male laugh seemed to come from beneath the table where I was sitting and the voice from the cupboard said: 'Poor fellow, while another voice which came from the ceiling over my head, cried: 'I say, mister, you have an ulna and radius in your bone bag belonging to me and I want it, do you hear?"

I became perplexed and frightened spiritual manifestations. seked Hardyage what it all meant, and he bring their chairs around the blazing acknowledged that in his experience he had never heard so many spirits converse | ther, 'bring your chairs and let us have these supernatural voices. When ceased speaking a coarse voice from the 'You ungrateful doz -may the devil fly away with you.

When locking the door I heard called from the inside. Feel annoyed, though afraid to disobey, I put my head in the room again and asked what was wasted, when the voice from the skull replied, "Go to

As we descended the stairs leading to the College Court I heard a coarse laugh so close to my back that I turned around affrighted. Of course it was a spirit, for I saw no one.

I began to feel excessively unhappy which was not mitigated by Hardynge, turning back towards me and asking if had ever committed any injustice to the 'It is very all a go, he said. There was Several other students talking in a lively manner a few feet off. I was quite sure I heard the words, 'Oh for pity's sake forbear, I am not dead. I began to doubt my own sanity. I can up to the Demonstrator and told him I thought the subject was a case of suspended anunation. He came and looked at the body, under the usual tests and pronounced my suspicions quite unfound ed But I heard her speak, I said the Demonstrator smiled majuringly, asking at of Load been 'dining out course I replied in the negative. And then the thought occurred to me that it me of he so infernal spirits. was on the point of making the usual inbe acale when a tremulous a low and distinct ening sensation at my heart. I went out into the fresh air a moment. Hardynge tell was me. I asked him if Le had heard the vocant the dissecting table. He replied in the affirmative and a light. attributed it to the spirits whom he thought more determined to prove to ma in the most convincing manner possible that Spiritualism was all that was claimed In the cost said I would ac-I returned to the dissecting room and worked for an hour or so on the female subject. I did so with a trembling hand at first, but, as I heard no more supernatural sound my nervousness gradually That might, however, as we sat studying in our room, a vince said in falents, 10h, why did you not) a might have resusci-Never mind, it is perhaps better as it is. I die not suffer much. can say no more. Good night.

'If you will take my advice young man, same anoth evoice, deep and gruff, and apparently liter my chair - 'you will have your how, shaved and wear a If you do this, and wear a pair of blue specifies and er about London and call yourses Dr. Ch. pericks you will doctors in the world. I am the pirit of also) 'lots of prog, too. Well, if I a quack and know all about hum ngging | can't enjoy a jolly New Year's now, may the public to oil night a hint is as I swamp in the Bay o' Biscay O. good as a wink to a blind horse, you rubbish which greated my ears upon this reflections upon my character -but not any of them.

agata assued from the skull. It said 'As you are so very earnest to find out my chest. Oh, dear, I shall stifle. something beyon tall human ken. I can.

I cried, rising excitedly from very miserable. Take my advice-be all your playmed wants so abundantly. dus provisi a will be made for your spiritual state, aid in good time. Do not you. Is God's accountable adence regard ing Hunself and the after life an insufficient hint to mankind, that it is better they should know nothing of those sub tests ! It would seem so. But I tell you there is only one result for those who pry into the unfathomable and that is insanity Good bye-1

The suggestion thrown out by this apirit to reveal the date of my death filled me with a new alarm. Although I had declined listening to that piece of information. I knew not at what moment some less considerate spirit might divulge felt that they now had a terrible weapon which they might use against me for pleasure. To be aware of the date of my death would be simply unbearable, yet might hear of it at any moment by the to enterially a dread of losing my reason by the constant agitation of mind. My appetite failed and my sleep was disturbed and unrefreshing Indeed I was alto gether about as miserable as it is possible young friend's hand. All my past ans the first time in my bie the thought of self-destruction came to my mind. If I eyes, totally annihilated my belief were to be harrassed through life by spiritualism. I say I grasped my young spirits, why not go right over and be with friend's hand. I wished him, and all them altogether, when I in turn, might | those present, as I do you, my gentle | Parliamentary majority. The Tory jourmake it lively for some one in the flesh ! reader, Hardynge, all tors time, seemed to pay little or no heed either to my distress or the chattering of the spirits. He would keep at his books with his head resting on his hands and his elbows on the table as unconcerned as possible, during the most noisy manifestations of the spirits. Christmas time came, but it brought no joys for me. I went to my father's house in the country for my holidays. As I hid Hardynge good bye I told him how miserable I was, and how glad I should be if he would acc-mpany me home to spend 'X mas. He said he could go with me. that I might expect him on New Year's Eve to spend a day or two and then return to college together. I said I hoped | sir!" the spirits would not manifest themselves No, air. in the presence of my family. As I ceased talking, and was about to leave our apartment, a kind gentle voice from the skull said, 'Good bye, a merry Christmas and a happy New Year to you. The spirits will not converse with you until you retuen.' I was very grateful for this favor. In a few hours I was at the fire side of tain were struck by my hangard looks, the interrogator again inquired: - How and were afraid I had been overworking enyself. I felt that I was keeping a = cret | them? from them and playing a species of deseption, which increased my unhappiness. was born after I left.

