From the London Daily News, Dec. 29. Auswer the purpose of a Sunday School. On Sunday the place was opened for service for the first time, and in the atternoon Mr. John Ashworth, nuthor of 'Strange Tales,' preached bundred persons. The services began at 2:30, was blown out by a gust of wind. Little notice was taken of it, and the service proceeded until 3:55 when another violent blast heaved up the roof, the gable end fell in, and the two side walls fell lowards, after which the roof crashed in upon the whole. A distressing scene of confusion and horror ensued Some hundreds of the unfortunate persons managed to creep out from-under the debris, but a large number were buried beneath and their cries for help were piteous to bear. Those who had escaped and the neighbors heroically pulled away the fallen timbers and bricks, and gradually released the unfortunate persons. The fire brigade, and the Police force soon appeared at the scene, and exerted themselves in removing the fallen build-
