THE SYNOD OF ONTARIO.

A LENGTHY DEBATE ON THE DIO-CESAN MISSION REPORT.

The Presentation of Many Reports His Lordship Delivers An Interesting 'ddress-Review of the Work Done in Twenty-Five Years-The Clergy Considering a Mission Report.

The synod resumed its session at 3 p.m. Judge Reynolds, Rev. H. Auston and E. H. Smythe were appointed the synodical auditing committee.

memorial from St. Philip's, Milford, asking the synod to grant leave to sell a parsonage and devote the proceeds to the purchasing of another house was referred to the proper committee.

Resolutions regarding the use of the scripture readings in the public schools, and as to the due observance of the Sabbath were forwarded by the secretaries of the Toronto diocese for the information of the members of the synod of Ontario, His lordship, amid applause, read an interesting address, in which he expressed grati tude in meeting with his brethren at this the twenty-fifth session of the synod. He was pleased to say that his visit to England had resulted in his securing good health, and then spoke of the kindness of the bishops of Toronto and Niagara in looking after his official duties. During the year 1,180 persons had been confirmed of whom 1,149 took their first communion. Seven churches had been consecrated. Then his lordship spoke of his duties in England and the raising of £2,000 toward the endowment of the new diocese of Ottawa on condition that a sum of £9,000 additional was raised before Dec. 31st, 1893. He hoped that the committee on the division of the diocese and the churchmen throughout the diocese might be stirred to exertion by the handsome but conditional grants from the brethren in England, and organize some machinery for a thorough canvass in order to the completion of the endowment fund for the new diocese. The addition of the district of Nipissing to the diocese made the necessity for a sub-division of the diocese more imperative than ever, and he would be glad to co-operate with the committee in their work, so far as he could consistently with the performance of his other duties. A QUARTER OF A CENTURY PASSED.

He reminded the brethern that on March 25th last he completed the twenty-fifth year of his episcopacy and continued :

"It is given to but few bishops to preside for so long a period over a diocese, since among the seventy-five colonial bishops, there are only three my seniors by consecration. Twenty-five years ago there were but fifty licensed clergy, parochial and missionary, in the diocese, now there are one hundred and twenty, while two new parishes or missons have been created every year. One hundred and fifty six new churches have been built within the same period. Sixtyone parsonages have been either built or purchased. Twenty-five thousand, two hundred and thirty-nine persons have been con firmed the vast majority of whom became communicants. There has been a marked improvement in the support given to the clergy, though it is still sadly inadequate. A sustentation fund amounting to $34,500 has been created, and the gradual growth of the trust funds administered by the synod, cannot but be considered satisfactorily when we compare the earliest financial reports of the Synod with that of the present year.

Referring to the growth of the church in England his lordship said the half had not been told. Everywhere he perceived earnestness, zeal and self-devotion, whether applied to church building, works of charity or activity in parochial organization, and that too amid commercial depression and agricultural disaster. He was enthusiastic over the jubilee demonstrations he had witnessed. The nation rejoiced before the Lord and its festivities and pagents were proceeded and sanctified by eucharistic joy Te Deums, general thanksgiving, culminating in the never to be-forgotten scene in Westminster Abbey, when the grandest choir in England seemed to be hugling the benedictions of the 20th Psalm on the honored head of the kneeling Queen. Reference was made to the earnestness shown in the work in the mother land. The same motives should be exemplified here "for," he added "we are of the same birth right, the same historic dignity and apostolic lineage and we are engaged in a work that may well inspire us with en- bishop again cut off discussion and demand- trust. thusiasm, the work of laying deep and strong the foundation of the church of England in the greatest of Britain's colonies." He urged the brethern to act on the principle that nothing has been done, while there remains anything to do; and so "Let us thank God and take courage."

HEARING THE REPORTS.

Rev. A. Spencer reported that $233.41 had been raised towards the erection of a jubilee cathedral at Halifax in honor of the consecration of the first bishop of Halifax.

The treasurer congratulated the synod on the sound state of its investments and said the changes effected by the late canon on the keeping and auditing of the synod accounts will prove highly beneficial. It has been found difficult of late to secure investments at as high a rate of interest as formerly, but as the downward tendency has been checked the rate will remain stationary or will gradually rise.

