bett buch the many of Commerce. in the new York the matter to the matter the United the Demission of Canada recently the following letter on the subject

TORONTO, Nov. 7, 1887. DEAR SIR, -In reply to your letter of Nov. , let me assure you that I deem it agreat honor to be invited to express inv views on the subject of a Commercial Union between Canada and the United States to a committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York.

rom Post Goldwin Smith:

The advantages of continental free trade to Canada are too manifest to require demonstration. In her soil, her forests, her waters, and her mines she has natural products far in excess of her own wants, which seek access to the continental market. She has also a fund of labor of the best quality, which the development of these resources would employ. She would, at the same time, greatbenefit by the importation of those manufactured articles which she cannot produce for herself, or which can be better or more cheaply produced in the wealthier and more scientific country.

To the United States Commercial Union would bring the full enjoyment of all the natural wealth of Canada, which American capital would develop, as well as an extended market for American manufactures. That Canada at present, with her resources imperfeetly developed, is not so rich as the United States, forms no reason for believing that the union with her would not be profitable. Scotland at the time of her union with England was a comparatively poor country, yet the union proved highly profitable to both parties.

It is impossible to look at the map of this continent without seeing that exclusion of the Canadian provinces, geographically identified with it as they severally are, from a commercial pale, is a struggle against nature and a renunciation of the benefits which she proffers to the continent as an economical whole. Each of the four blocks of Canadian territory-the Maritime Provinces; old Canada, comprising Ontario and Quebec; the newly-opened region of the Northwest, and British Columbia, is inseparably connected by commercial bonds with the states of the Union adjoining it to the south, while those states reciprocally have in them their natural complement and partner.

By Commercial Union the fisheries question would be settled, and it is difficult to see how it can be settled satisfactorily and permanently in any other way.

It is hoped also that a part of the arrangement would be such an extension of the Extradition Treaty as would relieve the continent from the incentive furnished to commercial dishonesty by the existence of an asylum for fugitives from justice on each side of the

The movement in favor of Commercial Union among the Canadian people has been perfectly spontaneous. Their thoughts having been turned by the fisheries dispute and some other circumstances to their commercial relations with their neighbors, the conviction that unrestricted reciprocity is their true interest had impressed itself upon their minds, and spreading rapidly without the aid of organized agitation or wirepulling of any kind. Out of 30 Farmers' Institutes in the province 28 have declared, and as a rule unanimously, in favor of Commercial Union, one only being adverse, and one being still in suspense. Our Commercial Union Club in this city has just been formed in response to repeated solicitations, and to supply a manifest need. Those connected with the great natural industries of the country-the farmers, the miners, the lumbermen and the fishermen seem to be almost unanimous in favor of the scheme. The commercial opposition appears to consist of those among our manufacturers who think they have reason to fear American competition, the banks which have advanced them capital, and a certain number of whole sale houses, the manufacturers, being better organized and more political than those who are connected with the natural industries. The opposition appears more powerful than it really is, and the aspect is rendered yet more imposing by its concentration in the great cities. But our leading journals advocate Commercial Union. That the boon of Free Trade with our own continent, if fairly offered to the Canadian people, would be ac cepted, there can, I think, be no serious

The difficulty and the danger of miscarriage arise in this, as in similar cases, chiefly from the entanglement of a commercial question vitally affecting the material interests of the entire people with questions of party politics to which it has no relation, and with the struggles of political leaders for power and place. Were it possible to submit the subject divested of party influences to a convention composed of commercial representatives of each State of the Union and of each of the provinces of Canada, with instructions to frame a plan for submission to the Legislatures, there would be more hope of a result in accordance with the real interests and wishes of commerce and industry on both sides of the line. GOLDWIN SMITH.

ENGLISH IPRESS OPINION.

It Deals With the London Riots-Doing The Government a Favour.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The morning Post, commenting on the riot, says it hopes this will be the last attempt to resist those upon whom the preservation of the lives and property of the citizens mainly depends.

The Daily News says: "We may congratulate ourselves that the trouble ended in nothing worse than broken heads. This fact speaks volumes for the mutual forbear-ance of the people and the crowd. The ALEX. ROSS, proceedings can be for nothing but the political interest of the tories, and if they could make the country believe that the liberals were the allies of lawlessness and disorder they would be secure in office and power if for another general election."

The Daily Telegraph says: "The history of the metropolis presents few sadder pictures than that exhibited yesterday. It is absurd to talk of the right of meeting and speeches being assailed. It never has been for an instant in jeopardy. The power of agitators and rioters must be summarily checked or the fatal contagion of anarchy will be sure to spread."

The Daily Chronicle thinks the police acted with forbearance "We cannot," it adds, "justify the action of the paraders, but the chief.blame rests with the authorities for provoking a conflict by the invasion of a long-cherished public right."

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to the taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best ! known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other

I Found It a Sure Cure. I have been troubled with catarrhal deafness for seven or eight years with a roaring noise in my head. I bought medicine in 13 states but nothing helped me till I procured a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. In four days I could hear as well as ever. I am cured of the catarrh as well. I consider Ely's Cream Balm the best medicine ever made. -Garrett Widrick, Hastings, N.Y.

I have used Ely's Cream Balm for dry catarrh (to which every eastern person subject who comes to live in a high altitude. It has proved a cure in my case. -B. F. M. Weeks, Denver, Col.

Not Qualified to Speak.

"Did you ever smoke eigarettes, sir " in quired the young man, in response to a lecture on the evils of cigarette smoking which had just been administered to him.

"No, sir," declared the old gentleman, "Never!

"Then," said the young man, with enjoyment, as he blew the smoke from his eyes, ears, nose, and mouth, "you don't know what you are talking about."

Try And Be Cured.

Lame back and nervous debility, associated with rheumatism, is sometimes met with in every day life, but as a rule we find not more than two of these complaints in the same party. Be this as it may. The only sure and perfect cure is electricity and the best form of administering it is by Norman's electric belts and insoles. W. J. Wilson is agent, and from him you can procure testimonials and circulars relating to any of your complaints.

Cured by B.B.B. Mr. Samuel Allan, of Lisle, Ont., states that he tried all the doctors in his locality while suffering for years with liver and kidney trouble; nothing benefitted him until he took Burdock Blood Bitters, four bottles of which cured him.

thing but a ten dollar bill." At the supper table she made the same re-

I havn't a cent," he replied. "Why didn't you get that ten-dollar bill broken, John? she inquired. "I did" he answered with an intonation of

The Modus Operandi.

The mode of operating of Burdock Blood Bitters is that it acts at once and the same time upon the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and the blood, to cleanse, regulate and strengthen. Hence its almost universal value in chronic complaints.
