YOUNG FOLKS' COLUMN.

LULLABY FOR A LITTLE LASSIE TIRED AND READY TO SLEEP.

Fretty Legenda That Have Become Associated With Feathered Musicians-A Russian Fable With a Moral Applicable to All Countries.

The following fable is of Russian origin but it contains an interesting lesson applicable to boys and girls of every country.

THE PEASANT AND THE GEESE.

A Russian peasant was one day driving some geese to a neighboring town where he hoped to sell them. He had a long stick in his hand and, to tell the truth, he did not treat his flock with much consideration. He was anxious to get to the market in time to make a profit, and not only geese but men must expect to suffer if they hinder gain, which the geese were doing every time they stopped to "cackle." The geese, however, did not look on the matter in this light, and, chancing to meet a traveler walking along the road, they poured forth their complaints against the peasant who was driving them.

"Where can you find geese more unhappy than we are! See how this peasant is hurrying on this way and that, and driving us just as though we were only common geese. Ignorant fellow, he never thinks how he is bound to honor and respect us; for we are distinguished descendants of those very geese | The Louisville batteries are dubbed as folto whom Rome once owed its salvation, so that a festival was established in their honor.'

"But for what do you expect to be distinguished yourselves!" asked the intelligent traveler.

"Because our ancestors"—

"Yes, I know; I have read all about it. What I want to know is, what good have you yourselves done?"

"Why, our ancestors saved Rome." "Yes, yes; but what have you done of the

"We! Nothing." "Of what good are you, then? Do leave your ancestors at peace. They were honored for their deed, but you, my friends, are only fit for roasting." Bird Legends.

Following are a few of the many bird legends that people with bright imaginations and ready inventions, have connected with feathered musicians, as collated by Harper's Young Folks:

The poor cuckoo, whose mournful cry sounds so desolate in the quiet wood, is always mourning for the death of a beloved brother. The cuckoo was originally a beautiful young maiden. She caused her brother's death unintentionally, and was changed into the bird whose sad cry is an expression of her bitter grief.

The owl was also once a beautiful young girl. She was a baker's daughter. One day a good man, passing by, asked for a piece of bread. She refused it, and as a punishment was changed into an owl. In Germany the swallow and the lark are sacred birds, and their morning song is considered a hymn.

The nightingale, you know, only sings at night. This was not so formerly. One night a nightingale fell fast asleep, and the tendrils of the vine it sat upon grew round its feet, so that it could not get away, and finally it died Since then the other nightingales never dare sleep at night.

How School Globes are Made.

The manufacture of school globes was begun in this country in 1852, according to The Troy Times, which claims Troy as the largest producer of these globes. The first one made was only five inches in diameter. but the sizes were rapidly increased as the globes came into popular use.

The balls on which the maps are pasted are many of them made in Boston from, whence they are sent to Troy to be covered and mounted. The balls are composed of papier mache, and the maps are printed in small sections on drawing paper. These sections are so carefully put on the ball that not a line or break occurs; the globe is next painted and varnished. It requires three months to construct one of these miniature worlds from the time the ball is begun until it rests in its frame or sits aloft upon a brass, bronze or nickel standard. The sizes manufactured range from three to thirty-three inches in diameter, and cost from $2 to over $200 in price, and are mounted in forty different s:yles.

> Mr. Dream Maker. (A Lullaby).

GOOD NIGHT.

Come Mr. Dream Maker, sell me to-night The loveliest dream in your shop; My dear little lassie is weary of light, Her lids are beginning to drop. She's good when she's gay, but she's tired of play,

And the tear drops will naughtily creep; So, Mr. Dream Maker, hasten, I pray, My little girl's going to sleep.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Chicago is going to sign Petitt, of Waterbury, a catcher. Right Fielder Polhemus, of the Indianapolis team, has been laid off. Fogerty is gradually reaching the high water mark in batting.

. Charles Daniels, manager of the Hartfords, will resume his old position as umpire.

The Hartfords forfeit $250 by dishanding. It would have cost pretty nearly $1,500 to have kept on. Hecker's fielding average at first base, .080, is the best average held by any player in the Louisville team.

Buffalo has filed an application to fill the first vacancy in the American association; ditto Milwaukee.

"Jimmy" Peeples, the winning catcher of the Brooklyns, is doing excellent work at first base for that team.