'N t a word out of you. Do what I would, I could not dismiss from my mind that at any moment some of those talkative spirits might intrude their New Year's Eve came, and with it my friend Walter Hardynge. We had comthe evening. Everybody seemed happy -all save myself, no doubt, were, tried, however, to appear joyful. We had some fireside and parlour games, music, etc., and the hour of midnight came on space. At about 10 o'clock the

I company seemed to grow thoughtful and 'That's right,' said. my good 'Come Mr. Hardynge' said my father, if you will all keep atlent, I may afford you a little amusement, which, at the same time, may be somewhat instructive Now listen attentively and you shall hear the voice of a sweet like child in the chimney, which, I must say is a queer place to leave the little darling. After a general laugh, the company became suddeuly very grave upon hearing a childish voice from over the blazing fire saying Will some one come and fetch me down. I am tired of being up here.' The whole company rose to their feet in amazement and my poor mother held up both her hands. 'Please be seated again and remain quiet, I will explain every thing by and bye,' cried Hardynge. 'I want you he continued, 'to pay particular attention to what a gentleman underneath the floor has to say.' Thereupon, a voice, apparently from beneath our feet, began. It is very inhospitable of you to keep me down here in this cold place on such night as this, and I demand that you is stantly relieve me and take my little daughter out of that chimney and de-

My father (Mr. Windham) animation was there. Hardynge stood a myself to be very much agitated, for, few feet on the opposite side of the thought I, here they are again, those

'Please all remain quiet and don't alarmed. I promise to explain every thing and then you will all laugh,' cried Hardynge, 'But,' cried my mother the poor child! she will be burnt up that chimney.

'Oh no, dear Mrs. Windham,' cried the childish voice, 'I am not in the chimney freeze in the celler. Who are they and from whence do they come?' 'Stop a moment, Mr. Windham,' cried Hardynge, 'there are other guests in your house who wish to speak-listen!' A male voice from an adjoining room then began. 'I declare it is so dark here I can scarcely make my way. What queer people not to have lights on New Year's Eve. f I can only get to my husband and child I shall be happy.

'Dear me,' cried my mother, 'there's some one in the dining room , do take in 'Oh, here you are,' cried the same mysterious voice (down in the cellar new) 'and dear little Lucy too.' Oh, my ' she is covered with soot; where has she 'Up the chimney, mamma,' cried the

'How dreadful,' cried the mother. 'Most unpardonable,' exclaimed the

At this moment a gruff voice from outside the drawing room window exclaimed 'Ahoy there! you land lubbers unship the main braces of your affections, and brew a punch for Jack Tar, who has been fighting the battles of your country these forty years. Shiver my timbers, but this is a cold how do ye do, to be anchored knee deep in a snow drift on such a night-and New Year's he would approach the window, and mother begged of some one to let the poor man in to warm himself and take Eve, too.

'Oh, here you are. Ah! ah!! ah!! cried the sailor voice (now in the cellar

The company showed signs of being very uncomfortable during all this, and I was in a perfect state of excitement myself, How Hardynge was going to account satisfactorily for all their voices I could not conceive, and I was afraid that he parliamentary session which preceded was going to attribute it to his confound me to do this and that others casting ed Spiritualism. After an awkward rendered so, of course, to a very pause, in which everyone seemed waiting one bit of information could I get from for further developments, a voice directly under my father's chair cried, 'I say, Mr. father promptly jumped up and lifted if you wish, inform you of the exact hour his chair away, and gazed intently on the spot from which he had moved it, and the voice resumed, 'there, that is better. 'I impliere you not to tell me.' I'm all right now. Sit down again.' 'It I cannot describe my father's look at this could do you no good and make you time. It was idiotic, and I began to be alarmed at the pog.cas of things. But I natistic i with those things which you knew not what to do or say. There tory legislation, the "Pemperance Act of have Surely if a good Creator supplies | was silence again. An air of expectation | 1878," a vast improvement on the Temwas visible upon the faces of the com

Walter Hardynge stood up, and taking out his watch said, 'it is 20 minutes to the apparent mysteries by which we have been surrounded for a while. You all know, from time immemorial, the world has been amused, bewildered and afconsidered supernatural sights, and by hearing sounds which appeared to emanate from the spirit land. But the light of science, the exercise of common sense, and the apread of education, has, in a measure, dispelled the fantacies of the human mind. A peculiar construction of my vocal organs enables me to throw my voice where I wish. I have practised the art of vent il quism from childhood, and I have a methods by its all given some very useful lessons to my friends. True, its successful working necessitates the application of more or less deception at the time. If I have invisible cha;te, ers around me. I began given offence to any here by the performance of my peculiar art, I most ear nestly ask forgiveness. Listen! I hear the village bells.' I sprang from my seat 1 joyful bound, and grasped my guish of mind vanished. The speech of the young ventriloquist had opened

A HAPPY NEW VEAR.

