Toronto Telegram: That Mr. Blake will

There must be no more dictation-no more party tyranny. Lindsay Pest: The time has undoubtedly come when more progressive reform and advanced liberalism must step to the front; and there is need for an onward movement, and that Mr. Blake's presence in the House would have a quickening and send to their friends they had better do far reaching influence. We also believe so immediately. 'Jee Gosling' then made that if Mr. Blake's health does not deter him, he will make the sacrifice of devoting his splendid talents almost wholly to public affairs, and will assume, under proper conditions, the responsibilities of an active and all prevading interest. He is elavated above the partizan, though he is a party man. His country has the first claim on him. and to this he would sacrifice all other claims. If there be an effort to keep
