WESTBBOOK. Dec. 21. - A serious fire was prevented on the evening of the 14th inst., in the old Methodist church by the arrival of plenty of assistance. It was due to the falling of a chandelier. Had it fallen on the night of the concert a very sad and appalling disaster could not have possibly been avoided. As it was the floor and seats adjacent were charred and the chandelier demolished. The cause of the accident was due to a ball becoming loosened from turning around. A runaway ac ident occurred on Monday noon. Mr. and Mrs. Claxton were at the city from Odessa with a spirited animal hitched to a dog cart. When nearly opposite the store of Joseph Cooke the animal became frightened at some small children, shied suddenly into the ditch, throwing both occupants out. It ran over a mile wrecking the vehicle and injuring itself. Mr. Claxton sustained bruise on his hand and hip. Mrs. Claxton escaped unhurt having fallen just beside a large sharp boulder. - The Brown-Joyner-Smith ticket is likely to receive good support. -Mr. Etherington, of the Grand Trunk RR., is home for Xmas. - The family Xmas dinner is to be held at Thomas Sproule's on the 26th. - The gifts from a well-laden Xmas tree will be distributed on the night of the 26th. -Another of our residents has display. ed an emblem as being a knight of the "razor." His remains were placed in the vault at Farmersville. -- Mrs. A. Flood has lately been called to the death bed of her LOOK OUT FOR COLD WEATHER! father, Daniel O'Connor. The deceased gentleman resided for a few years in this village, about sixty years ago, and had lived on his farm, near Lyndhurst, for over fifty years. At his death he had attained the venerable age of 92 years. His remains were placed in the vault at Brewer's Mills.

Holloway's Pills. Though good health is preferable to high honour, how regardless people often are of the former-how covetuous of the latter! Many suffer their strength to drain away ere maturity is reached, through ignorance of the facility afforded by these incomparable pills of checking the first untoward symptoms of derangement, and reinstating order without interfering in the least with their pleasure or pursuits. To the young especially it is important to maintain the highest digestive efficiency, without which the growth is stunted, the muscles become lax, the frame feeble, and the mind slothful. The removal of indigestion by these pills is so easy that none save the most thoughtless would per mit it to sap the springs of life.

A Pleasure in Store.

A tea-meeting will be given in Zion Methodist church, near Joyceville, Pittsburg, on the evening of Thursday, the 29th. The Rev. Mr. Henderson, the pastor, has arranged for a fine programme and most effi cient helpers.