NEVER SAW ONE OF THEM. - A gennine new-comer with every conceivable queshad a family.

'Yes, sir; I have a wife and six child en, and I never saw one of them. After this reply the couple sat a few again commenced: - 'Was you ever blind.

'Did you marry a widow, sir Another interval of silence.

you had a wife and six children living is New York, and had never seen one of Yes, sir; I so stated it. Another and a longer pause,

'Did I understand you to say, sir, tha can it be, sir, that you never saw one of 'Why,' was the response, 'one of them South Simpoe, North Essex and East our brief retrospect without a glance

TUESDAY EV'NG, DEC. 31, 1878.

1878.

eaders a dreary history of the world fo the year now closing, but to present the briefest possible review which may serve the purpose of suggesting the recollection of some of its more important events. Like charity we will begin at home, which year, for Kingston, was the signal and secannot tell a story replied Hardynge, but vere rebuke administered by the long insulted and long suffering electors to Si corruption in public affairs, and whose particular treachery to the constituency which first gave him political existence were marked by a most decisive defeat. For more than twenty years had the Liberals of Kingston consistently and per sistently recorded their ever growing protest against the representation of this city by the Tory Chieftain, and the 17th last September witnessed the culmination of all these efforts to redeem the city from virtual political disfranchisement by majority many times larger than the local Tory party had been able by the most strenuous exertions to command fo their own particular idol for years. this triumph a period was finally put the lengthy, but for some time precarious, tenure by which Sir John Macdonald had clung to what he had been pleased to boast of as his perfectly safe political retreat for thirty-four years. Unfortunately for the cause of good government a simiparty elsewhere. True, Sir John Macdonald was not alone in his fall from among the leaders in the van of the Tory party. With him Hon. Peter Mitchell, Hon. T. N. Gibbs, Hon. Hector Langevin and other members and supporters of the now, but down here with papa eating notorious Pacific Scandal Cabinet bit the cake.' 'Really,' cried my father 'this is dust. On the other hand Hon. Messrs. most extraordinary; they will certainly Cartwright, Jones, Coffin and Blake failed to secure re-election. Sir John and Langevin have since been re-elected for Victoria and Three Rivers respectively, while Hon. Mr. Cartwright was returned for Centre Huron by a rousing majority, in spite of the opposition of a host of Tory emissaries, who swarmed the riding in vain against him. Hon. Mr. Blake, defeated during his illness and absence from the country, is as yet without a seat, a difficulty which will not long be allowed to prevent his assuming a commanding place in the front rank of the Liberal Party in the House of Commons. But though the losses in leaders were about equal on both sides, those in the rank and fyle of the Liberal Party were found to have greatly preponderated at the close of the fray. It were idle now to re-speculate on the causes which contributed to a result which, it 's within the truth to say, equally surprised the victors and the vanquished. The mose patent, as well as the most potent, of thest was the Protection cry, industriously plied upon a credulous electorate, rendered more so than usual by the hardships of the depression, and willing to try any

My father made a motion as though change in the hope of improvement. The result has given the Conservative Party an ascendancy in the Dominion Parlis ment, of which they have so far taken no advantage to give effect to their election promises to restore immediate confidence and prosperity to the country. We have noglected to observe the chronological order of events for the reason that the great electoral contest to which we have adverted has been the event of the year in so far as Canada is concerned. The

