and the provocations given.

Obituary .

John Allan Morgan, son of Wm. F. and Ann Morgan, of Oswego, died Kingston, Outario, September 4, aged 29 Wisconsin, where he was engaged in railroad affairs, which had been his business for the past ten years. At one time he was general freight agent of the N. Y. & O. M. RR., and has been variously employed as clerk, bookkeeper and general treight agent. In February last, he was injured in a collision while traveling the company's business, from which never fully recovered. Subsequently he was attacked by quick consumption, which brought him to his death, at the house of his sister, Mrs. George S. Oldrieve, in Kingston. Mr. Morgan was an estimable young man and one of much promise, and a void is felt in the hearts of his numerous acquaintances in this city. - Oswego Palladium.
