Constipation

s a universal and most roublesome disorder. It causes Headache, Mental Depression, impairs the Sight and Hearing, destroys the Appetite, and, when long continued, causes Enlargement of the Liver, Inflammation of the Bowels, and Piles. Constipation is speedily cured by Ayer's Pills.

For a number of months I was troubled with Costiveness, in consequence of which I suffered from Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, and a dis-ordered liver. My eyes also troubled me. I was compelled to wear a shade over them, and, at times, was unable to bear exposure to the light. I was entirely

New York Casino, was taken by Mr. Aronson fr m the famous painting by Fortuny, exhibited at the l'aris salon of 1878, and which is now in possession of Mr. Vander. Bronson Howard's new play, "The Henriette," is praised by all the New York papers and seems to be a success. It is a comedy of the Stock Exchange. Crane plays an elderly speculator and Robson a Wall street Mabel Stirling, announced as a timid little thing of 17 who has just emerged from her native Kentucky hills and taken to the stage, is more intimately described as a woman over 30 years of age, who may have come from Kentucky and who may be a New Yorker.

Lotta is not likely soon to retire from the stage. In a recent interview she said: "I was born with high spirits, and I suppose I shall have them till I die, and the stage is the outlet I want. If I were to settle quietly down at home with mother I believe I should go crazy."

Several American actresses and amateurs have announced that they had secured the American rights to Sardou's new play, but it appears to be the fact that Fanny Davenport has got it. "La Tosca" is to be produced by Mme. Bernhardt in l'aris toward the end of the month and Mr. Price is going abroad to see the performance.

Mile Rhea's manager has struck a novel method of advertising hisstar. In the "Fairy Fingers," the chief scene is in a dr samaker's shop, and the entire wardrobe of Mill. Rhea is displayed on dummies prepare I for the purpose. At the close of every performance a handsome silver thimble is presented to the female portion of the audience as a souvenir.

Mrs. Langtry's attention to business details has often been commented upon, but it is not generally known how indefatigable she is at times. When the curtain is down between the acts, and the Lily has finished dressing, she has her maid tuck up her gorgeous skirt, cover her with white aprons and then she comes out of her dressing room on to the stage, gives directions right and left, but in own hands, places a piece of furniture or a bit of bric a-brac where it will show to the best advantage. - Dramatic News.

MUSICAL NOTES.

Jennie Lind is seriously ill.

Campanini will begin his concert campaign in New York, on Nov. 10.

Emma Thursby has returned from France. She is at her home in Brooklyn. She will probably sing in concerts.

Mme, Teresa Carreno has arrived from South America, and is arranging a concert tour for the coming season.

Col. Mapleson is organizing a concert company for a tour of the English provinces, with Siegfried Arnoldson as star. Wagner has invaded South America, "Der Fliegende Hollander," under the more euphonious title of "Il Vascello Fantasma," having just been given for the first time at Buenos

Emmet's songs in "Fritz" include "Down by the Old Green Lane," "The Mistletoe," "True Dog, I Love Thee," "The Ragamuffin's Lullaby," "He is Winking on Me," "Schneider, Llow You Was" and "The Baby Army."

Miss Emma Juch has been engaged by Mr. Locke for his reorganized National Opera company, but she will also appear in a few concerts. In Boston she sings in the Star course. Miss Emma Thursby, who returned from Europe last Sunday, has also been secured for one of the Star course entertainments. Miss Thursby, as usual, declines all offers of engagements for opera.

Mme. Scalchi, who comes to the United States with Signor Campanini, was desirous of arranging with Mr. Abbey for the Gerster concert tour, with a view to extending this engagement over Mme. Patti's South American trip, which is to commence in April next. It is not believed, however, that Mr. Abbey has any partiality toward Mme. Scalchi, and the negotiations between the parties came to naught.