was a stirring and stormy one, large extent, by the struggle at the polls of which it was the precursor. Windham, be good enough to move your In spite of the fact that much parliamenchair a little, one of the legs is right on tary time was spent in factious attacks reason of the continental events in which on the ministry of the day, and in the reof them, much useful legislation, Governmental and private, was placed upon the statute book. The Supreme Court have ing decided in favour of the jurisdiction of the Federal Parliament over prohibiperance Act of 1864, was passed. It is a permissive measure, with all the known defects of Dunkin carefully eliminated 12 o'clock. I shall have time to explain The first place to adopt it has been the gity of Fredericton, N.B. A homestead law for Manitoba, bills to improve the independence of Parliament, the election frighted at the appearance of what was law, and public works, the Supreme Court, postal arrangements and many of their colleagues. Not only thus, but similarly necessary and wholesome measures, were introduced by a Government the war policy been challenged which, in the thickest of party battle, never lost sight for a moment of the general public good. It a strange commentary on the fickleness of political for- a large majority of the by elections have tune and popular ingratitude that such a confessedly honest and industrious Government should have been displaced to make way for men who, five short years before, were swept from power amid the ful conclusion, are the only actual hostiexecuations of the English speaking press and people for political crimes that are engaged. Among the detached events of without a parallel in the annals of the British Empire. In Ontario Reform Government still bears sway, with every promise that the honest and efficient Cabinet of Hon. Mr. Mowat will, at the betrothal of Prince Arthur to the Prince forthcoming election, be re-invested with cess Marie Louise of Prussia, the meeting the public confidence by an increased of the Pan Anglican Synod, the failure na's, flushed with the victory of the 17th September, have incessantly predicted a (for women only) by the Empress of Infate for the Mowat Ministry similar dia, the erection of Cleopatra's needle in to that which befell the Mackenzie Government. There is not lacking conclusive evidence to prove that tion relative to his object in visiting the one of these events will in no wise prove Dufferin as President of the Royal Geogold country, his hopes, his means and the criterion for the other. Six casual graphical Society. Among the important his prospects, at length asked him if he elections have been held for the local House since that for the Commons, and

Mes.rs. Parkhill, Whiteand Morris car- war,

ried the Conservative constituencies of has made great progress so far as pro line. vincial politics are concerned. There a government to the purposes of the most bare-faced tyranny, imposing the most unjust taxation, and taking municipal government by the throat by delibe rately legislating away all right of appeal to the courts of law against government.

al extortion. When matters had reached an intolerable pass, the Lieutenant-Governor interposed on behalf of the people, and the obnoxious cabinet petty tyrante were defeated at the polls, the majority of them being personally elected to stay at home, and their suc cessors, under the Hon. Mr. Joly, being sustained by a narrow majority-a decisive Liberal victory when the pronounced Conservative complexion of the Province of Quebec is considered. The Quebec Premier has lost his principal colleague Hon. M. Bachand, Provincial Treasurer, by death, the office having been temporarily filled by an economical combination of departments. The latest sensation in Quebec politics has been the clamour for Governor Letellier's dismissal by the ultra Tories at the instance of the recently routed taxationists of the discarded De Boucherville regime. Whether Sir John Macdonald will yield to party im portunity, and submit the contemplated outrage for the approval of His Excellency, is a point which is as yet the subject of much uncertainty and conjecture. The outlying provinces of the Dominion have not being exempt from political upheaval, these changes being most marked n the case of Nova Scotia, where the Hill Cabi at gave place to the Holmes Ministry; and in British Columbia where Hon. Mr. Davies in ' - way in like man ner for Hon. Aut. was Walker.

The Death Roll of Canada for the year contains the names of many of its erstwhile most prominent and useful citizens. Among these may be mentioned Senators Shaw, Lacoste and Renaud, Mr. Cayley, M.P., and Dr. Haney, M.P.P., Chief Justice Harrison, Judge Wilfred Dorion, Mr. Bachand, already referred to, Sir Wm. O'Grady Haly, commander of the forces, Mgr. Conroy, Papal Apostolic Delegate, Hon. L. Wilmet, ex-Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, Hou. John Young and Mr. William Workman, prominent citizens of Mon treal, and many others. Judge Dorion's place upon the Bench was filled by Mr. Jette, formerly M.P. for Montreal East, while the vacancy created by the demise of Chief Justice Harrison, after several promotions, was filled by the elevation to a puisne judgeship of the Hon. M. C.

