FUNERAL OF DR. NELLES.

Impressive and Solemn Ceremonies - An Immense Procession.

COBourg, Oct. 19. - All Cobourg is in mourning for the death of Rev. S. S. Nelles, the father of Victoria College. The funeral procession moved from the college buildings at 3 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of citizens and prominent men from all parts of the dominion.

The senators alumni and students of the college assembled in their respective halls at 2:30. A quarter of an hour later Rev. Dr. McWilliams, pastor of the Division St. Methodist church, conducted a service at the family residence.

The procession moved from the house to the Division street Methodist church in the following order: The physicians, the officiating clergymen, the professors of the faculty of arts as bearers, the body, the mourners, the students, the alumni, the senate and representatives of sister universities, the clergy, members of parliament, the civic corporations and the citizens. As the long sombre procession of carriages, holding many men famed in the worlds of religion, literature and politics passed through the streets of the stricken town it was watched by hundreds of mourners.

At the Division street church service was conducted by Rev. Dr. J. A. Williams and Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendents of the Methodist church, and Rev. Dr. Potts, secretary of education. Rev. Prof. Reynar, M.A., delivered an obituary address on the life and services of the deceased. The procession moved from the church to the grave in the former order. Rev. Dr. Williams read the funeral service while the body was being laid at rest. Queen's college was represented by Profs. Mowat and Williamson.

For the present at Victoria university the duties of late Chancellor Nelles will be assumed by Vice-Chancellor Kerr, and Prof. Wilson will discharge the duties of president of the faculty until his successor is appointed.

Additional Particulars About the Conflagration - Advantage of Having Water.

NAPANEE, Oct. 19th. - The premises in which the fire occurred last night belong to the Rennie estate and consisted of a three-story brick building occupied by various merchants. The business of A. Rose & Co. was managed by W. A. Rose, license inspector. All the parties were doing a good business, and had only recently completed their stocks for the fall and winter trade.

The fire appears to have started in the brick building, but speedily communicated to the frame and doomed the whole. The firemen worked nobly, pouring two streams from the Ronald engine on the flames and adjacent property. Fortunately one hydrant of the new water works system was available and supplied the necessary stream for the effective preservation of the surrounding buildings.

The Express printing office was considerably damaged, and R. A. Shorey's grocery was damaged by water. Across the street the plate glass windows of the Cornell House were broken by the heat, and the windows and front of the splendid new Harshaw block were also damaged. These incidental losses are covered by insurance. The total loss will be about $40,000. Rose & Co. were insured for $7,000 on stock, Lahey, McKenty & Co. for $9,000 on stock, and J. H. Gallagher for $1,000 on stock. These are more or less heavy losers by the event. J. C. Drewry, of the Express, is probably insured for enough to cover his loss.

CAN'T CATCH THE OLD MAN. Mr. Gladstone Will Not be Drawn Into a Trap - His Last Speech.

LONDON, Oct. 20. - Mr. Gladstone, in a speech at Nottingham last evening said: "In regard to the Ulster question, often pressed upon me by Lord Hartington and other gentlemen of importance, I tell you fairly gentlemen, I am not, with my eyes open, going to be drawn into a trap. (Laughter.) When I am asked at this juncture, without knowing the sentiments of my own friends or of the English, Scotch and Welsh people, or of the people of Leinster, Munster, Connaught and Ulster, to bind myself to the proposal that Ulster, or a part of Ulster, shall be absolutely excluded from any Irish settlement I tell you that is rather too large a demand upon the credulity or even the folly of a man." (Laughter, and cheers.) He expressed his determination to leave this matter an open question as on the introduction of the home rule proposal.

IDENTITY AT LAST ESTABLISHED. The Rahway Mystery Partly Cleared Up - The Work of the Detectives.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 20. - The detectives have at last established the identity of the woman mysteriously murdered at Rahway several months ago. She was Mrs. Annie Ingram, who, two years ago, came to America from Birmingham, England. The last seen of her was when she left Boundbrook where she was employed as a domestic. While in the latter place she became acquainted with a man to whom she was married on Dec. 8th but she left her husband the next morning and went to Philadelphia, leaving all her effects behind. The man disappeared a few days later and has not been seen since. Who he is the officers refuse to say. Shortly before she was murdered the woman returned here, and remained a short time at the United States hotel, but disappeared suddenly and was not seen again. The detectives expect to arrest their man by midnight.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

A MEETING REMARKABLE FOR THE CALMNESS OF THE AIR.

Receiving the Reports of Committees and Disposing of Them - Settling up the Accounts of the Central School-Teachers' Convention at Toronto - Temperance in the Schools.

A special meeting of the school board was held last evening. A communication was read from F. Cassidy, asking for the use of premises on Division street, occupied by Mrs. Clark, for a club room. - Tabled.

