PETERBORO'S POLICE.

The Force Alleged to Liable and Get Drunk - A Peculiar Lawsuit.

PETERBORO, Jan. 10.—At last night's meeting of the Town Council Councillor Yelland made the assertion that members of the police force were known to frequent hotels and play billiards and gamble till morning. One policeman had been found in the cellar of a brewer so drunk that he couldn't see. The Mayor said that the present inefficient state of the force must be remedied, regardless of how it was done. Councillor Moore moved for an inquiry into the cause of the present incompetency, with a view to putting the force on a better footing. He suggested that a board of commissioners be appointed.

Argument was heard in chambers yesterday, Judge Weller presiding, on a rather odd case. In August last the meetings of the Ontario Grand Lodge of Oddfellows and Grand Encampment were held here and a public demonstration. Among others to contribute toward defraying the expenses were Messrs. F. J. Daly, proprietor of the Grand Central Hotel, and J. E. McIntyre of the Oriental Hotel. They agreed to give the chairman of the Hotel Committee certain sums of money. Before the time came to collect the General Committee put another chairman on the Hotel Committee. But when the new chairman went to collect, the hotelmen refused to give him a cent. He sued them and judgment was finally given yesterday by Judge Weller in favor of the hotelmen. Messrs. Daly and McIntyre say they are now prepared to pay what they agreed to pay, if Mr. Henderson, the first chairman, applies for it.

ENGLISH IN FRENCH SCHOOLS.

The Matter Comes Up in the Ottawa Separate School Board.

OTTAWA, Jan. 10.—At the meeting of the Separate School Board to-night a letter from Inspector White of the Educational Department of Ontario, stating that the board was not complying with the regulations of the department requiring the teaching of English in all French classes, as only in a few higher classes was it taught, and calling the attention of the board to the fact, was read, with the intimation that unless the rule was properly complied with the Government allowance of $1 per head would be stopped. Mr. Cameron said that should the departmental rule require the engaging of special English teachers in all schools it would entail a large expense upon the board, but he thought the matter ought to be referred over for further consideration to the School Management Committee, when the subject could be definitely dealt with. Mr. Douray, the French instructor, stated to the board that he had spoken to Mr. White on the subject and that he had promised the inspector to do so soon as possible comply with his wishes and had already made arrangements for the teaching of English in the four senior classes in each French school, and that arrangements to teach the junior classes were being made. The matter was referred to the Management Committee.

The attendance at the Separate Schools for December was 2918.

THE SUGAR COMBINE.

Montreal Refiners and Wholesalers Put Up the Price on Non-combiners.

MONTREAL, Jan. 10.—It has been learned that at a recent meeting of sugar refiners and the wholesale guild more drastic measures were adopted against non-combiners. In future such non-combiners must pay 1 cent per pound more on yellow sugars, and 5-16 cent on white sugars, to the refiner, and for every barrel of granulated they buy they must purchase two of yellow.

Messrs. Lightbound & Raiston, who with James Mathewson held out so long, gave in yesterday and signed the agreement. One of the partners stated to-day that they had not in any sense altered their views. They entered the combine to protect the interests of their customers, who had a right to expect from them a capacity to fill orders for sugar. The firm had either to yield or go out of business, and as it lived in hopes of seeing the combine destroyed, it did not care to give up just now. They yielded to superior force. Mr. Mathewson still refuses to yield.

THE TARIFF ON WOOL.

United States Manufacturers and Growers Protest Against a Reduction.

ALBANY, N.Y., Jan. 10.—The Evening Journal publishes replies from about a score of wool manufacturers doing business within a radius of 100 miles of Albany, as to the President's recommendation to put raw wool on the free list. With one exception the replies are against the change. Almost unanimously the manufacturers maintain that abolition of the tariff on wool would soon be followed by a movement to abolish the tariff on manufactured woolen goods. The general opinion among them is that they could not successfully continue business at the present scale of wages if the tariff on raw and manufactured wools were removed or materially reduced.

SALT LAKE, Jan. 10.—The Utah wool growers, representing owners of over 1,000,000 sheep, met in convention yesterday. A strong resolution was passed protesting against a reduction of the tariff on wool.

RAILROAD CATASTROPHE.

TERRIBLE OVERTHROW ON THE BOSTON AND MAINE RAILROAD.

The Portland Express Wrecked—The Tracks of the Smoker Give Way—Seven Persons Known to Have Been Killed and Fifty-two Wounded.

Haverhill, Mass., Jan. 10.—The Portland express, which left Boston for Portland at 1 o'clock this afternoon, met with a frightful accident near the Haverhill bridge over the Merrimack River. The train consisted of a locomotive and eight cars and was in charge of Conductor Weymouth.

