Every probability now exists that all the North-Eastern Provinces of British North America will come into the Dominion in a very short time.

The Legislature of Newfoundland a out to assemble, and it is confidently expected that Resolutions in favor o Confederation will be passed by both Houses by large majorities, on certain conditions. The Legislative Bodies will then be dissolved, and the question of Confederation submitted to the People, which it is believed will end in the affirmative. On the assemblage of the new Legislature, Delegates will be sent to Ottawa to negociate for acquiescence in the conditions proposed. And all this

In Prince Edward the difficulty has been the Leased Lunds, owned in England by moneyed men. When a measure can be perfected, and which it is understood the Dominion Ministry has matured, that objection to Confederation will be done away with, and the fine tho small Province of Prince Edward will take its place in the Union. This will

In Nova Scotia more difficulty is antic pated, but nothing insurmountable Mr. Howe, accompanied by Mr. McLennan, M.P., a hitherto fierce opponent of objection to Confederation on the part of the Nova Scotians be overcome, and due concessions made, that highly important Province will join her sister Provinces.

Thus with proper management, the great scheme of Confederation will be perfeeted on the Eastern shores of North America, and it will only be a matter of fime and mutual convenience and benefit to the future Western Provinces, viz. ed audience. the Hudson's Territory, the Red River Settlement, the Saskatewan Territory, and the united Provinces of British of a King or Viceroy to rule over, and a Dominion that must be kept out of the hands of the grasping Yankees at whatever cost.
