ASSOCIATION'S ANNUAL MEETING.

The Officers of the Young Men's Christian Association-Officer's of the Year.

An interesting item at the annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. held at its rooms last evening was the report of the finance committee, stating that the association closed its year free of debt, with all bills paid. The presi dent read the annual report, speaking of the Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, progress of the association. The many Mass. Sold by all druggists. Price $1; six changes in the secretaries were touched upon, bottles, $5. and the hope expressed that at last a permanent secretary had been secured. The duties of the association to this officer were enlarged upon. The detailed work of the year was dwelt upon by the secretary in his annual report. The different departments of work, social, intellectual and religious, were reported at length. Mr. G. E. Hague, as treasurer, gave the financial statement of receipts and expenditures, and Mr. E. C. Hill, the chairman of the finance committee, told how the funds had been raised. In or der to do what should be done the next year it was necessary to increase the subscription list by four or five hundred dollars. Reports of the entertainment committee were read by Mr. Shore Loynes and Mr. Stanley Chown.

Then came the election of directors. Messrs. B. M. Britton, E. C. Hill, L. R. Montgomerie, A. J. McMahon and Thomas Savage were elected for one year; Messrs. D. F. Armstrong, Hiram A. Calvin, Shore Loynes and W. Hobart Dyde for two years; and Messrs. W. G. Anglin, G. S. Fenwick, G. E. Hague, G. M. Macdonnell and B. W. Robertson for three years.

The programme for next week was anneed as follows: Training class on Monday evening at 7:30; meeting to organize a walking and snowshoe club on Monday evening at 8:30; French class, Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30; bible and prayer meeting at 8 on Saturday. After the business meeting the newly elected directors met and chose Dr. Anglin as president for the coming year; Mr. G. Mills, as vice-president; Mr. G. E. Hague, as treasurer; and Mr. A. J. McMahon as recording secretary. Mr. Frank M. Pratt was formally appointed general secretary. ### They Were all Too Sure.

The cost of three nut shells and a pea is now being estimated by citizens. One paid $50, another $30, another $20, several $10 each and a great many $5 apiece. There was great sport when a pillar in a church dropped his money. Before this he had denounced the gambling on the fair ground, but, when he saw a sure thing and a $5 bill tagged to it, embraced the opportunityand lost. A lawyer saw $10 go up Salt Creek, and then he closed the gamblers' privileges.
