OLD TIME ANDI.

Old Time and I the other night Had a carouse together; The wine was golden, warm and bright-Ay! just like summer weather.

Quoth I, "There's Christmas come again
And I no farther richer,"

Time answered, "Ah I the old, old strait
I pray thee pass the pitcher.

"Why measure all your good in gold."
No robe of sand is weaker;
Tis hard to get, 'tis hard to nold
Come lad, fill up your beaker.
Hast thou not found true friends more true
And loving ones more loving?"
I could but say, "A few—a few;
Fokeep the liquor moving." "Hast thou not seen the prosp'rous kna" Come down a precious thumber— His cheats disclosed? "I have—I have !"

"Nas, hold a while; I've seen the just Find all their hopes grow dimmer."
"They will hope on, and strive, and trust,
And conquor!" "That's a brimmer." "Tis not because to night is dark— No brighter day's before 'em;

There's rest for every storm toss'd bark.
"So be it! Pass the jorum.
"Yet! must own I should not mind To be a little richer."
"Labor and wait, and you may find-Hallo ! an empty pitcher.

WHAT IT MEANS. Workingmen of Kingston. By sup-porting the taxationist candidate Sir John Macdonald you will vote for dear bread, dear fuel, and dear light, dear everything. By voting for this man you will be supporting a policy which is intended to TAX all that the poor man has to buy, without giving the least protection to his labour or affording him any hope of increase in either work or wages. Don't be hoodwinked, by the man who has no therease in either work or wages. Don't be hoodwinked, by the man who has an often sold you, into supporting a policy which is intended to entich the few at the expense of the many, and which if once put in operation will make the poorman poorer in order to make the rich man richer. It has wasted TEN THOUSAND MILLIONS of PEOPLE into destitution.

It has plunged four millions of PEOPLE into destitution.

It has reined the whole foreign American shipping trade.

It has recated a system of rings, of log rolling, and of legislative corruption heretofore unparalleled in the annals of any legislative body.

It has stimulated the spread of Socialistic and of Communistic doctrines of the worst kind.

It has, to a very great degree, destroyed one of greatest asfe-guards of American society, by altering the system of distribution of property and by creating a small number of gigantic fortunes at the expense or the imporerishment of large masses of the people.
