The Banquet to the Mayor.

On Thursday evening one hundred gentlemen, comprising he elite of all classes in the city, with a fair sprinkling of the Military, sat down at the British American Hotel, to one of the very best Public Dinners ever got up in this good city. The repast was truly a Banquet. for the viands were excellent and well put on the tuble, and the Wines, including the best Champagne and Claret, the best while the health of the City Member, Sir dues, exciting a long debate, during to be had for love or money.
