REMINDERS.

Evening Meeting of Y.M.C.A. at 8:15 p.m. Meeting of St. Vincent de Paul Society in St. Mary's Vestry at 4:30 p.m.

CITY COUNCIL.—Regular Meeting at 8 p.m. MINDERS LODGE.—Regular Meeting at 7:30 p.m.

It is rather rough on the Marquis of Lorne to say, as some are doing, that not himself but the Princess Louise has been appointed Governor General of Canada. It is quite possible the fact of his Royal relationship suggested the appointment, just as the same fact is certain to enhance the popularity of it with Canadians. It is rather in poor taste, however, to follow the bark of the London World in its attempt to underrate and unman our coming Governor. It is quite enough that the Princess shall be considered to be the "better half" of the Vice Royal team.

Honours are falling thick and fast upon Canadians. Not only have our exhibitors won golden opinions as well as medals and diplomas at the Paris Exposition, but those who have been actively associated with the Canadian exhibits have been made the recipients of Imperial honours. Messrs. Pelletier and Keefe were previously announced, and now the Hon. John Ross is added as having received the Grand Cross of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. We think the latter should be congratulated on the accession of such a distinguished Canadian citizen to its fraternity, and of course we felicitate our countrymen on the distinction by which their merit has been recognized.

We have no sympathy with the cry raised against Sir John by the "Independent" press because he chose to call to his Cabinet Council his old Pacific Scandal colleagues. In this matter, at any rate, Sir John has been quite consistent. We cannot say as much for his critics on the point in question. To object to the point in question for the least show of reason, they should also have objected to Sir John himself for the position in which they helped to place him. They are good enough to be his colleagues if he is good enough to be their Premier. Sir John was surely as deeply immersed in Pacific Scandal mire as those whom he dragged with him into that unfortunate slough, and if the electors rehabilitated him he has an equal right to whitewash the corruption of his colleagues.

A PROPOSED NEGIRA.

The German Socialists are said to be discussing the advisability of migrating en masse to the United States or to Asia Minor. They are wroth and wearied no doubt at home by the heavy hand and repressive measures of the Bismarck tyranny, and are constrained to leave the Fatherland they are not permitted to regenerate with social revolution. We hope they will prefer Asia Minor of the alternative destinations above mentioned. In the United States there are quite enough of their political kidney already, and it would be exceedingly uncomfortable for us to have their numbers so largely increased in our own immediate vicinity. We do not at all wonder that no mention is made of coming to Canada. These shrewd though visionary Germans have doubtless learnt that in the development of their peculiar theories Canada is as yet in its infancy; that in this respect we are several decades behind our Yankee cousins. With the latter the tree of "protection" is already bearing its legitimate fruit of poverty, destitution and crime; and it is only a question of time when the same tree will be a source of ruin to us. It is not until we have learnt the lesson of the German Socialists that we will go to the States at any rate till Canada is far enough "advanced" to prove an inviting asylum. Let them should ever come, however, we sincerely hope they will go where Gladstone wanted to banish the Turks and baggage—to Asia Minor.

A RICH POOR MAN.

During the five years that Sir John shivered in the cold shades of Opposition much ado was made about his poverty. Queer thing, this latter, to make "capital" out of anyway, but it was done—political capital we mean. He had spent and been spent for his country. To indulge his patriotic ambition he had denied himself of the competency which he could so easily have amassed at his profession. With all his corruptions he had grabbed nothing for his own personal use and benefit. In short his hands were clean, and his pockets in a like condition, no filthy lucre adhering to their lining. And so Sir John, on account of his voluntary poverty, was the object of once general admiration and sympathy. True this "poor man" was in the receipt of at least $10,000 a year from his hundred thousand testimonial, his law firm, and other sources, but he was a poor man for a "that." Under these diffusing circumstances it should be a cause of congratulation to his heart-bounding friends the country over, to think that the starvation pittance we have mentioned will be supplemented at least by his official salary. Not "another ten thousand" exactly, but $7,000 a year will at any rate now be added to his personal revenue. This, with other unconsidered trifles, such as ordnance/land fees, etc., which may now come in his way, will in all probability round up his income to close upon $30,000 per annum. We sincerely hope this amount will for the present keep the wolf from the door of the Chieflain until something can be done for him more worthy of the man and of his self-denying and truly patriotic career. In other words it is quite high time that the "poor man" cry as applied to Sir John A. Macdonald were thoroughly played out. His public rewards both in honour and in funds have far exceeded the value of his public services—to say nothing of the heavy discount which should have been computed in consideration of the incredible dishonesty which his rank corruptions have left upon the national treasury.

THE COST OF IT.

