SECOND Free Lecture by Frof. O. S. Fowler in the City Mall. MEETING of Kingston Lacrosse Club at the Anglo American Hotel at 7:30 p m.

Those were sadly premature cheers which the Tories of Kingston gave for the 'Hon. Geo. A. Kirkpatrick, Minister of Militia in the new Government.' The re sult has shown that such a prognostica, tion was entirely too good to prove true. The member for Frontenac must bide his time-rather a long time, too, we should say, judging by the number of those whose claims take precedence of his for the honourable and lucrative estate of a Cabinet virulent abuse in the case of the Dom!cess, is already bestowing its complimen- trolling influence. Not only in the recent contest, the Reform party will be thoroughly roused in defence of their cherished principles by the time the Ontario elections come on.

The second visit of the Duke of Edinburgh to Canada here to join his Royal sister and her vice-Regal consort, will prove a double compliment to Canadian loyalty. A live Prince and Princess and the husband of the latter all at once will be the greatest sensation of the kind the Canadian people have ever experienced. Le country will certainly prove a succes sion of triumphant ovations. The exbarrassing these hard times on municipalities which have kept their assessment down at 16 mills on the dollar, with an unprovided for deficit sure to crop up at the end of the year. For such a purpose, however, we feel sure the people would cheerfully tax themselves by voluntary contributions rather than forego the treat and duty of according a right royal welcome to the distinguished party which it will soon be the privilege of Canadians to receive with a thousand welcomes.

honoured institution in the Gld Land. Instead of falling into disuse before the innovations of modern progress, these joyous festivals are being more than ever utilized and improved. A British paper, referring to these annual merry-makings, says: "The festivals of to-day are be ter than those of the past. . We do not despair of the future o British agriculture. The harvest festivals will do something to lessen the modern friction and to take the soreness out of some old social wounds." Formerly the Harvest-Home was many instances little better than a noisy, and sometimes simply a drunken 'bout but now excellent speeches are added good cheer, and the time spent rendered not merely one of enjoyment but of mutual improvement. The practice has been introduced to a slight degree into Canada, but its more general adoption, especially in its improved mode, would be a matter of congratulation.

General Grant is now continuing his "royal" progress through Spain. For plain and simple Republican, with all the dialike, if not contempt, for the trum-American is presumably endowed, General Grant takes very kindly to all the flattering marks of European distinction. He has been at it for a considerable time now and gives no sign of being sated with the princely honours of which he has been the recipient. When he left the White House he was not in very good odour with the American people. third term at that time was completely out of the question. When he comes back again, however, the offences of b regime will be faded or forgotten, and he will be rehabilitated to a large extent in the public esteem. The Republicans, many of them, have their eye on Ulysses as their next candidate. From their party point of view perhaps they could not make a more "likely" nomination.

The Telegram advises that members of the new Ministry should be permitted to walk the course when they go back to the people for re-election. We would suggest that what is sauce for the goose i sauce for the gander in a matter of this kind, Hon. Mr. Cartwright is being bittarly opposed in Centre Huron where Mr. Horton's recent majority over Mr. Platt (who is again running) was nearly four hundred. THE NEW CABINET.

After an unprecedented delay, Sir John Macdonald has selected the bright particular stars which are to make up the galaxy of his new Government. The length of time which elapsed between the resignation of the late ministry and the announcement of their successors has been an all-sufficient answer to the clamour ous impatience of the Tory pressfor outgoing ministers to make haste to be gone. The self respect of Mr. Mackenzie and his colleagues, as well as the requirements | been issued, and nominations will take of honour in the case, were fully met and on November the 4th, the Liberal leaders from their officia; station.
