SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

The Base-Ball Gossip—Standing of the League—General Sporting Notes.

New York's profits on the season are estimated at about $75,000.

Detroit is going to have the tallest pennant pole in the country. It will be 125 feet high.

It is to be hoped that the league will abolish the ghost hit. A base on balls should rank what it really is, an error for the pitcher.

The Cornwall lacrosse club is waiting for a challenge from the Toronto club to play a match to test the merits of the teams. The Cornwall club will guarantee $250 to the Torontos for their expenses to Cornwall.

The Rochester base-ball club asks the stockholders to loan $20 on each share for the purpose of paying all indebtedness and creating a small surplus for next year. If the proposition is declined the franchise will be put upon the market.

Close of the League Season.

The league championship season of 1887 closed on Saturday, and President Young announced that none of the postponed or tie games could be played off. Consequently, no changes will be made in the following table, showing the work of the clubs for the season:

World's Championship Games.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 11.—The attendance was 13,000 at the game of the world's championship series here. The actual returns show that less than 10,000 people were present. The weather was better and the game more interesting. Ganzell, the change catcher of the league champions, occupied Brouters' place at first, and Deacon White resumed his old position at third. Hardy Richardson, who played third yesterday, went out to left field and Conway pitched. The team was much better balanced than yesterday. Yet it can hardly be disputed that the Wolverines are not playing ball in the style to "do" the Browns. They are depending on their ability to win victories by batting them out, while the Browns are taking all the chances. Batting, fielding, base running, everything is done with a vim that astonishes the league sluggers. The rank misplays of Latham at third and Boyle, who was behind the bat, in place of Bushong, gave the victory to Detroit. Rowe did splendid work for the visitors as short stop, while Thompson, Bennett and Hanlon were superior in the use of the stick. Contrary to the ideas generally held the St. Louis men showed little verse in base running, and in this respect were fairly outdone by the visitors. Both pitchers were hit freely.

St. Louis	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 0 3
Detroit	0 2 2 0 0 0 1 0 0 5

Miscellaneous Notes.

The race for the Middlepark plate at Newmarket was won by Johnson and Triar's Balsam; Lord Londonderry's Hazelhutch second; and Lord Culthorpe's Seagreeze third.

A MURDER AND OUTRAGE.

Horrible Crime Committed in the County of Chateauguay—Facts of the Case.

MONTREAL, Oct. 12.—A horrible story of murder and outrage comes from St. Philomena, county of Chateauguay. An old couple named Lefebvre reside in a lonely spot outside the village, with an adopted daughter, a girl of seventeen. Mr. Lefebvre is ninety two years of age and his wife ninety-six. On Saturday night a man named Joseph Pitt, aged thirty, knocked at the door and told them that four thieves were coming to break into the house and he had come to protect them. They refused to admit him, whereupon he started to break open the door. The girl escaped from a back window, and running to the village got some of the neighbours to come to their assistance. They got Pitt, who was drunk, to go with them, and one of the men took him into his house until he had sobered up. About midnight this man sent Pitt home, but instead of going there he returned to the Lefebvres' house and again attempted to force an entrance by a window. Mrs. Lefebvre picked up an axe, but the villain threw a stone at her and knocked her down. He then jumped in at the window, and as Mr. Lefebvre entered the room with a knife in his hand, Pitt struck him with the axe and knocked him over. Finding that the young girl was gone he assaulted Mrs. Lefebvre, and, on her resisting, stabbed her several times with the knife. He afterwards returned to his family, and it only when the young girl returned home next day that the horrible crime was discovered. Pitt was arrested and lodged in Beauharnois gaol. Mr. Lefebvre is fatally injured, and his ante-mortem deposition has been taken, but it is believed his wife will recover.

THE MINORITY IN IRELAND.

Mr. Chamberlain Claims That Their Rights Had Not Been Considered.

BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 12.—In a speech at the train door Mr. Chamberlain said that the home rulers had refrained altogether from considering the feelings, wishes and rights of the minority in Ireland, which minority was respectable in numbers and character, and which had a right to be heard as well as the majority. When it was proposed to alter the constitution of the united kingdom he could not understand how the liberals had given importance to the views of the sedition party and had not considered the views of those who had always been loyal.

FIRING OF ADDRESSES.

THE TEMPERANCE WOMEN IN SESSION IN NAPANEE.

A Big Time at the Reception Service to the Ontario W. C. T. U.—Their Motto Seems to be "We Seek True Unity"—A Young Woman Thrilling an Audience.