Pitcher McCormick has lost more games than any other league pitcher this season, the number being seventeen. The New Yorks have tried twenty-one, Detroits twenty, Philadelphias nineteen, Indianapolis eighteen players this season. Pitcher Shreve, of the Baltimores, and Johnson, the Hartford right fielder, have been signed by Manager Fogal, of the Indianapolis team. Manager Schmelz is already at work trying to arrange fall whibition games for Cincinnati with Detroit, Chicago, New York, Boston and the other league clubs.

John Ward, of the New York club, has been spoken of in connection with the American association presidency. He would doubtless be a good man for the office.

The Lincoln (Neb.) team contains three of the men who were blacklisted in 1884 for jumping to the Union association. They are Dolan, Dave Rowe and "Orator" Shaeffer. Hatfield, the Hoboken lad whom Manager

Spence, of the Portlands, scooped up, has stolen 100 bases. He also leads the New England team in run getting, having scored 113. President Hart, of the New Orleans association, believes the Southern league will be stronger next season than this, and that all the large southern cities will be in except Savannah. The base running of the Kentucky club is led by Pete Browning, who has 56 to his credit. The Gladiator has also made 158 base hits this senson, which tops the Association record. lows: Hecker and Cook, the "head battery;" Chamberlain and Cross, the "scientific battery;" and Ramsey and Kerins, the "dynamite battery." Since Hughes, of the Newarks, was hit on the head by a pitched ball, his effectiveness as a pitcher has been greatly impaired, and the club has been meeting with constant defeat ever since.

Pitcher Shaw, of the Jersey City club, resembles his namesake of the league. If allowed a good rest be pitches a phenomenal game, but if put in three times a week he is batted unmercifully.

The ministers of Brooklyn take great interest in baseball and many of the most prominent divines can daily be seen at the games in that city. Most of them are hard losers. They want to see the Brooklyns win all the Johnny Ward ranks pretty well as a base runner. He can do about eleven seconds. His skill in base running lies in good starts and slides. About four years ago Ward, while in California, beat Tom Brown in a race. Brown, however, was not running fast Jersey City people feel very proud of the members of the semi-professional club which existed there in 1885. Hughes is making a great record for himself with Newark. Cuff was lately with New York. Burns, who is now out of the baseball profession, played first base with Baltimore. Mattimore is with New York and Fields with Pittsburg.

President Stern, of the Cleveland club, says that crowds at the American association grounds are officially overestimated. He says that on Decoration day in Baltimore, while the official count given out was 15,000 people, the Cincinnati club was paid its share of receipts on the basis of a few over 7,000 admissions. Here is a discrepancy of over 100 per California early in November will be as follows: Kelly, right field; Brown, catcher; Tim Keefe, pitcher; Connor, first base; Dan Richardson, second base; Denny, third base; Ward, short stop; Ewing, left field, and Gore, center. Most of these players are strangers to the Pacific coast, although Ward played as pitcher when there before.

The Brooklyn club of 1888 will contain many new members. All the old timber will be lopped off. At least five, if not six, young players will be signed by the management. At this period it can be readily seen by those who take interest in baseball that it would be inadvisable to even hint where the new players are coming from, or to state what members of the present team are to be released.

The suit of Roseman, center fielder of the Metropolitan Baseball club, against the proprietors of the Athletic club has been settled. Roseman was released very summarily by the Athletics, and he claimed a whole year's salary, which was laughed at by Lew Simmons & Co. The case of Roseman was put in the hands of a lawyer, and the Athletics, scenting a defeat, made an offer to compromise, which was accepted. Roseman gets about $1,000.

Rev. J. M. Sutherland, the evangelist, after SPENCE & CRUMLEY, nine years' missionary work in the principal cities of the country, has decided to return to the minstrel stage. He was unable to make a living in the pulpit.

E. C. Bertrand, author of "Grandfather's Clock," is dead. He tried again and again, but never afterwards caught the public taste. He was an actor, a theatrical manager, and a dramatist, some of his melodramas, which were of the Surreyside kind, being popular.

Herr von Werther, the intendant of the Stuttgart theatre, and until now persona grata at the court of Wurtemberg, has been suddenly dismissed. He recently brought a libel suit against one of the members of the theatre, and, although he won it, the testimony of several witnesses against him proved rather damaging to his reputation.
