A Man Starves Five Days.

Petoskey, Mich., Oct. 26 .- N. Phillips, Grand Rapids, landed on Hat Island, Lake Michigan, about two weeks ago. While looking over the uninhabited place he was alarmed to see his craft break loose from its moorings and float out of sight. After remaining on the island four days without food he determined to make a raft and put out in the lake. Bits of boards and driftwood formed his materials, and after fastening them together he launched the raft. A fisherman happened to sight the raft, and when he reached it Mr. Phillips was nearly dead from hunger and exhaustion. "

THE DEPUTATION TO OTTAWA AND WHAT THEY ASKED FOR.

The Railway Crossings in This City and Vicinity Are to be Protected-Life and Property Will Soon Re Out of Danger

-The Action of the Bailway Committee. Yesterday the members of the delegation sent to Ottawa from this district, to interview the government with reference to getting better protection at the railway cross ings, met the railway committee. Those who composed the commission were Messrs. Clyde, J. M. Fair, M. Greaves, J. McIntyre, Q.C., and H. Wilmot, M.P.P. They were very successful in their mission, and will get the protection they desire. The K. & P. R. company will, at its own expense, make a new crossing for the use of farmers and others near the old freight sheds, at right angles with Ontario street, and on a line with Cataraqui bridge, extending to King street. The minister of militia will be ask ed to remove the barrack gate, which at present curtails the width of Ontario street, and put it in line with the barrack wall.

Application will be made to the city council for the removal of the telegraph poles from Ontario street, at the points at least where they impede travel. At the lower Grand Trunk depot improvements will be made to the railway crossing. The rails will be raised and placed on an iron bridge, under which the people can drive with safety. The company will build a bridge which will cost it $7,000. The expense of making the approaches on each side of it will be borne by the public. Cataraqui a man to signal the approaching trains will be placed. He will do duty night and day, and his salary will be borne equally by the company and the public. crossing or bridge will be built at Collinsby (for public convenience) over the railway track. The expense of this improvement will be borne by the company, but the making of the approaches will be paid for by the public. At the meeting of the committee the members present were Messrs, Pope, Thompson, Chapleau and Carling. Mr. McIntyre, Q.C., appeared for the petitioners of Frontenac and urged that the present crossings were dangerous and that that they had caused many fatal accidents. At Ottawa the deputation met B. W. Folger who showed them great courtesy and helped them greatly in their work. To him they extend their highest appreciation of his public spirit and regard for the safety of life and property. They also extend their warm thanks to Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick and J. McIntyre, Q. C. for the able assistance they rendered to the delegates.

Another Account of the Trip.

OTTAWA, Oct. 26. - Yesterday was a very busy day at Ottawa before the railway committee of the privy council. The committee was composed of the Hon. Mr. Pope, minister of railways; Hon. Mr. Thompson, minister of justice; Hon. Mrs Chapleau, secretary of state; and Hon. Mr. Cailing, minister of agriculture. The committee has, by recent legislation, been invested with increased powers to compel railways to provide better protection to the public. A very large delegation from Toronto and Hamilton arrived to prosecute certain claims before the com-

The deputation from the county of Frontenac, to urge the necessity of providing additional security on the several crossings adjacent to the city, was accompanied by Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick, M.P., and Mr. John McIntyre, Q.C. Mr. Kirkpatrick skilfully secured a first hearing for the deputation. Mr. McIntyre, Q.C., presented the case for the petitioners. He referred at length to the crossings which imperatively demanded the intervention of the committee, namely the crossings at the Tete de Pont barracks, at the outer station, at Cataraqui and Collinsby. He produced a compilation of the records of accidents which had occured at several of these crossings. He referred to the presentments grand juries at the different assizes, the verdict of coroners juries, to the strong opinions of medical gentlemen accustomed to travel over these crossings, to the manifest inconvenience of the shunting which took place at the lower station, to the awkward situation of the Tete de Pont crossings. Mr. Kirkpatrick also urged the necessity of some remedial measures. The case of the railway companies interested, the G T. R. and K. & P. R., was presented by Mr. John Bell, Q.C., the G. T. R. solicitor and Mr. E. P. Hanneford, chief engineer, and Mr. B. W. Folger and T. W. Nash, engineer. The result of the application was as follows:

(1.) As to the Tete de Pont crossing, the gate at the barracks will be removed and the wall straightened, thus making more room on Ontario street; also the road from the township of Pittsburg will be continued in a straight line to King street, the K. & P. railway to construct the necessary embankments for that purpose.