The registrar reported that since the date of his last report he has been unable to materially reduce the list of clergymen whose record is still incomplete, but hopes that those who have neglected to supply him with the desired information may do so shortly. That during the same period the names of ten persons have been added to the list of the clergy, while five have left the diocese. During the months of October and November, 1886, and February and June of 1887, the Bishop of Niagara administered confirmations in this diocese, when 748 persons were confirmed; four churches and one burial ground were also consecrated.

Rev. E. Loucks presented the report as to the episcopal trust fund showing that the mortgages and debentures on April 30th was $58,674.37.

Rev. E. P. Crawford reported that the capital of the clergy trust fund was at $262,-918.24; the estimated income for the ensuing year amounted to $15,209.10. Rev. A. W. Cooke's name was placed upon the list of annuitants, the surplus permitting this.

Rev. J. J. Bogart reported that the capital of the widows' and orphans' fund had been increased by $655.27. The estimated income for the year was $2,782.80; expenditure $2,520. There are eleven widows on | gratuity of $100 to Rev. T. G. Porter. He the fund drawing $200 each, with six orphans drawing a total of $240.

"We trust and pray," it continues, "that the day will not be far distant when in every parish a healthy, vigorous and fruit-bearing branch of the women's auxiliary will be found. Twenty-three parishes forgot the claims of the society last year. The deanery of Carleton headed the list, followed closely by Frontenac, Carleton, Frontenac, Grenville and Dundas, Hastings and Prince Edward, and Lanark, and Renfrew showed decided increases in the contributions, while Leeds exhibites a slight and Stormont, Lennox, and Addington a decided decrease. Ottawa gave $1,363.76 and Kingston $1,111.09; the rest of the diocese $1,454.72

DIOCESAN MISSION FUND. Archdeacon Lauder reported that for diocesan mission purposes $11,914 had been on the classification committee's report and raised and $10,258 expended. The board congratulated the diocese on the excellent financial position of the society, said the work done was of a most satisfactory character and goes on steadily. Manotic and North Gower had been made self sustaining, and Odessa, established as the centre of a mission, was granted $300. A clergyman had been placed at Wellington and a grant of $2(2) made to it owing to the unhappy condition of affairs in the parish of Hillier. The following new missions were formed and the grants given : Calabogie, $200; Shannonville, $150; Roslin and Queensboro, $125 each; and Madoc, $100. Regret was | $735.10; donations &il; the transfer of expressed that vacancies were allowed to remain so long, but this was owing to the inability to secure suitable clergymen. In closing the first quarter of a century the board felt that God had blessed its labors, and it hoped in the future for steady pro-

When this stage was reached his lordship pointed out that it was highly desirable that the suports should be discussed while there was a full attendance of members, and he therefore asked that the diocesan mission board's report be considered clause by clause. The archdeacon then began the work of presenting the items scria-

Rev. K L. Jenes questioned the proprie ty of congratulating the diocese on the prosperous condition of the mission funds. He was suspicious that the prosperity was due to the reduction of grants to missions and clergymen. The remarks stirred up the members of the board, the bishop saying that last year more money was paid out than Addington and the city of Kingston, while ever before. Rev. K. L. Jones replied that | thereturn made only accounted for 6,600. The that might be true for many new missions | city of Ottawa exceeds the census returns had been formed.

Rev. E.P. Crawford asserted that grants were not cut off without a year's notice, and | terest received for the year by the rectory then be added that many missions cut off | lands committee was $12,576, and the total did better without aid, for the people were amount paid the clergy $10,824.29; the instimulated to do their duty and raise the | terest on the investments netted 54 per needed amount. The work of the board was cent. most carefully considered and the board dealt justly and fairly with all the clergy to-day, in a missionary sense, than any other diocese in Canada.

Rev. Mr. Codd claimed that he had suffered by the action of the mission board by the improper cutting off of grants.

A. J. Matheson laid the blame of the lopping off of grants upon the rural deans. was on their recommendations that the deed was done.