NAPANEE, Oct. 11.—The tenth annual convention of the Ontario women's christian union was opened here this morning. The president, Mrs. Chisholm, occupied the chair.

The recording secretary's report showed that a large amount of private business had been transacted before the regular meeting of the convention. A form of constitution from the Toronto district union was referred to a sub-committee.

The committees were then appointed. The roll of officers and members was called by Mrs. J. B. Converse. About 200 ladies responded.

Rev. Mr. Baker and Rev. Mr. Emale welcomed the union to Napanee. Mrs. Perry was introduced as a fraternal delegate from Winnipeg. Mrs. Wiley, corresponding secretary, read letters of greeting from Manitoba, Quebec and maritime unions. Mrs. Youmans moved, seconded by Mrs. Brethour, a letter of condolence be sent Mrs. J. B. Finch in this time of her great bereavement.

At the afternoon session Mrs. Youmans, dominion president, took charge of the devotional meeting.

The president's address was very entertaining. After reviewing the year's work Mrs. Chisholm discussed the present outlook and presented twelve suggestions: (1) Revision of the constitutions, local, county and provincial; (2) preparation of an annual leaflet in which the object and aims of the provincial union are plainly noted and the duties of the general superintendents carefully defined; (3) establishment and organization of a lecture bureau consisting of Canadian W. C. T. U. women only; (4) employment of missionaries in the lumber camps; (5) creation of a department on Sabbath observance; (6) appointment of a superintendent of Sunday school work; (7) circulation of a petition for a day of prayer during the annual week of prayer in the churches; (8) appointment of delegates to the Dominion women's christian convention; (9) appointment of W. C. T. U. representatives to present the world's petitions to all women's missionary society general boards; (10) steps taken towards securing a building fund in anticipation of provincial headquarters. It was decided to publish 400 copies of the address.

Mrs. Youmans spoke on the duties of women duly qualified to vote at school elections and the necessity for lady members of school boards.

The corresponding secretary's report showed a large amount of work accomplished in every department. The membership is 4,380 in 160 unions. There are 96 bands of hope with a membership of 13,704. Over 300 churches in the province are using unfermented wine. Seventy newspapers are supplied with temperance items and over 600,000 pages of temperance literature are distributed.

The treasurer's report showed total receipts of $1,334.35, against an expenditure of $981.34.

A letter from Miss Bowes, provincial organizer from British Columbia, stated that satisfactory progress was being made in that province.

At the close of the session the members of the committee and visitors were invited by the ladies of Napanee to the lecture room of the church where a bountiful and substantial supper had been prepared for them. The tables were "richly spread in regal mode, with dishes piled and meats of noblest sort and savour." Full justice was done to the excellent repast and a most enjoyable hour and a half were spent, the ladies evidently sharing the opinion of Oliver Wendell Holmes that it is not a "sin to gladden this vale of sorrow with a wholesome laugh."

The Evening Session.

NAPANEE, Oct. 11.—The evening meeting of the Ontario W. C. T. U. displayed the convention in full swing. Around the gallery front were hung the local union banners—tasteful mysteries of silk and embroidery, of gold leaf and silver fringe—all attesting that the component parts of the whole were women, christianity, temperance and unity. There was a preponderance of women in the church of course—not the prettiness of the ball-room nor its inanity either—but rather the features of exalted womanhood, face to face with a great evil and bound to conquer it. And, indeed, if handsome is that handsome does, what nobler beauty need one look for than illuminated souls with a great purpose? Still honesty compels the verdict that the rule was not a high type of beauty. How hard to die are the habits of thought! We are taught to look first at the style of a woman's beauty, and the ladies help on the growth of the habit until we readily shout applause under the dazzling beams of a pretty face with little brain back of it, and silently criticize the plain setting of a well-developed brain and count the throbs of a tender heart. But the world moves, and twenty years hence the woman with a pretty face and deft fingers only will be bally left. Such meetings as these are helping forward to that stage the society of to-day. Deeds, not looks, will be the future gate to favor.

Mrs. Chisholm presided, a little nervous and prayer meeting, for she called the meeting a "congregation," but after the ministers had gotten through with the devotions she settled down to fill the place she occupied.