(2.) At the outer station, the Grand Trunk to have a crossing erected lower down than the present one, and the Montreal road to be straightened to the east, thus getting over the inconvenience caused by the present shunting. (3.) At Collinsby, the Grand Trunk to erect an overhead crossing.

(4.) At Cataraqui a man to be stationed, the expense to be borne equally by the G. T. R. and the road company. The deputation expressed its satisfaction with the result of their visit: Much of the danger to be constantly apprehended from these points will be over-

SPORTNG INTELLIGENCE.

Securing Players for Next Year-A change Around of Some of the Stars.

Norman Baker, Toronto, thinks of going south again next season. Pitcher Shaw, of the Jersey Citys, has igned with Baltimore. Harry Spence, of last season's Portlands, will manage the Brooklyn club. Boston is said to have secured Pitcher Clarkson, paying $7,500 for him. Pitcher Smith, Charleston, and Catcher Trailley, Toronto, have paired as a battery. Both are at home in Baltimore.

Manager Mutrie, of the New York baseball club, has signed Elmer E. Foster, the star of the North-Western league.

In 1881 Comiskey, captain of the St. Louis Browns, was engaged for $75 a month. In 1882 he got $100, and in 1887 $3,600 for the season. The International next season will have a silver trophy to play for similar to that contested for in the North-Western league this season. Spalding Bros, are the donors. The Washington team is willing to enter the American association in place of Brooklyn and allow the latter to go into the league. This would be advantageous to Washington. Jay Faatz, of the Toronto team, says that he and Alberts, the short-stop of the same team, have signed with Cleveland. Catcher Buckley, of last year's Stars, says that he has signed with Indianapolis. Anson says that the offer of $15,000 by Mr. Nimick, of the Pittsburg club, is no iaducement for him to leave Chicago, where he expects to spend the balance of his baseball days. John Rainey has not been reserved by New York and will possibly be back in Hamilton next year. He is still the property of the National league, but having been let go by New York will not likely be taken up by any other clubs, all of which have third bases filled already.

Anson laughs at the story that he will be sold. He said: "It's a poor year when can't make $15,000 where I am now, and it would take more money than that to purchase my release. This much is certain. am well satisfied where I am, and it is probable I shall spend the remainder of my baseball days in Chicago. I am satisfied with the city and with the club. Charles Rowell, the famous long-distance pedestrian, was charged in the Cambridge county petty sessions, on Oct. 1, with cruelly ill-treating a mare pony by over-driving the same. Rowell agreed upon a wager to drive the pony from Chesterton to the eleventh mile stone at Stretham on the road to Ely. four times over the course, a distance of about forty miles, in three hours. There were five magistrates presiding. Rowell was found guilty and sentenced to pay 20shillings and costs, which was a light sentence indeed.

Detroit Pulls Through Again.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25. -St. Louis should have beaten Detroit to-day, but somehow or other did not. The hits of the Browns were so scattered that they did not count. Rich. ardson's three base hit and Thompson's sin gle came in in the same inning, and between them two men got bases on errors, so there were three runs for Detroit in one lump. Ganzell made another run in the fifth inning. Only about 400 persons braved the rheumatism and kindred terrors to witness the game. The score is:

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN.