The bishop stopped the desultory conversation. He could not permit further discussion without an amendment. Business ed it well to pass a declaratory canon and could not be done in such a fashion. Archdeacon Morrison, of Ogdensburg, was invited to take a seat on the platform and as he advanced to it was heartily applauded. Rev. K. L. Jones was on his feet again with an amendment asking that the congratulatory passage be eliminated. Amid laughter the amendment was lost. THE RURAL DEANS ATTACKED. Rev. Mr. Jarvis moved an amendment that an endeavour be made to restore the 10 per cent. reduction made some time ago in the grants given to clergymen, but it did not prevail. Rev. Samuel Daw declared that the rural deans did not do their duty. The fault was more on their shoulders than on the mission board. This remark stirred up the deans. They were much annoyed. Rev. Mr. Bogart asked if any one ever knew him not to visit a parish when requested. Rev. Mr. Codd said he had and then he told the circumstances, but they were not alarming. The ed that the consideration of the report be continued. Rev. J. A. Morris, when the unhappy condition of the state of Hillier was men tioned, made a strong address against the clergyman there, and moved that a committee be appointed to consider the facts of the case and report to the bishop.

C. F. Gildersleeve thought the scandal had had long enough life and should now be stopped. There was a general feeling that something should be done in the premises. There was objection to tacking on Mr. Morris' resolution to the mission report and after many points of order had been taken, it was finally decided to suspend the rules and let the resolution appear on the minutes alone. The synod concurred.

His lordship said he would at once issue a commission under the Church Discipline

YOUNG MEN ARE NEEDED.

When the subject of a lack of young men for the mission fields cam'e up Archdeacon Jones made a strong appeal in favour of the colleges and claimed that the failure in not influencing young men to work for Christ was due to a lack of interest and love on the part of the clergymen. He strongly placed the matter before the clergymen and laymen urging them to endeavour to so instruct the young men that many of them would be found willing to enter the ministry and work for Christ. If more attention was paid to this matter the colleges would soon be filled with christian youths and the supply would be ample.

The bishop said there was need for young men for he could now place twelve in fields that were crying for help.

Rev. A. C. Nesbitt urged that fathers should inculcate into their sons a desire to enter the church of Christ, The best boy in the family should be devoted to such

Dr. Wilson brought up the question of a asserted that he had no claim on the board. The clergyman was only one year in the diocese and was now incapacitated owing to all he could to support his family. Rev. A. C. Nesbitt disavowed being ungenerous, but held it was time that the mission board shut down on sustaining pensioners. He held that the money raised should be spent upon those who iabored, for it was for such persons that the money was subscribed. If the board continued to support pensioners he would decline to raise any more missionary funds from his people. "Shame! Shame!" cried Rev. Mr. Spencer, but the speaker said he was not ashamed to declare his intentions.

Rev. E. P. Crawford was sorry to hear Mr. Nesbitt threaten the synod. He thought the metter should be fought out in the Archdeacon Lander said the pension was not in the mission board's report. It was had reference to the pensions granted for the present year, not last year.

Rev. Mr. Spencer, in answer to a question, said that a quarter of the grant had been paid.

Then the hour for adjournment came and the matter was held over for future consideration.

Wednesday Morning Session.

The Synod resumed at 10 o'clock. Rev. H. Pollard presented the report of the clergy superannuation fund, showing that the collections for the year amounted to Rev. Mr. Shannon's fund $681.11; subscriptions of clergy $240,50; a total of $1,717.7d. The clergy and laymen were urged to make the claims of the fund known so that wealthy church people might be led to remember it in the charitable disposal of their property. Only fifty-three clergymen are connected with the organization.

Rev. E. H. M. Baker reported that two students had been aided from the divinity students' fund, and to the amount of $100 each. The invested capital reaches $5,400. Dr. Smythe presented the report of the statistical committee, which, through the neglect of the officials on parishes and missions, was rendered very incomplete. In 82 parishes and missions there were 39,721 members. The total membership was estimated at 45,000. The value of 160 churches reported was $568,430, and the amount of insurance $195,200. The census returns of 1881 showed a church population of 13,537 in the counties of Frontenac, Lennox and Various notices of motions were presented. These will be put in print and discussed later. The consideration of the mission board report was then resumed. Dr. Smythe moved that the grant to Stafford be increased to $250. There was considerable opposition. Some thought that it should be cut down instead of increased. The resolution was lost.

When the case of Rev. Mr. Porter came up again, Rev. A. C. Nesbitt withdrew his threat made yesterday. He made it, he said, in the heat of debate.

Archdeacon Jones said that the board did not stand strictly on principle. It erred on the side of charity. He strongly urged the grant to his disabled brother.

The Match Yesterday at Boston-The Nutional League Club Leading in Fielding, Batting and Base Stealing-Other Sporting Events.