The report of the school property committee was discussed clause by clause and adopted. It recommended that instead of removing the partition in the hall room up stairs in the Central school the southeast room in the basement of the building be heated and occupied by the teachers-in-training, and the money appropriated for the removal of the partition be used for this purpose. The committee and the architect having examined a bill of extras from A. McCartney, contractor, recommended that he be paid the claim as certified, $113.84. The committee is of the opinion that the contractor should be charged the sum of $192.50, the actual amount paid by the board for rent since Dec. 1st, 1886, incurred on account of the delay in completing the school building. But believing that the contractor has not profited by the contract, and having made a good job of the building, it is urged that McCartney receive the difference between his charges for extras, $113.84, and the board's bill for rent, $192.50. The secretary was instructed to ask the city council to have a six foot walk laid in front of the new Central school. On enquiry the committee found that there was a quantity of clay in the street adjacent to Louise school which could be had for removing, and as the lot in front of this school needs filling up and leveling, the committee asked for the necessary power to have the work done.

The secretary reported that he had received $15.25 from non-resident pupils for September.

As the members of the school management committee had not signed a report sanctioned by them, and which was to have been presented to the board for adoption, the chairman, Mr. Shaw, had to submit it in the form of resolutions. The motions are as follows:

"That in answer to Mr. McRossie's communication, on the use of a text book on temperance in the public schools, the teachers be instructed to teach temperance by lecture, as laid down in the regulations."

"That W. Arneil be paid $16 for services as caretaker of St. Paul's school house."

"That the secretary acknowledge the receipt of the minutes of the meeting Provincial association of public and high school trustees."

"That the chairman be a delegate to the meeting of the provincial association of public and high school trustees in November in Toronto, his expenses to be defrayed by the board."

"That fifty pupils be placed in the school room on Division street and that forty-five be transferred to the room in the Queen street school, occupied by Miss Tandy, as soon as her class is placed in the Central school; Miss Barry to take charge of the class placed in the Division street building and Miss Gertie Purdy, the Queen street school class."

The board adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

LONDON, Oct. 20. - The people of London West were startled yesterday by an elopement - Miss Vadden, daughter of Mr. Wm. Vadden, shoemaker, and George Moore, who leaves a wife and five children. A week ago Miss Vadden announced her intention of visiting a Mrs. Rogers in the country, and on Saturday started off. The same afternoon Mr. Moore left ostensibly to visit an uncle at Port Stanley. Miss Vadden's parents, after her departure, finding all her clothes, etc., gone, had their suspicions aroused, and on Monday a messenger was despatched to the place she was visiting. It was learned that she had never been there at all. A telegram to Mr. Moore's uncle at Port Stanley brought the same reply. The woman is about 30 years of age, small, and not over good looking. WONG CHIN FOO'S HISTORY.

A Man of Varied Experience - An Exile From China to the End of Time.

Mr. Royal, a returned missionary from China, writing in the St. Louis Christian Advocate, says: "Unless I am mistaken Wong Chin Foo is merely an old and well known case of 'cockies' instead of barley." He is Wong Sac Kee, once of Teng Chow, China, picked up on the street by a kind-hearted lady, adopted and treated as her son, educated in the hope of making a Baptist minister out of him, falling back into wickedness - if, indeed, he had ever gotten out of it - and going back to China, neglecting his parents, plotting against the government, escaping by the ill-judged kindness and help of missionaries and other foreigners, and finally turning up in New York as a writer for the Independent, Christian Advocate World, and other papers."

NOTTINGHAM CONFERENCE.

Ovations Given the Liberal Leader - The Planks in His Party's Platform.

LONDON, Oct. 20. - The conference of the liberal federation at Nottingham resolved that when the Irish question is settled the disestablishment of the church in Wales shall be made the leading point of the policy of the liberal party. The congress also adopted a resolution in favor of a reform of the franchise so that one man shall have only one vote. It was decided to hold a meeting of the federation at an early date in Ireland.

The chairman, Ald. Gripper, declared that the government's attempt on the liberties of the Irish people was not intended to end there. It meant to go farther and interfere with the liberties of Englishmen.

Resolutions welcoming Mr. Gladstone, expressing confidence in his leadership, and declaring that the congress anticipates an early settlement of the Irish question on his lines of policy, were carried amid tremendous cheering.

Mr. Gladstone made a visit to the Congregation institute. Crowds lined the streets through which is carriage passed and he was heartily cheered. Mr. Gladstone made an address in which he said that the anxieties of the present were greatly mitigated by the conviction that the work of the liberal party aimed at peace. He trusted that it was not profane to say that the Prince of Peace would bless their efforts.

In the evening Mr. Gladstone, while driving to the rink, was enthusiastically greeted by the throngs that lined the route. At the rink he received an ovation from 8,000 persons. In a speech he said he would bodily sweep away the law of entail, condemn the revival of the phantasy of protection, urged the extension of local government in the direction of decentralization and said that these, together with the questions of the liquor traffic and disestablishment of the Church of Scotland and Wales, could not be touched until a sound adjustment had been effected in regard to Ireland.
