RAPPE, WEBER, & Co., deem it unto notice the advertisement of their competitor, Mr. F C. Uline. They beg to inform Cline to retain all of the late J. C. Fox's two splendid New Low Oven Cook workmen.

The Advertisers were selected by the late try York, (Steinway's, Stoddard's, Weber, Gabler After Mr. Fox's death, and before Mr. Cline's purchase of a part of Mr. Fox's stock, Rappe Weber & Co., had determined to go into busi ness on their own account. As at present constituted, their establishment consists four Proprietors, every one of whom have been foremen, and their workmen who have Waitington Street, Kingston, C. W. been foremen; so that so far as the "culling of workmen" (a novelty in language) is concerned, Rappe, Weber & Co., have the honor to announce that they made their selection before it was permitted to Mr. Cline to make his. If Mr. Cline was a practical Piano maker, it might be competent to him to remark upon the skill of other workmen; but as he is not, it may be well to remind him that the shoemaker should stick to his last. The Advertisers do not press upon the pubtic the merits of any Travelling Agent, and any person holding himself out as such may Two be treated as utterly unauthorized. Our Pianos are candidates for popular favor, and we have no doubt they will win it. R. W. & CO.