BOSTON, Oct. 18. - The eighth game in the world's championship series between the St. Louis and Detroit base ball teams, was played in this city to-day, and was easily won by the Detroit men. Carruthers was not nearly as effective as usual and the Wolverines kept the ball going all over the field, their batting throughout the contest being very heavy. The St. Louis players fielded very brilliantly at times, but generally their playing was loose. Carruthers fielded his position splendidly. Robinson did fine work with the stick making three two base hits but he was the only one of the visitors who struck the ball hard. He was presented, when he first went to the bat with a fine gold headed cane by his Boston friends. Thompson's two home runs were features. The errors of the Detroits were two unimportant ones by Ganzel. White's third base play was superb. About 4,000 people witnessed the game. The score is :

A Canadian League Suggested.

Some days ago Mr. R. J. Eilbeck received a letter from Mr. Hobbs, of London, asking for an expression of opinion as to the desire of Kingston base ballers to enter a Canadian league next year. The writer intimated hat he had written the ball players of several places, and that the responses, being favourable, a meeting would be held and the league discussed. Mr. Eilbeck, asked about the matter to-day, said: "I took counsel with several gentlemen and prospective holders of stock in a base ball club and as a result-I have written to London that Kingston can be counted on having a good team on these conditions: (1), A limit to the salaries paid; (2), a fixed and a rea sonable railway fare. I think that London, Hamilton, Guelph and Foronto can be induced to enter the league in the west, and Belleville, Kingston, Ottawa and Montreal in the east. I have suggested that, circumstances warranting, such a meeting be held in Kingston, on account of its central location. If this scheme goes on Kingston will have a good club next year, and the players will be secured during the winter and put in the field early in the season."

General Ball Notes.

Mike Kelly's salary of $4,300 will suffer no reduction next year.

Arson, of the Chicagos, was presented with a $500 diamond stud by his admirers. Carruthers won $200 from Getzein in the first game for the world's championship. It cost Oshkosh $20,000 to win the Northwestern championship and the Spaulding Manager Hackett, of last season's Newark, will have charge of the Syracuse Stars next season. The receipts of the Detroit St. Louis games are to be divided on a basis of 75 per cent, to the winner and 25 per cent, to the loser on the series.

Foot-Ball in Montreal. The Herald, speaking of Monday's football match in Montreal, says: "The play on both sides yesterday was excellent, the cadets having the worst of the luck although for individual play they excelled. Gunn especially won well-merited applause from everyone, by his long kicking and running. Cayley, who hurt his leg badly on Saturday, played well under the circumstances. Kerr, as usual, was a host in himself, and the forwards at times worked well together. It seemed on several occasions as though the cadets lagged just as they were on the ball, and let the Brits in, where they might, by a little extra exertion, have lessened materially the difference of the result. Three minutes before time it was very dark, and the cadets managed to keep the play in centre, where it remained until Mr. Black called "no side." The score standing: Britannias, 14; cadets, 1. The cadets were none the worse, all round, for their trip, which all seemed to have thoroughly enjoyed. It may be mentioned that there was one change in the cadets' team yesterday, Grant taking Hamilton's place."

Garrett as a Foot Baller.

We find the following in the Mail, relative to the performance (in the foot ball match, Toronto 'Varsity vs. Queen's,)of the late second baseman of the Kingston base ball club: "Garrett is a back of great promise. He is splendidly built, cool, quick, strong, and a lightning dodger. His playing on Saturday is the talk of the college, and most people will hardly believe that he has only played Rugby twice before. As soon as he learns the game a little better and knows just what to do and when to do it it may be expected that he will play a game equal to that played by Alex. Henderson at his palmiest." Enquiry was made as to Garrett's connection with the base ball club. Had he joined it as a professional he would have been objectionable as a foot baller and the decision of the game might have been affected by his addition to the Toronto

A Quebec exchange says that in the past week golfers were hard at work. Not only were the matches for the Chaloner-Smith cup and the championship decided, but additional interest was given to the play by the presentation of a handsome silver cup by Mr. James Stevenson for under handicap. In the Chaloner-Smith cup the final tie was between Mayor Short and Mr. Thompson and resulted in faver of the former. The result was rather a surprise, as the winer had only joined the club this season. The mayor does everything well and his victory was a very popular one.
