The Affghan Question,

Mr. Gladstone, in a speech delivered at Rhyl, declined to give the Government the confidence it asked on the Affghanistan question and complained of its withholding authoritative information, Reviewing the information which was Reviewing the information which was obtainable, he showed that the relations with Affghanistan were satisfactory during his administration, and he justified the displeasure of the Ameer at the British eccupation of Quettah. He pointed out that the weak power which a professedly chivalrous Government threatened to punish for receiving a Russian embassy was less culpable than the sender of the embassy. The sending of the embassy was apparently a breach of Russia's engagements to England, but he feared Russia would cite as justification the unfriendly conduct of the British Government. Mr. Gladstone declared that to saddle India with the expenses of a defence against imaginary danger would be an injustice as monstrous as any recorded in the history of the world. Mr. Glad-stone, in conclusion, asked the people to compare the state of England in 1873 with that in 1878. He energetically defended the Geneva arbitration and thought it far better to make a nation of 40,000,000 a friend than one of 80,000, 000 an enemy. What they were now protesting against was not merely a series of false steps, but a new system of Government by personal responsibility of the Sovereign-only too likely to sap the foundations of a monarchy.

Professor Dupuis' opinion, of the above named medicine as a CHEMICAL COM-POUND, is as follows: "I have carefully examined the composition of a Toule Compound known as the STANLEY ETHIOPIC ELIXIR, and have found its ingredients to be wholly vegetable, and of reputed medicinal value. It contains no incompatibles, nomineral or other possons, and it might be takening ven abnormal doses without producing serious consequences. I believe it to be thoroughly sate, and reliable, as far as it is a Chemical Compound." (Signed N. F. Dupuis,

Professor of Chemistry, Queen's College, Kingston, Ont. We, the undersigned, ce. tify to whom it may concern, that having personally or in our families, used the STANLEY ETHIOPIC ELIXIB THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE ON referred to by Professor Dupuis in his certificate, cheerfully commend it to the public as