Cameron, from the Ontario Legislature. Most notable among the events of the year, affecting Canada, has been our ex change of the Earl of Dufferin for the Marquis of Lorne. The former carried with him from our shores the warmest good wishes of the whole Canadian people, to whom he had indeared hims If by his unrivalled affability and his no less popular than brilliant and successful administration of Canadian affairs, at what might be termed a most critical juncture in our political history. No less hearty than the God speed with which the Canadian adieu to Earl Dufferin and his Countess was freighted was the ovation of welcome which greeted Lord Lorne and His Royal Consort as their successors. If anything were wanted to prov the already undoubted loyalty of Canadian people, the glorious reception accorded to the Marquis and his Princess, from Halifax to Ottawa, must be taken as convincing evidence of Canadian devotion to the British throne and Empire, of which latter the people of this country are proud to consider themselves no unimportant part. The ties between Canada and the Mother land have thus during the past year proved afresh to be indissoluble and imperishable. With the parent land the year has been far from uneventful, this chiefly by Great Britain took an active and comsistance to these attacks by the objects manding interest. The war which waged between Russia and Turkey was watched by England with an intense and jealous scrutiny, and when, after an unexpectedly stubborn and sanguinary resistance, the Moslem was borne down by the superior power of the Muscovite, Great Britain, in the persons of Lords Beaconsfield and Salisbury, played a prominent part in the Treaty of Berlin, which adjusted the results of the struggle in the field. On this foreign policy of national assertion the British Cabinet was not at first a unit, and the principal dissentients, Lords Derby and Carnarvon, resigned rather than subscribe to the belligerent attitude by the regular Opposition has in House and country. The Government, however, has been sustained by a series of parliamentary successes, though gone against them throughout the country. The repression of a revolt among the Griquas of South Africa, and the Aighan war now approaching a success lities in which British troops have been British interest may be mentioned the late marriage of the Duke of Cumberland with the Princess Thyra of Danmark, sister of the Princess of Wales, the of the City of Glasgow Bank, the institution of the Order of the Crown of India London, the loss of the training ship "Eurydice" with all on board off the Isle of Wight, and the election of Earl deaths in Great Britain might be enumerated that of Earl Russell, the most in all these success has been pretty im. venerable veteran British statesmen, the partially divided, each party having car- Earl of Leitrim by the hand of the assasminutes in silence, when the interrogator ried the three previously held, thus pres sin, Cardinal Cullen, Judge Keogh, before, with the significant difference, Scott, the architect, Dr. Duff, Scottish however, that in East Toronto, the most missionary, and more recently the uniimportant of them all, a revulsion of versally lamented Princess Alice of Engfeeling, to the extent of nearly a thou- land, the Grand Duchess of Hesse Darmsand votes, has taken place in favour of stadt; and, but the day before yesterday, Reform. Of the constitue seies in ques- aged 31 years, Sir Geo, Hay, Marquis of tion, Algoma, West Elgin and Monck Tweeddale, a veteran of the British were won by Me are, Lyon, McLaws and army, who had served with the Duke of Harcourt, in the Laboral interest, while Wellington throughout the Peninsular most extravagant sense the "benefits" of Protection, have nevertheless felt to a much severer extent than have the people of Canada the hard times incident to the world-wide depression. So convinced are they becoming of the fallacy of their ened to-day by the reception of des fiscal policy that a Bill intended to effect a reduction in their tariff was lost only by the narrow majority of 14. The Indian olicy of our neighbors is also undergoing a sensible and most timely change. this respect they are advantageously taking a humane leaf out of the British Canadian book, and we can from our own national experience guarantee that their new departure from a policy of cruelty and spoliation will be rewarded success. We must not withhold need of acknowledgement, either, the reluctant payment the Halifax award. By their haggling over the decision of the Commission they illustrated their sharp "business" characteristics, but by the actual payment it they vindicated their endangered na ional honour. Their Fall elections recruited to some extent the Republican party in Congress, though the Democrats | sidered evidence that resistance has yet to still hold by a slight advantage the ba-demise excited deep and widespread sympathy not only within but beyond the husband to return home to die. It is bounds of the United States. In the words of the theme of the con ing midnight's discourse, "the past is recoverable, the future is unknown year will soon be gone, carrying with it its quota of griefs and joys to the great eternal record. Regrets for the past are futile except as an incentive to future die. Mr. Cross, however, has refused dividual review of the past may have this lance of power. The most notable deaths in the United States were those of Wil

Berlin of Bayard Taylor, an author whose liam Cullen Bryant, the poet, and happy effect upon our readers we heartily and sincerely wish them all A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Battersea News.

On Christmas Eve the members and friends of the C. M. Sabbath School, of which Mr. J. W. Ausley is Superintendant, gave quite a successful Christmas entertainment. A large number were present. Mr. Thomas Gilmour occupied the chair. Rev. J. E. Werden read the himself suggested, would be carried out annual report, from which we learn that the school is in a flourishing condition, The following, among other scholars, took part in the exercises of the evening Masters John and William Anglin, Anson and Morley Vanluven, George and James Holder; also Misses Sutherland. Anglin and Holder. M Hoppins responded to a call from the chair by read ing and critici it at considerable length a lecture of Bis . D O'Brien's, on 'Purgatory.' The next was a reading by Mr Holder, entitled 'The Deacon's first and last sermon,' shich was well received This closed the programme, and now all eyes were directed to the beautiful 'Xmat tree, the branches of which were richly laden with presents. The distribution of prizes gave unbounded pleasure and satisfaction to the little folks. During the evening a choir, selected from the

On 'X mas night the members of the "Union" S.S. (Mr. J. L. Sears, Superintendant) held a similar entertainment which was a decided success in every respect. Mr. Robt. Stoness, sen , presided. Interesting addresses were given by the man: ...ousand ertizans thrown out of resident minister and Rev. Mr. Smith. from the Opinicon. A reading by Mr. J. W. Ansley, entitled "The old way and the new," elicited hearty applause. to grant bills of sale on their effects is Other readings were given by Mr. C.N. one significant proof of what is going on Knapp and Mr. T. Gilmour. The programme included a number of dialogues, which were well rendered by some of the scholars. The distribution of presents brought the interesting proceedings to a close. The music for the occasion was as organist, discoursed a number of pieces furnished by a cloir under the direction of Mr. J. H. King, with Mrs. R. W.

