The Daily British Whig,

WEDNESDAY EV'NG, DEC. 11 1878. Taxpayers who have not yet paid their City Taxes are reminded to do so at once and save costs. Mr. Tilley has allotted the balance the Canadian loan of $15,000,000, 964, and much adds is made by the Tory , organs of the Finance Minister's success In the face of the persistency with which some of the Conservative journals have cried down the credit of the country, it is encouraging that Mr. Tilley floated a loan at all, but there is no cause for congratution, the rate being decidedly low.

Hon. Edward Blake will have a seat Parliament before long, Mr. Burke, South Durham, having intimated his tention to resign, to make room for the Liberal statesman, The Reform party of the Dominion must feel pleased with the prospect of having Mr. Blake in the House during the next session, probably as the leader of the Opposition, in which position many desire to see him, and in whose favour Mr. Macsenzie is understood to be desirious of standing aside.

We admit that we have been mistaken in regard to certain predictions which have been made by the Globe. We now see that it does look upon the result of the East Toronto election as indicative of the next Ontario elections. Such a suggestion we were loath to credit to our Toronto contemporary so unreasonable does it seem. The fact is both the Globe which it is not entitled, and the latter, in advocacy of Mr. Morris, making statements and representations which its own party will not ondorse. We look upon the election as a purely local matter, and as for the Opposition leadership the party will attend to it and please themselves irrespective of the aspirations of Mr. Morris and the Mail.

The electoral frauds of the South are be made in the United States what the fa mous National Policy was made in Canada-an election cry. Both parties pro fess to be interested in the promised in vestigation. The old-time and extreme Republicans expect to profit by it, that is, anticipating an expose of Democratic corruption which will cause all liberalminded politicians, who are identified with the party of the first part, and yet are at times disposed to sympathize with the party of the second part, to return to their first love. The Democrats, on the other hand, say they will favour the en quiry on condition that it is made gene ral, and to include North as well as South. What the upshot will be the present aspect of affairs does not indicate but in the outstart it is pleasant to fine the proposition so popular with both

Mr. Thomas White, of Montreal, M. for Cardwell, has gone to Wasnington as Canadian representative on the International Board of Trade. Will he be the exponent there of those revenue tarif opinions and reciprocity sentiments which he has freely and frequently expressed on sin ilar deliberative occasions in the past or will be go this time in the capacity of a fiscal fire eater wildly brandishing over the heads of the commercial representatives of the adjoining country the shillaleh of a retaliatory tariff? If the United States is to be brought to time in the matter of the tariff by coercive measures the presence of Mr. White at the Board in Washington will afford our new Government an admirable opportunity of warning the Americans of the door which awaits them in the enaction of our prohibitory tariff. We fully expect it will only be necessary for Mr. White, as the informal agent of the Canadian Tory Cabinet to simply fulminate the new familiar alternative "RECIPROCITY OF TRADE OR RECIPROCITY OF TARIFFS" to bring those selfish and infatuated Yankees at once to their senses and to their knees. Should this reasonable expectation be disappointed by American perversity there will be nothing for it but for Mr. White to withdraw from the Convention, apprize his political masters of the failure of negotiations and advise them at once to issue their long threatened declaration of commercial war with the United States of America. There can be but one upshot to such a struggle, the crippling of American commerce and industry, the humiliation of American pride and the glorious vindication of the Nationa Policy of the Tory Government of Cana-

HON- MR. MORRIS-

This gentlemen is pushing his canvass in Toronto with considerable vigour, but it is said that his chances of election are not exceedingly brilliant. He has certainly no claims upon the electors the eastern division of the Queen City, while Mr. Leys is popular and is a gentleman who has much beside residence there | compared several years ago to one no in his favour. The general impression is that Mr. Morris is the weaker man of the two, and will likely be defeated. Indeed | died, and if memory serves me some is said that he is by no means as able and spirited a politician as Mr. Meredith, whom he is calculated to supplant as leader of the Ontario Opposition. We have always looked upon this candidature of Mr. Morris as a singular coincidence, which Sir John is believed to have been brought about as a means of ridding himself of one who always turned will compare favorably with any mission up and called for consideration, but who on the District, except Amherst Island. up and called for consideration, but wh is too precious, pious and particular for the present Premier of the Dominion. Sir John has no fancy for those of overly notwithstanding they have larger mem-sensitive nerves or smelling propensities berships. In fact the favor is so great I very acute and exacting; and hence we have it reported that the man of clean hands actually expressed a desire that Mr. Morris should be defeated at Selkirk so that he should not have to be either net aside or provided with a seat in the new Cabinet, which he (Sir John) knew he would be called upon to for.a. In the face of this statement it would be extremely mortifying were the "goodygoody" ex-Governor again relegated to private life, and the Irish Canadian i labouring assiduously to bring about that result. The developments of the next fow days will be interesting. The iss of the contest will be significant in mo

PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATIONS.

It seems remarkable that, while municipal councils are annually elected to carefully and economically administer the offairs of the city, it has been found necessary to form associations of various

To the Editor of the British Whig. DEAR SIR, -Will you allow me make a few remarks on an extract as pearing in your issue of Dec. 5th touch ing our Battersea Mission. In presenting District items, taken from the official missionary report of this mission, it said "the church's loss has been great present membership 80." If this b used in comparison with the mission several years ago there is apparent cause for the expression, but then more apparent than real concerning membership and considering the times or comparing with other fields on the District bnances. Several years ago a large number of names were added as members 'on trial, many of whom never became members "in full standing;" therefore the loss fully acquainted with the facts seemed "great." The loss of members as reported last year was twelve, two of whom twelve of our members removed from the mission. I believe not one was received from another field. Some were "dropped" and about as many were added. While it was with deep regre that we could not report an increase o membership yet the loss sustained was by removals from the mission and

AFFAIRS IN ASIA.

THE CZAR'S LABOURS - BEACONSPICIOS The London correspondent of the New York Times writes as follows : It is no good mincing matters face face in Asia. After many years of Muscovite labour the Czar's troops and their cunning and intrepid generals have achieved triumphs of patience and eathey have slain opponents who barred their way. Fire and sword, promises bribes, courtly graces, eloquent addresssuccess by an alier power whose humiliathis hostility? What will the English Government consider to be the legitimate termination of the present war ! Shall we annex Afghanistan? Will Russia meet us at Cabul ? These other queries will follow the first one, and are answered variously accordingly to the knowledge, politics, and desire of the company you are in. If the more active supporters of Lord Beaconstield speak with official inspiration, we shall, supposing the frontier, and guarantee the independence of Afghanistan. "We do not want to annex the country," said a distinguished member of the Carlton Club, with whom not with the Afghans, but with Shere Ali, and perhaps with Russia. drunks, 13 vagrants. By this table will be seen the increase vagrants seeking a home during the winter, and the necessity which the Julge pointed out, of more rigorous treatment in the line of hard work.

At present there are in gaol 15 men, 'Shame! Shame!' and demanding to know | 14 women, and 3 children. All were sentenced for vagrancy and drunkenness, save one idiot and one insane man.
