COINERS CAGED. THE ODESSA-WILLIAMSVILLE COUNTERFEIT

ING CASE. Most of the readers of the Wind will remember the counterfeiting case, in osing hand. Subsequently, it will be remembered, one Jackson was arrested at Stratford, and conveyed to Naponee for trial. Subsequent facts are supplied by the Advertise. Our contemporary George Phoenix, formerly of London, who has been doing business as a bucher in Stratford for about a yest, was arrested by Detective O'Neil, of the Dominion police force, on a charge of counterfeitin . It appears that he is the chief coiner of a counterfeiting gang in Toronto, Hamilton, London and Brantmade probably $3,000 or $4,000 of logus half dollars and quarters. At first he confined his attention to Yankee coin. but latterly made Canadian balvos and quarters, and capital imitations they were, he having hit on a process to plate hem with a solution only and without using a battery, as is commonly done. Two of the gang, a man named Jackson and his son, passed considerable of the money throughout the county of Perth last winter, and were arrested by Chief Wilson, of Stratford, some two months ago. The old man was for exhibition." It was added: "Some of 68 entries, the names most prominent- tried by Police Magistrate O'leiane, us have been exhibiting for the past ly connected with which are Mrs. C. and was sent to Kingston for seven years, Detective O'Neill arrived in Strationd from Ottava some two or three weeks ago and took Jackson to Napaner, where aufficiently to get the whole story out of ting in cotton, and lace work was exceed. how, and to personate how to turn described the way in which the coin was made and at what places, and exposed the modus operandi of circulating it, which was to sell it to trusty persons at 40 per cent, and let them work it off as best they could.

Phoenix, the chief coiner, who was arrested at Stratford, had lived with Jackson's father and mother, and latterly Mrs. J. has been living with Phoenix as his mistress. This rather riled young Jackson, and made him more willing to Thomas Ryan, Edward Heindl and Those at the meeting were fully satisfied Clogg and Mr. E.