History promises to repeat itself in the railway policy of the new Government. In order to purchase the Parliamentary support of several French Canadian constituencies, Sir John Macdonald consented to the longest and dearest route of the Intercolonial, for which he was roundly abused by his friend and colleague, Hon. W. Macdougall, who declared that by this means 138 miles had been unnecessarily added to the length of the road and eight millions of money thrown into the sea. So now, in spite of reports of engineers based upon careful and laborious surveys, it is highly probable that the route will be changed and lengthened in deference to local clamour from Marquette. To take anything but the shortest route to reach the continent, when our inter-occeanic highway has to compete so keenly with similar lines to the south of it, would be superlatively madness indeed, but we shall not be at all surprised if the Intercolonial folly should be re-enacted as a bribe for fresh Parliamentary support. Then, too, it is painfully evident that the Vancouver Islanders will badge their new member and Minister until the terminus shall be transferred from the mainland, where it is now located, to Victoria. This will necessitate the resumption of the Vancouver Railway scheme and the assumption of the expense of it by the Dominion Government. The estimated cost of this branch railway has been set down at twenty-seven millions of dollars. If, then, Macdougall's charge be taken at its face value, it will be necessary to place localities and to win the support of their members eight millions were thrown into the sea in connection with the Intercolonial, it will be quite safe to say that at least thirty millions will be similarly thrown into the Pacific to please the new constituents of Sir John, and to pay them to stay in our Confederated Union, which he at the first bribed them to enter, but which subsequently he advised them to leave. The unnecessary expenditure—to say nothing of the corruptions by which they will be sure to be accompanied—already outlined by our reinstated Tory rulers, are something appalling to the tax-paying portion of the Dominion. It will be a dubious satisfaction to Ontario, which has for the first time in her history accorded a large majority to the Tory splinterers, to know that the honor of paying the piper will largely fall to the Premier province. Tory government is an expensive luxury, for which the people of Ontario must expect to come down handsomely.

Kingston Election.

Last night there was a meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association at which it was decided to protest the return of Mr. A. Gunn, as member for this City in the House of Commons. The protest has been despatched to Toronto in the name of the President of the L.C.A. It charges Mr. Gunn with personal electoral corruption, and corruption by agents, but charging in one thing and proving quiet another. Monday was the last day for the reception of protests.

Dangers Ahead.

To the Editor of the British Whig. Dear Sir,—It is about the attention of the Aldermen of the City of Kingston was called to the disgraceful state of that man trap on Rideau street. After dark it is dangerous, and unless persons be careful passing it they are apt to fall down and break their arms or legs, or they may be killed. If such happened it would be a serious matter to the City Council, and it is not for nothing that the City Council should be so much interested in the defect. A short time ago a little boy was going home that way after six o'clock. He fell into it, and he had not been for some neighbors who heard his cries he would have been drowned. A still more serious accident happened lately. An old pensioner was going home that way pretty well primed, and, as usual, he was jolly, but this night he was singing, "Let me kiss her mother," when he was whirled into the drain. He was taken with the drain, and he says he is a happy man to save the "most cherished of his youth." Serious cases may happen if the authorities do not do something with it. The election season is approaching, and I think it would behoove someone of the Aldermen to have it fixed, so that he will secure the votes of the people. This is merely a suggestion; it is not meant for any individual in particular. In the meantime I would suggest that the Aldermen of Ottawa should try to fix that drain. Yours, A CITIZEN. Kingston, Oct. 31.

Loss of a Schooner.

The loss of a Schooner—the loss of the schooner Star, of Cobourg, is announced. The Star was bound for Kingston, loaded with wheat and peas (a dead load), when she was driven towards Charlotte by stress of weather during the storm of Wednesday last week. She was making the port when struck by a gale, and, dragging her anchors, driven to the east pier, where she sank. Experienced seamen declare the storm to have been one of the worst ever known on Lake Ontario. The cargo was insured. The Star cost $15,000. She was insured in the Western for $7,500.

Still They Come.

The reports of second crops are growing in number and getting more surprising all the while. Mr. George Douke, of Harris street, has left upon his table a branch from a tame raspberry bush, loaded with ripe and unripe berries.

It is said that a reorganization of the Cabinet is contemplated before long, and that Sir John Macdonald will become Premier of the Council, the Hon. John O'Connor Receiver General, and the Hon. Mr. Campbell Minister of the Interior.

Ontario.—In our report of Mrs. Hackett's entertainment we omitted mention of Prof. Oldham's piano accompaniments, which were exceedingly correct and timely, and deserved special mention. Good accompanists are rather rare.

POLITICAL FANATICS.

A BRITISH REPLY TO A KINGSTON TORY.

The following appeared in the Evening Post of Thursday, being a reply to a correspondence printed in our local contemporary. "A Conservative Catholic" writing to the Kingston Daily News, abuses the Post because the Post exposes Sir John A. Macdonald's juggling. We do not know whether "A Conservative Catholic" is a man, a woman, or a child, but he, also, or she, or it, "A Conservative Catholic" is a poor creature at best. We notice the letter at all just to fill a gap in our editorial columns, and not because of any special regard for the "Conservative Catholic" but because advanced. In fact, all the argument in the letter amounts to this: "Butter have no Post, if it will not support the Conservative party." This is the sum and substance of what "A Conservative Catholic" writes to the Kingston Daily News, says. We are not party men and therefore we should die, or with heroic fortitude, we should pose in the attitude of a suicide and make our exit with a bare dagger in our hand, and a quill. But let us think of this—not the suicide—but the "Conservative Catholic" argument, for an instant. The Post was established to look after the special interests of the "Conservative Catholic" irrespective of any party. It was established to fight for principles and not for factions. Not a "Conservative Catholic" would have us abandon principles and take up party, or make our own "Motto" if they be men, who advance arguments such as those, would pull down God's altar for their party, and kneel before the debris and piously swear that they did it all for the glory of God and the advancement of a holy work.
