CITY COURCIL.—Regular Meeting at 8 p.m. MINDEN LODGE -Regular Meeting at 7:30 pm St. GEERGE'S SOCIETY.-Monthly Meeting

Accepting the result of recent municipal elections throughout France as an indication the jubilant Republicans are confident of victory in the Senatorial elections which are to transpire on the 5th of January. In the preliminary contests referred to the Republicans have lost nothing while they have taken much ground from their opponents. They are now quite confident of reversing the present adverse majority in the Senate and of thus consolidating Republican ascendancy. From the steady progress lately made by the Republicans in France it is quite evident that conservatism is doomed in that country.

Half ashamed on Saturday night (and it will be much more so now) of the malignant action of the Tories of Centre Huron, our local contemporary declared that to be a matter solely concerning the rejoicing at Mr. Cartwright's defeat. Conservatives of that particular constitufoot in the county, till local and outside debate, more especially in matters finan-Tories alike and together were completely cial. Quite confident were the Tories routed by the sturdy Reformers of Centre | that after such a sweep of the constituen-Huron at the polls. Having vainly done cies in their favour no refuge would be their best to influence the electors there found for the Liberal Finance Minister. to reject Mr. Cartwright, these outsiders on this point they have been sadly sold. now return to their respective homes This whole chapter of electoral history beaten and baffled, to ponder over the fickleness of political fortune and the collapse of an outside influence which they were silly enough to think would weigh with the men of Centre Huron and result | ness of having done his country-through in the defeat of Hon. Mr. Cartwright.

Local Tory organ says magnanimity is a virtue never practised by Reformers, and yet announces the likelihood that the new Tory Ministers will not be opposed to-day on going back to their consti tuents for re-election ! As though conscious of the glaring inconsistency of the above the organ attempts to explain away this excess of Liberal magnanimity by saying Reformers are convinced that discretion is the better part of valour. Nov Mr. Tilley in St. John was said to b elected by a majority of half a dozen Where would be the hardihood from party point of view in challenging his doubtful re-election ? On the other hand Mr. Horton was returned by a majority of nearly four hundred. Where was the discretion of the Tories in running their defeated candidate the second time - as i proved-to a still more inglorious defeat They did it to give trouble; it was the opposition of faction. If the Reform party chose to retaliate every man of the new Ministry would be opposed tooth and nail to the bitter end.

SIR JOHN'S INTENTIONS.

Says our contemporary:

"No opposition is to be made to the return of Hon. John O'Connor in Russell, the alleged reason being that his early elevation to the Bench is anticipated. W. are not in a position to speak, except from current report, of Mr. O'Connor's qualitications for a judgeship. Should he be selected, the choice will be pleasing to the Catholics of Ontario, and doubtless that is one reason why the nomination nomination is mooted. It is well known that Sir John Macdonald intended to offer a judgeship to the late James O Reilly, Q.C., but was prevented from carrying out the design by his defeat in 1873, and Mr. O'Reilly died not long after."

For "mooting" the numination of Hon. John O'Connor to a judgeship the Spec may perhaps take party credit, but certainly not for the fact that no opposition is to be made to his re-election. For this especially in view of Centre Huron provocation, the Reformers must be given the credit; and if as our contemporary allege . this forbearance on the part of the Liberals of Russell is due to the rumour of the Hon. gentleman's elevation to the Bench, then must they be accorded the credit of so far favouring and assist ing his appointment thereto. We quote the above however, chiefly for the purpose of refuting a glaring misrepresentation in reference to the late Mr. O'Reilly. The Spectator may of course know all about it but we are in a position to say that such an intention on the part of Sir John to honour Mr. O'Reilly never came to the knowledge of the learned gentleman's friends in this city. What is well know, here, however, is THE FACT that when Mr. O'Reilly was named for the County judgeship of Frontenac, the intended ar, pointment was cancelled by Sir John. because the Hon. Alexander Campbell refused to run as a candidate for Cataraqui division if Mr. O'Reilly were awarded the position. In order to meet this objection Sir John Macdonald appointed the late Mr. G. W. Draper over the head of Mr. O'Reilly, although the latter was in every sense eminently fitted for the position, his religion being notoriously the only objection to his appointment. The Spectator may saume to know what Sir John intended to do for Mr. O'Reilly; the people of Kingston know what he did do with him under the circumstances above recounted. It is the old, old story, claiming credit on Sir John's behalf, not for what he has done, but for what he also, if such obstructions are knowingly intended to do, had not something or permitted by our police authorities? otherintervened to prevent the consumma tion of his purpose. Tired of his treachers the people of Kingston, of every class and creed, determined to adjudge the man promise by his record rather than by his "prospectus," and his decisive defeat at the late election was the inevitable conse-

CENTRE HURON.

GREAT LIBERAL VICTORY !- HON. ME. CARTWRIGHT TRIUMPHANTLY ELECTED!

As we expected and predicted, the Hon. R. J. Cartwright has been returned for Centre Huron by an overwhelming majority. When devotion to his official duties kept him away from his old constituency, his enemies took a mean advantage of his absence to steal a march upon him, and he was defeated in Lennox by a small majority. Ever since his former election there had his opponents been busily burrowing his constituency and undermining him in the confidence of the electors by all sorts of clap-trap and misrepresentation. To the very last Mr. Cartwright had confidence that the men of Lennox were honest and independent enough to resist and repudiate the attacks of his maligners, and so continued to devote himself with unabated assiduity to the public interest elsewhere. But his confidence in the electors of Lennox was not justified by the event. True, very nearly half the electors stood by him and scouted the vile slanders that were made to do duty against him, but a sufficient number of the floating, unthink ing and indifferent electors suffered themselves to be mind-poisoned against him, and the result was the loss of his seat by a narrow majority. Great was the Tory was eagerly accepted in this region as a ency. 'They only,' says the organ, 'are sort of consolstory offset to the crushing responsible. > To all Reformers, to all independent electors, and even to the fair-thinking men of the Tery party Hon. Mr. Cartwright's election should be a matter for congratulation. Such men as he can ill be spared from the House of Commons at any time; but particularly is this true of Mr. Cartwright and the present crisis. Absolutely necessary is it when a fiscal revolution is on the tapis that its opponents as well as its advocates should have their public 'say' upon it. None is more competent to take a prominent, intelligent and influential part in the tariff debates than the Hon. member for Centre Huron, and the whole country is to be felicitated that in the public interest Mr. Tilley the new Finance Minister will be confronted by his distinguished predeces sor. Again we say all honour to Mr. Horton and the men of Centre Buron for the incalulable service they have done not only the Liberal party but the whole place and power.

Mr. Cartwright. The death of Chief Justice Harrison justly regarded as a serious loss to the Bench and the country. He did not live long to enjoy his well-merited judiciry distinction, having-although a staunch Conservative in politics -- been elevated to the Bench by the late Liberal Government. It is too early as yet to speculate on the changes that may be made in the Ontario judiciary to fill the vacancy created by his demiss. It is quite safe to conjecture that a re-cast of the Cabinet will be one of the results of the untoward