Allen at the organ.

An Insane Woman's Freaks. Buffale, N. Y., December 29 - As a

STMPATHY FOR RUSSIA -The Irish journals sympathized with the Czar of Russia during the late unpleasantness, Merchants Bank-7914, 7812. when most people thought there would war. They sympathize with the Ameer now and wish him long life, prosperity and happiness. At the same time, the Home Rulers go in with the British Government and supported Lord Beacons- Jacques Cartier -33, 32. field's war policy. This seems strange. But the explanation of it is that House Rulers want England to go to war, so that Ireland may have a chance to push for self-government.

THE ASGRES TROUBLE .- The really Liberal Conservatives of Montreal, Euglish and French, are stated to be very much annoyed to find that Mr. Angers is the leading spirit of the movement demanding the dismissal of Lieut, Gov. Letellier, and they declare that in the event of a new Conservative Cabinet being formed, with Mr. Angers as a member, they will withhold their support NATIONAL POLICY. - It is now generally believed that Parliament will not be serving the balance of power precisely as Charles Matthews, the actor, Sir Gilbert called together for business until March. 2nd. Meantime Mr. Tilley is supposed to be hard at work on the National Policy, assisted by all the leading Protectionist lights except Mr. Phipps, who will not be comforted, because they are not. Altogether the outlook for the N. people is a bad one.

MOSTREAL PRODUCE MARKET.

There was nothing doing in the floar mat-ket this morning. No transactions are re-To be friendly at all we cannot close ported and quotations are nominally nochanged. Superior extra 4.40 to 4.45; extra. 4 20 to 4.25; fancy, 4.05 to 4.10; spring extra Toronto. In Quebec the Liberal cause at our seighbours south of the 480; super fine, 3,70 to 3,75.

SPECIAL CABLE NEWS.

Reports from Afghanistan-Mr. O'Donovan Rossa's Petition.

London, Dec. 30 .-- The fears that af fairs in Afghanistan were not going a well as had been reported were strength patches from Calcutta. It is positively asserted in these despatches, which have been sent to commercial houses in London, that the reports respecting the flight of the Ameer, his abandonment of the contest, the appearance of his son at Jellalabad, are untrue. The despatches say the Apper has carried on a system of deception, and has false reports of his movements sent to the English headquarters. This ill-omened intelligence 100 bbls Fancy Flour appears to be confirmed by a despatch from Lahore to-day, stating that a large force of Afreedees attacked the British troops on Saturday in the Khyber Pass. Up to this time the despatches of Lytton and such of the newspaper correspondents' despatches as awere permitted to reach London have reported that the Khyber Pass was wholly free from the presence of an enemy, and no danger to the British forces there was to be apprehended. The despatch from Lahore states that the Afreedees were repulsed with severe loss, but their presence in the Pass and their attack upon the British is conbe overcome before the British forces can be secure during the winter months. A despatch from Dublin says indignation is manifested there by the Home Rulers and Nationalists, in consequence of the refusal of the Home Secretary to grant the application of the wife O'Donovan Rossa for permission to her said Rossa's health is completely undermined, that his recovery is out of the uestion, and that the few mouths of life still remaining to him could only be prolonged for a little while by his return to his native land. Mrs. Rossa, in making application to the Home Secretary, stated that she would undertake on the part her busband's friends that no political demonstration should attend his arrival in Ireland and that he merely desired to improvement. In the hope that the in- this petition, and the N tonalists are declaring that his action is unnecessarily Some despatches from Constantinople describe at length the scene in the Sultan's palace on Saturday-the Turkish New Year-when he make his New Year's address to his cabinet. He expressed strong hopes for the future of Turkey. His enemies, he thought, had exhausted their means of attack upon the Empire, and the close alliance which had been for ned with England would be productive of additional strength and security and the reforms which he on his part had not only earnestly desired to be accomplished, but many of which he had as effectually and promptly as circumstances would permit. The loyalty of his subjects to him and to the Emperor. had been triumphantly demonstrated on the bloody hills of Plevoa and other battle-fields of the war, and he had no hesitation in saying that he looked with confidence upon all his subjects of al

EUROPEAN.