Meeting in His Honor-He Makes a Speech

-a Newspaper's Opinion. LONDON, Oct. 25 .- A meeting was held at Islington to day in honor of Joseph Chamberlain. Resolutions were adopted expressing satisfaction at his appointment to the fisheries commission, and the trust that he would be successful in his announced intention to promote harmony and good will between the United States and England. Mr. Chamberlain replied that he appreciated this reference to the honorable and important mission upon which he would embark in the course of a few days. He was well aware that the task was full of difficulty. The question was a complicated one, and it involved enormous interests. (Cries o "Hear!" "Hear!") On several occasions during the present century it had gone far toward endangering the amicable relations existing between the two great branches of the Anglo-Saxon race, whose cordial amity must be the earnest desire of every friend of peace and civilization. (Cheers ) Unfortuntely the difficulties in his way were not those inherent in the case or directly involved in the issue to be decided. The foreign office has issued a circular announcing that Mr. Chamberlain will depart for Washington early in November, and will be accompanied by Mr. Bergne, superintendent of the treaty department, and Mr. Maycock, another attache of the foreign of-

ANOTHER DISTURBANCE AT CORK

Mr. Dillon in the Middle of it-Reading the Riot Act to the Mob.

CORK, Oct. 26. - When Mr. Dillon was on his way to the station yesterday, to take the train for Dublin, he was followed by a crowd singing, "God Save Ireland." While the procession was passing the King street barracks the police charged upon the crowd, using their batons freely. Mr. Dillon was about to deliver an address from his carriage when Magistrate Gardner, who was in command of the police, read the Riot act. The mayor protested against this hasty action on the part of the magistrate. On the advice of Mr. Dillon, Dr. Tanner and the mayor the crowd dispersed without making any further demonstration. Messrs. Cox, Tanner, Healey and other members of parliament were present. Mr. Dillon burned a copy of the government proclamation.

HANGING OF THE ANARCHISTS.

Preparations for the Sad Event Going on

-The Shrouds and Caps. CHICAGO, Oct. 25. - Moses Solomon, one of the counsel for the anarchists, telegraphed his clients from Washington last evening that there was little hope that a writ of error would be granted by the supreme court and that the whole matter would come back to the state to rest with the governor. The seven men held a conference as soon as they were liberated and seemed to to feel more depressed than at any time since they were incarcerated. Parsons admitted that Solomon's despatch destroyed their last hope, and they were ready for anything. Nina Van Zant was present when the news came. Spies told her the contents of the message. "Well, if you die," said Nina, "you will not die alone. I will go into the grave with you. Lingg shed tears, and the wife of Engel, who was present, was almost prostrated by the news. CHICAGO, Oct. 26. - Preparations are being silently made for the hanging of the anarchists on Nov. 11th. The sheriff has decided to limit the number of those to be present to a very few representatives of the press and only to others that the law requires. It is said that Governor Oglesby will grant the condemned men a brief respite to prepare them for death. The women inmates have been requested, by a jail official, to help to make the shrouds and caps to be used at the execution. CHICAGO, Oct. 26. - The central detective force, composed of thirty patrolmen, in citizens' clothes, has been reinforced by six expert officers. This increase results from the apprehensions of the public concerning the coming date of the anarchists' execution. ## TRIAL OF MR. BLUNT.

LONDON, Oct. 25. - The trial of Mr. Blunt

He Was Assaulted by Some One-Objections of the Defence Overruled.

opened this morning at Woodford. Mr. Ronan appeared as counsel for the prosecution, and Mr. Harrington, M.P., for the defence. Mr. Harrington objected to the constitution of the court on the ground that the magistrates lacked special authority from the viceroy to hold an adjourned court. The objection was overruled. Mr. Harrington then applied for summonses against magistrate Byrne for assault upon Mr. Blunt. Discussion on this point was postponed. Mr. Byrne was called to the witness stand. He testified that he warned Mr. Blunt twice on the platform at the meeting on Sunday to desist from speaking, but he went on all the same. Witness did not see anybody assault Mr. Blunt, but before he gave the order for his arrest he found him lying on the ground and Lady Blunt lying over him.
