

MEDICINES.

"Cheap Drugs are the dearest things on Earth."

The Advantages of Morse's Carbolated Cod Liver Oil.

It is believed that the not infrequent and discouraging failures of plain Cod Liver Oil and other tonic and alterative treatment to cure consumption, grow out of the fact they have no positive power to arrest the decay of the lungs; that while Cod Liver Oil supplies the waste of adipose tissue and vitality that the disease has made, as no other known substance can, it does not exercise any controlling power over the disease itself; it only gives Nature a fair chance to work her own cure. Something more is wanted—SOMETHING TO ARREST THE DECAY THAT DESTROY'S LIFE—some prompt remedial agent that shall act directly upon the disease to check it while the Cod Liver Oil is building up the system. This important addition is found in Morse's Carbolated Cod Liver Oil. The power of Carbolic Acid—to arrest decay—something marvelous. The destruction of matter cannot proceed where it is administered. Its disinfectant, purifying and cleansing properties are truly remarkable, and have been of the greatest practical value to medical men. It is palatable, and now put up in bottles adding a full pint. Price, $1. Formula on every label.

We have on hand constantly a fresh and complete stock of DRUGS, FANCY GOODS, PERFUMERY, ETC.

Also all the leading Patent Medicines, and a full stock of Paints, Oils, Etc. All Prescriptions carefully dispensed. Good value guaranteed. Favor us with a call. J. GEO. KING, - DRUGGIST, Oct. 22, Kingston, Ont.

Pimples, Boils,

And Carbuncles result from a debilitated, impoverished, or impure condition of the blood. Ayer's Sarsaparilla prevents and cures these eruptions and painful tumors, by removing their cause; the only effectual way of treating them.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has prevented the usual course of Boils, which have pained and distressed me every season for several years.—George Scates, Plainville, Mich.

I was badly troubled with Pimples on the face; also, with a discoloration of the skin, which showed itself in ugly dark patches. No external treatment did more than temporary good. Ayer's Sarsaparilla effected

Count Mitkiewicz is said to be an expert with the cue.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes is at Beverly Farms, Mass.

Mr. T. B. Aldrich's twin sons have come home from Europe.

A Parisian doctor has seen the pope lately, and says he is certainly good for ten years more.

Dr. Morell's little bill for attending the crown prince of Germany is 54,000 marks, or a little more than $13,000.

Ex-Senator Ferry, of Michigan, who failed in 1882 for $1,500,000, has since worked hard and paid off $1,200,000 of his debts.

Austin Corbin, president of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, is making a tour through the west in his private car.

Sir John Lubbock says that among a certain hill tribe of India it is a mark of respect and gratitude to put the thumb to the nose.

Senator-elect Hiseock has attracted a great deal of attention at Watch Hill this summer. He is very fond of surf bathing, and his stalwart form looks well in a bathing costume.

President Cleveland has sent his check for $25 to C. M. Stuart, of Albany, N. Y., for the fair to be held in October for the benefit of the cathedral of the Immaculate Conception.

W. W. Corcoran, the venerable philanthropist, has returned to his Washington home greatly improved in health. He will be obliged, however, to remain closely indoors for several months.

It was the unanimous verdict of the doctors who saw President Cleveland at the opening of the Medical congress at Washington that he looked like a man who needed a course of outdoor exercise.

Prince Bismarck has been presented with a pipe of peace by an American lady. It was made as a token of the prince's services in preserving peace in Europe, and was formerly in possession of a certain Indian chief's family who held it from time immemorial.

Ex-Secretary William Windom, who returned to New York the other day from an extended trip in the northwest, said that the Tehuantepec ship railway, of which he is president, will go on with its work as if Capt. Eads were still alive to supervise the practical work on his plans and engineering designs.

Mr. Carter Harrison was one day talking about the boys of Chicago whom he knew. After naming scores of them and dwelling on the characteristics of each, he said: "And then there's my boy Cato." For a moment he paused and then added, "Well, Cato Harrison's the only boy in Chicago whom I don't know."

The Father Lloyd says that Louis Kosuth, who has left Turin for Courmayeur, where he will take the waters, is in excellent health. In spite of his 85 years he is perfectly erect, his complexion is rosy and his intellect as vigorous as ever. His sister, Mme. Ruttkay, who formerly resided in the United States, is his constant companion.

Prominent people in San Francisco are pretty sure that the president will visit that metropolis during his western trip. "Just before I left Washington," said ex-Senator Williams the other day, "he told me he wanted to come to California badly; he wanted to know more about it. It will strike Mrs. Cleveland right, too. If we can only get her interested just a little more, she'll tell the president to pack up and come, and that'll settle it. He'll do it."

When the Duke of Edinburgh the other day did not receive the French officials from Bougie because he was abed and asleep, it was doubtless due to the fact that he had been sitting up the preceding night playing the violin. On a former occasion, when his flag-ship did not return the French salute, off Cannes, his royal highness was asleep, and the captain dared not fire a gun for fear of waking him. Then, it is said, to make an excuse for the breach of etiquette, the saluting guns of his royal highness' ship were quietly thrown overboard next night, and it was given out that the salute was not fired because in the hurry of departure from England the vessel had sailed without any saluting guns.

MEN OF LETTERS.

Tennyson has recovered from his latest attack of gout.

Frank Pilson, of Washington, seems to be the most ambitious and precocious editor in the country. He is only 43 years of age and publishes a monthly entitled Universal Knowledge.

Mr. Walter Besant only devotes three or four hours a day to producing copy. The rest of his working time he devotes to revision and to gleaming fresh material from the world about him.

The verdict in professional circles is that Joel Chandler Harris' new story, "Azalia," appearing in The Century, is not at all up to his average. His Bostonians are said to be amiably done, but utterly tiresome.

J. T. Trowbridge, the author, has grown rich in an easy and pleasant way. He is one of the principal stockholders in the company which owns all the available land for cottages at Kennebunkport, Me. The rapid rise in the price of land at that resort has made the stockholders wealthy.

Bret Harte makes his home in London at the house of the Belgian minister. The famous author's hair is now white, and lies in masses on his forehead. His mustache is not so white. His complexion is florid. He has not grown especially stout, and were it not for his hair would like a young man.

Robert Louis Stevenson, who is now in America, is a thorough Scotchman in speech and appearance. His clear cut features are pleasing in their make up, but his pale cheeks are sunken, and his face shows marks of ill health and hard work. His eyes are dark, his eyebrows black. His black hair is brushed straight back from his forehead and is worn long behind, so that it clusters on his shoulders. Mr. Stevenson is devoted to cigarette smoking.

In Sydney roughs on the street are called "larrikins." The name came from the reply of a policeman who was asked by the court what there was against the prisoner whom he had arrested. "Just larrikin about the abstrates, yer honor," was the reply of the officer, who was an Irishman. From that time disorderly conduct was termed larriking, and the rough was called a larrikin.