Striking Conspiracy - English Failures,

(By Telegraph To day.) London, Dec. 31.-A general strike in the engineering trade is threatened. A despatch from Belgrade says that Karigeorgivitch has been charged with a plot having for its object the assassina-Sir Bartlett Freer tion of the Prince of Servia.

Glasgow, Dec. 31. - The Secretary of the City of Glasgow Bank has been liberated, he having turned Queen's evimembers of the school, with Miss Thorne | dence London, Dec. 31, - The Times' financial summary for 1878 says industries have been disorganized, credit shaken and failures multiplied on every hand. It is stated, on good authority, that the failures of this year will be nearly five thousand more than last year, and it would be difficult to say where the distress will end, Not or's have wages been reduced and empi ymen', but many thougands of these, above the artisian class, are either in actual want or on the confines of it. The increasing number of persons driven 'XMAS and in the ranks of the lower and middle

MURDER AT DUEBEC.

Alleged Revenge for a Refusal to

(By Telegraph To-day)

Quebec, Dec. 30 .- The 'Black Quarry.' a disreputable locality in the suburbs of the city was the scene of another murder this evening. Edward Jobbin, aged 51, a very respectable master stone cutter of St. Rech's, was driving along St. Patrick 14 Canada Southern train due here at fifteen st. in company with one Terreau and minutes past ten last night was passing Lepage, bailiff of the Superior Court. King's Mills, Ont., some forty miles when on passing Argonin's tavern they west of Buffalo, and while running at got out of the sleigh and entered the rate of 48 miles per hour, an insane the bar where they had a drink woman named Stouchon, who was travel. Two brothers, named Clavet, and one ing from Detroit to Oswego in charge of Chamberland were sitting, partly drunk, Geo. A. King, rushed to the door of the in the bar and asked to be treated car and out on the platform, jumping They were refused, and when the others therefrom and landing in a snow bank. left they followed them and struck at Before the train could be stopped it had them in the sleigh. Edmond Clavet is run some three miles, and when it was said to have struck Jobbin from behind backed up the woman was discovered on the head with something in his hand, running towards the train. On reaching and the unfortunate man at once fell on her she refused to enter the car, and a his face and was picked up dead and re considerable scuffle ensued. She was moved into a neighbouring house. An finally overpowered and taken aboard, inquest will be held to-morrow morning. when it was found that she was entirely The police have arrested Chamberland and the two Clavets.

MONTHEAL STOCK MARKET.

Montreal, Dec. 31. Bank of Montreal -138 1 4, 137 3 4. Bank of Commerce -101, 100 1-2. Ontario Bank-69, 67 1-2. Molson's Bank-Ex. div. 85, 80. Exchange Bank -00, 00. Montreal Tel, Co-199 1-2, 101 3-4 City Gas Co-108 3-4, 108 Dominion Tel. Co - 00

> REMINDERS. THURADAY

City Pass Ry - 80, 77. Richelieu and Ont - 43, 42 1 2.

CONCERT for C.M. Church, Sydenham street REGULAR Meeting of Public School Board REGULAR Meeting of Ancient St. John's Lodge at 7:30 p m.

MARKIED. A: St. Mary Magdalen's Church, Napanee, on Tuesday Dec. 31st, by the Rev. J. S. Bogart, M.A., assisted by the Rev. F. W. Kirkpatrick, M.A., Herbert J. Saunders, M.D., M.R.C.S., Eng., of Kingston, to Catharine Marion, eldest daughter of Amos S. Bristol, Esq., M.D., of Napance.

DIED. At his father's residence, in this city, thi morning, Dec 31st, of consumption, J. C. H. rough Browery, in the 3th year of his age. The funeral will take place from the family residence on Thursday, 2nd January, at 2 p.m. Friends and acquaintances are invited POWER & SON Architects and Building Surveyors. Office-Kellingion Street, Kingston. John Power, Jos. W Power.

GREETINGS

TO ALL OUR PATRONS.

ARTICLES EVER GAVE MORE

JUST RECEIVED 500 BAGS BAKERS FLOUR,

JUST RECEIVED AT THE THE TORONTO FLOUR STORE BROCK STREET.

MORRISON

GREAT SALE

WILL TAKE PLACE

ON FRIDAY, JAN. 3rd, IN THE AFTERNOON AT 230 o'clock, IN THE LARGE ROOM

Next to Heath & Gunn's Drug Store Nine Fine Pianos, and Three Splendid Organs, Also, some fine PIANO COVERS. J. E. HUTCHESON,

TWO PIANOFORTES

A 71 3 Octave New York Excelsion -AND-

An Upright Chickering. A. & S. NORDHEIMER'S.

NEW PUBLICATION.

CASSELL, PETTER & GALPIN Publishers.

THIS VOLUME will include the following Sir H. Layard, Hobart Pasha, Max. Muller. Sir Charles Dilke.