This train does not stop at Bradford and was going at a great speed. As the express rounded the curve two cars left the rails and went crashing into the watertank house demolishing it. In this house a number of section men were eating dinner. Mr. J. O'Brien, a retired merchant of Bradford, was talking with Mr. Taylor, one of the laborers. The car that crashed into the tank house knocked the foundation out, letting the heavy tank down upon it, crushing through the roof and doing fearful work with it. The next car behind telescoped the one ahead of it, adding to the havoc. The killed and wounded were mostly in those two coaches. The cars behind these two ran down along the Georgetown track which was standing on a track near by, barely escaping a collision with the engine of that train. The people in the smoker had a fearful experience, one of the wheels on the forward truck broke and the cars bumped against the end of the bridge, causing it to career. It ran upon the bridge for some distance over the sleepers, then careened the other way and leaned against the ironwork of the side of the structure. The passengers, thirty in number, managed to crawl out, none of them being very seriously injured. As soon as they reached the ground, such as were able rushed back to help those who were imprisoned in the wrecked cars.

The fire alarm was sounded immediately and the department responded, but their services were not needed as the cars did not take fire. Physicians were summoned and the wounded and dying were rapidly cared for. The work of clearing the wreck was rapidly pushed forward and at 3:30 no less than seven bodies had been taken from the ruins. Several of them were disfigured beyond recognition. Following is the list of killed:

JOHN O'BRIEN, Bradford.
WILLIAM TAYLOR, section hand, Bradford.
C. P. GOODWIN, wife and child, of Kennebec, Me.
A. S. WALKER, Harrison, Me.
CLARENCE HAZLEWOOD, residence unknown.
CHARLES THURLOW, Newton, N.H.
JOSEPH SHAW, Bolton.

Fifty-two passengers were wounded, some badly, and some of them have been taken to the city hospital. Zenas Thompson of Portland, Me., was in the car which was damaged most and was injured about the head and had an arm broken. Hugo A. Slettenren of Brockton was in the smoking car and escaped with a broken leg. A little boy, Bertie Allen, was en route for Exeter and received a terrible wound. Mr. L. A. Rave of Lowell was slightly injured, and Geo. Gardner was badly bruised. In the station the scene was a terrible one. In the ladies' room were five or six injured ladies who were suffering terribly. Many of the injured were taken away by friends, and it is impossible at this time to learn the names of all the injured, but so far as known they are:

Fred. McKeown, Somerville, newsboy, head cut and internal injuries; Rebecca McKay, New Brunswick, leg broken and head cut; Bertie Allen, Exeter, head cut; W. F. Kimball, leg broken; Frank Williams, Boston, head cut; G. C. Wentworth, head cut; Dennis Shannon, both legs broken; George H. Odell, Boston, face cut; Calvin McKenna, Auburn, Me., head cut and injured about body; Miles Bolen, Brockton, head and arm injured; John Madden, Bradford, compound fracture of right leg; Mr. Hart, Portland, Me., bad scalp wound; Dennis Shannon, Bradford, feet and leg badly crushed and scalp wound, probably fatally injured; an unknown woman, apparently about 35 years old, with dark hair and wearing a breast pin marked "J." injured on the head and internally, probably fatally; Mrs. John P. Felt, Warham, Mass., injuries not serious; Miss Etta Owen, right leg and hand badly bruised; John Kellogg, Boston, slight scalp wounds.

One of the saddest sights was that of Mrs. C. P. Goodwin, husband and child. They were riding on the second passenger car and were killed outright.

The accident occurred between Bradford Station and the bridge and was caused by the rails spreading near a frog on a curve where a turn is made to run to the bridge. The smoking car ran on the bridge and turned over. One coach smashed into the water tank house and the other ran through the steeper. The crash was fearful and the cries of the people terrible.

Choral Festival at Peterboro.

PETERBORO, Jan. 10.—A choral festival was given in the George-street Methodist Church last night. It consisted of several choruses sung by 400 children, accompanied by the Fire Brigade Band and pipe organ; solos by Mrs. Daly and Miss Ada Millar, quartets, etc. Sixteen hundred people crowded the building, and the performance amply justified the large patronage. The occasion was the Sunday-school anniversary. Rev. T. Manning, Oshawa, and Rev. Mr. Thompson, assistant pastor of the church, were present.

THE CLOUDS LIFTING.

Some Coal Cars Come Through on the Reading—Miners Get an Advance.

READING, Pa., Jan. 10.—Since late last night about 12 loaded coal cars came through from the coal regions to this city. This is the first coal which has left Schuylkill County since Sunday. It all came from individual collieries. If the latter all continue in operation with their present force they cannot turn out over 350 cars daily. More than one hundred engines engaged in the coal carrying trade were housed to-day at different points.