Rev. Mr. Elmsley read the Good Samaritan parable with an unctious and emphasis which made its application self-evident and gave it a new meaning, while Rev. Mr. Baker led in a prayer of power and almost inspired appropriateness. Then began the firing of addresses. First Mrs. Charles James read an address of welcome from the local to the provincial union. Mrs. James put her soul into the words she used and everybody felt the thrill of hospitality. Then Mrs. (Rev.) B. B. Keefe, of Toronto, replied in a most captivating manner, showing that the temperance cause owed much to women, who, hitherto, resting under the curse of sin, were now claiming the benefits and privileges of the emancipation which dawned eighteen centuries ago in the Holy Sepulchre garden, in the command "Go, tell my disciples." Next Mr. W. T. Thompson, supported by the retired-list war horses, Williams and Casey, presented an address of welcome by the Good Templars, the points in which were that the order was the largest temperance organization and had first enlisted the aid of women. Mrs. Youmans briefly replied, acknowledging the facts, and proposing a partnership in future, as though the women were now out-stripping by the men.

Next was an address of personal welcome to Mrs. Chisholm, which did not seem to fit in well, but Mrs. Youmans came to the rescue of the modest president and opened the way for Mrs. Synnington to read a well-prepared address, to which Mrs. Chisholm replied generously, dividing the honors with Mrs. Youmans. When this was over there was a feeling of relief which settled into one of intense pleasure, and ripened into exuberant satisfaction as Miss Phelps, of St. Catharines, delivered a temperance address worthy of the late John R. Finch, as to its matter, though lacking the charm of his vigor and enthusiasm. Miss Phelps took a new line, tracing the licensing power through history, and showing that Englishmen had never surrendered the power to prohibit, or ever done more than to tolerate a privilege. It was really an incident worthy of the 19th century to see gray-haired men enjoying and applauding the calm, logical argument of a girl along legal lines. Her peroration was especially fine, though wanting somewhat the fire of rhetoric. The music was supplied by the church choir.

To-morrow the young ladies have their innings, and expectation has been so raised by to-night's success that they are sure of a bumper house of temperance and general principle enthusiasts.

THE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS.

Great Meeting at Dublin to Protest Against Present Government Prosecution.

DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—An immense meeting was held here to protest against prosecutions directed by the government against the press. Mr. Sexton presided, and several English journalists were present. After an address by Mr. William O'Brien, resolutions were read declaring that the struggle for the freedom of the press must be continued. The resolution were carried amid great enthusiasm. Mr. Elliott, of Columbus, Ohio, seconded the resolution condemning the government's attempt to destroy the liberty of the press. He said those in America who had been advocates of the use of dynamite had changed their views, and were now among Mr. Gladstone's warmest supporters. Mr. O'Brien challenged Mr. Balfour to suppress the National league as long as reports of the proceedings of the league meetings were published in newspapers. Mr. Balfour, he declared, could not suppress the national press of Ireland until he had suppressed the large section of the English, Welsh and Scotch press. The priest and the people were united, and they had pledged themselves to thwart and ridicule all attempts at coercion, and to hold Mr. Balfour up to public hatred and contempt.

GAGED IN BURNING CARS.

A Terrible Disaster on the Chicago & Atlantic Railway—The Death List.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—The passenger train eastbound on the Chicago & Atlantic railway, leaving Hammond at 8:15 last night, broke down near Kouts station. A stock train following, running on special time, crashed into the sleeper, telescoping the sleeper and four coaches. So far fourteen bodies have been taken from the wreck. A doctor from Huntingdon, Ind., is the only passenger identified. The rest are burned beyond recognition, and twenty-five or thirty are wounded. The engineer and fireman of the stock train were badly hurt and are not expected to live.

A NAVAL DISPLAY AT NEWPORT.

The Atalanta Wins the Laurels of the Day—The Rule of Procedure.

NEWPORT, Oct. 12.—The torpedo attack on the cruiser Atalanta took place last night. It was an ideal night for the attack. The rules adopted adjudged any torpedo boat out of action when sufficiently long under fire to receive three rounds from the big guns. The attacking force consisted of six steam launches and four pulling boats, armed with spar torpedoes, and of other light pulling boats under the command of Commander Chester of the Galena. As soon as a search light had been played upon one of the boats for fifteen seconds she was counted out and a red signal light fired in her direction. Thus beat after boat was discovered, until by 8:45 p.m. all the attacking boats were considered by the umpires as destroyed; and the Atalanta, carrying away the laurels for the day, sounded the retreat.

It was determined to have a procession of socialists, headed by a band which should play the Dead March in Saul.