Sir Samuel Baker, Duke of Devonshire, Marquis of Lorne, Gen Roberts, Earl Rosbury Rt. Hon. E. F. Stanley, Admiral Hornby Rt. Hon. Lord Carnanon, Sir Henry James. Duke of Edinburgh Charies Reade, Prince Bismark. Lord Lawrence, The Portraits are executed as usual in the highest style of art and the present Volume will complete the series Sold only by subscription.

Prince Gotsbeaoff

A. AUSTIN. General Agent for Cassell's Publications,

OF FARE

do Prunes 1.00

do Very Bright Sugar...... 1.00 do Granulated do 1.00 do Young Hyson Tea..... 1.00 And every hing else proportionately CHEAP for CASH ONLY AT

MARTIN'S. PRINCESS STREET

Wanted,

TRACHER for Union School Section No. 3. Township of Storrington, A TEACHER. JOHN McNEILY, or ANDREW JACKSON,

MR. J. SMITH,

Organist of the First Congrega tional Church, Is prepared to receive a limited number s Pupils on the Piano and Organ. Terms made known on application. Communications sent through the Post promptly altended to. Residence—Arch Street. Dec 27, 1878.

Oysters, Oysters.

REES BROS Are receiving Oysters daily direct from Balti-more by Express We will have A FINE SUPPLY for the HOLIDAYS.

REES BROS

Manufacturing Confectioners. Dec 18th. HOTEL OR GROCERY STAND FOR SALE.

THA T VALUABLE PRESHOLD PRO-THAT VALUABLE PREENOLD PROPERTY on Ontario street, known as the GRAHAM HOUSE. A substantial stone building, with Brick front and Lot 33x133 feet with good stone Stabling. The House is fitted or a Hotel with water and gas, and is on the best business; part of Ontario street, close to the shipping and Kingston & Pembroke Rail way Station. Title indisputable. For particuTHOMAS MILLS, THOMAS MILLS, lars enquire of the owner on the premises. JOHN GRAHAM, Kingston

SHOP TO LET.

THE building on Princess street formerly openpid by Mesera. Macdonnell, & Mudie as a Law Office. Plans of alterations which will be made to suit a desirable tenant may examined on applications at theffices of BAWDEN & MACHAB. Kingston, Sept. 25, 1878.

5 Cases of Envelopes

Direct from the manufactory which we shall sell at the lowest possible rates. 30,000 Core, Amber and Canary at $1,60 per

A most beautiful assortment of NEW YEAR CARDS.

Day Books, Journals, Ledgers, Blotters, Index Letter Books, all direct from the factory, no intermediate profit. Over 500 of the Seaside Library at 10 and 20c

Over 150 Franklin Square Library at 10 and All Robertson's New Books as issued

Full supplies of all Stock and well assorted We are determined to sell all these Goods at the lowest paying rates, and to give our customers the benefit of the low prices.

S. WOODS. Dec. 30th, 1878.

Dec. 11th.

PHOTOGRAPHS

THE UNDERSIGNED WHILE WISHING

would inform them that he will give ALL KINDS OF PHOTOS AT A REDUCED RATE, of 25 per cent, until the end of this month

MARTIN'S BLOCK, corner of Montreal and W. P. BELL.

HAPPY NEW YEAR,

CUSTOMERS

And beg to state that we have

Everything that is Wanted

ON HAND, With which to cover your Tables

BEST QUALITY.

New Year's Day

for receiving your visitors,

-FROM-

POUND OF PURE COFFEE A Bottle of the Best Sparkling

WINE. GROCERY.

1879.

do Superior Japan Tex,.... 1.00 GRAND OPENING

House. Particulars on Monday or Tuesday

TEA-MEETING and CONCERT For Circuit Poor Relief Fund will be given

Sydenham Street Church Choir. IN THE LECTURE ROOM OF THE

On Thursday, January 2nd. A FULL PROGRAMME of Vocal and In-

Tickets 25c, to be had at the Bookstore

Tea served at 7 sharp.

TENDERS will be received by the under-signed until noon of SATURDAY, Jan. 11th, for the Mason, Carpenter and Joiner,

County of Frontenac

NOTIOE

YOUNG LADIES' ACADEMY.

TLASSES WILL RESUME ON MONDAY, January 6th, 1879. For particulars ap-E. G. ROSE, Queen Street.

strumental Music, selected from Von Weber, Hayden, Farmer, Rossini, Spofforth, Curach-mann and others will be presented, intersper-ed with select Readings.

TO CONTRACTORS.

Thamith, Plumber and Painter and Glasiers' work required in the erection of a Terrace of SIX HOUSES for C. F. Gildersleeve, Esq., on AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Kingston, Dec. 30th, 1878.

E. G. ROSE, PRECEPTRESS.