Avize Cases at London.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—At the assizes to-day, Judge Galt presiding, W. Rowland, Michigan Central Railway brakeman, secured a verdict against the company for $1500 for the loss of his hand while in the discharge of duty. He claimed $1800. Plaintiff was coupling cars at Rodney when the engine suddenly backed the train, crushing Rowland's hand so that it had to be amputated. The defence of contributory negligence, the judge held, was not sustained. This is the first case tried in this county under the Employer's Liability Act.

In the case of John Carroll, held for the murder of his brother's wife, Mrs. Jane Carroll of Caradoc, the Grand Jury found a true bill. The case was postponed till next assizes, but being refused.

The police of Boulogne have arrested a man named Vermeir, who was seen with McNeill in a cafe. The procurer of Boulogne has received an anonymous letter naming a certain individual as the murderer of McNeill.

Success of Palm.

TEKONSHA, Mich., Jan. 10.—Allan Wood, an old resident of Burlington, had been suffering extreme pain from chronic disease for some time. On Saturday, to rid himself of this pain, he loaded an old shotgun, walked deliberately out to the woodshed, placed the muzzle against his chest, and then with his foot touched the gun off and blew his heart to shreds. Mr. Wood was nearly 80 years old, of good family, and possessed of some property.

The Cisco Fishery.

PORT DALHOUSIE, Jan. 10.—The cisco fishery here this year has been good. In one haul lately the Hand brothers took 16,000 fish. The nets are laid from three to six miles from shore, far below the surface, and visited every few days. The work is one of great peril and hardship from storm and cold at this time of the year. The industry is of recent growth.

A Jealous Cattle King's Crime.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 10.—A special from Anthony, Kan., says that Charles Clarke, who was shot last Saturday by his late partner, W. F. Treadwell, the cattle king, died yesterday from his injuries. The cause of the difficulty was jealousy on the part of Treadwell who fancied that Clarke was too intimate with his (Treadwell's) wife.

PROTECTION IN ENGLAND.

Foreign Goods Seized for Infringing a New Act—Great Activity Displayed.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—American manufacturers exporting goods to England would do well to study the Merchandise Marks act, which recently became a law here. The English custom house is showing great activity in stopping goods which bear the slightest appearance of being designed to imitate the goods of English firms. At the ports of London, Hull and elsewhere an enormous quantity of foreign goods have been seized recently under the act. Ostensibly the act is designed to prevent fraudulent imitations of English trade marks, but the authorities, urged by English manufacturers, carry it out in such a way as to hamper foreign manufacturers and thus give virtually a limited amount of protection. As an instance of the injurious effect to foreigners, an English firm ordered a large number of bottles for themselves in Germany, the makers to stamp the name of their customer on each bottle. These bottles were seized at the custom house on the ground that German manufacturers had no right to stamp an English name on their goods. The English firm thereupon ordered a supply of English glass ware.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

Labor Cannot be Imported into the United States—The Court's Decision.

BOSTON, Jan. 10.—In May last five complaints were filed in the United States Circuit court in this city against the Bay State Brick company, for a violation of the United States law prohibiting the importation of foreign labor. The defendant company was charged with the importation of French Canadians to work in its brick yards. The suits were instituted by the knights of labor. The cases were set down for trial in the Circuit court Thursday, but a consultation between United States District Attorney Galvin and the defendant's counsel, Messrs. S. B. Allen and S. Z. Bowman, resulted in a settlement without a trial. The defendant confessed judgment in one case, and the other four were discontinued. The penalty for each offence is $1,000. The defendant pays the sum and costs, amounting to $1,080.46. These are the first suits brought in the courts in this district and established an important precedent.

TWAS A DARING BURGLARY.

After Committing Robbery the Burglars Deliberately Fire a Building.

MONTREAL, Jan. 10.—Another daring burglary was committed yesterday morning on St. Lawrence street. Madame Brazeau was awakened by a noise in her room and found two men standing by her bedside. One of them seized her by the throat, while the other pressed a handkerchief, saturated with chloroform, to her mouth. The burglars then relieved her of a diamond brooch pin, a gold watch and chain, and $100 cash. They next went through the bed rooms where the girls slept and carried off everything of value. A number of costly articles were picked up in the store, and the burglars then deliberately set fire to the place. A policeman forced open the door. He found the curtains and a wooden partition in flames. He aroused the inmates. Madame Brazeau is in a terrible state of nervous prostration.

CRAWFORD MUST BE MAD.

Giving Very Bad Advice—And the Government Watching the Effect of it.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—The extraordinary boycotting manifesto issued by Mr. W. Crawford, Gladstonian member of parliament for Mid-Durham and secretary of the Durham miners association, has aroused the indignant comment of the conservative press. Crawford advises the miners to ostracize non-unionists at all times and places. He says: "Don't drink, eat or sit in chapel with them. Regard them as unfit companions for yourselves and their sons as unfit husbands for your daughters. Brand them with the curse of Cain." The home office has sent orders to watch the effect of the manifesto in the north of England, where the association has wide ramifications.
