NASAL BALM

Mr. E. H. McCrea, of the Hudson Bay Co., West Lynn, Manitoba, says: "I suffered from Catarrh for a number of years, and expended upwards of $200 employing physicians and catarrh specialists, buying different remedies, inhalants, douches, etc., without obtaining relief. Your advertisement in Toronto Mail induced me to invest fifty cents in Nasal Balm. I sent for a package, and must say it was the best investment I ever made. It gave me immediate relief, and in less than two weeks the droppings from the nasal passages into my throat entirely ceased. I would urgently advise all afflicted with catarrh to use Nasal Balm."

NEW YORK BEAUTIES.

FAIR BELLES OF THIS WINTER'S METROPOLITAN SOCIETY.

Sketches of Some of the Young Women Who Attract Most Attention in the Drawing Rooms of the Big City's Upper Ten.

BEAUTIFUL young women are interesting to everybody. There are many beautiful young women in New York society this winter, and of them all, one who claims to know all about it lately selected those here pictured as representative metropolitan belles. They are all unmarried but one, and all belong to that realm—a region of mystery to millions—called society. Miss May McClellan is the only daughter of the man who drove Lee out of Maryland at Antietam. She is large and fair, with a stateliness that harmonizes with her physique. Until the general's death the family lived at Orange, N. J. Since then Mrs. and Miss McClellan have lived abroad, whence Miss McClellan has occasionally sent a bright letter to the press in America. Miss Fanny Pryor, daughter of Gen. Roger A. Pryor, is from the sunny south, and of a family tree so ancient and so well preserved that it has passed inspection at the court of Vienna, the most exacting court in Europe. Miss Pryor was presented to society last summer at Narragansett Pier. Miss May M. Brady, the elder daughter of Judge John R. Brady, of New York, is by many regarded the most beautiful girl in New York society. Her features are regular, her eyes of blue gray and large and expressive. Her manners, though dignified, are gracious.

MAY McCLELLAN. ALICE LAWRENCE. BERTHA ROBINSON. ROSALIE FLAGG. MRS. LEON HARVIER. KATHRYN BRADY.

Miss Mabel Curtis presides over the establishment of her father, Mr. Jeremiah Curtis. Her hair is of the Tintin tint, and contrasts beautifully with her fresh complexion. Miss Curtis has achieved considerable reputation on the amateur stage.

Miss Anna Van Nest is the youngest daughter of Mr. Abraham R. Van Nest, who entertains in a beautiful home on Murray Hill. It is said that Miss Van Nest will soon desert the ranks of the young ladies of society to enter those of the married leaders.

Miss Beckwith is the daughter of Mr. N. M. Beckwith. Much of her life has been passed abroad, but when at home she has been an undisputed belle.

MISS PRYOR. MAY M. BRADY. MISS VAN NEST. MABEL CURTIS. MISS BECKWITH. C. DI ZERREGA.

Miss Bertha Norris Robinson is piquant and polite, with gray eyes, soft fair hair and a sweet voice.

Miss Alice Lawrence has achieved some reputation on the mimic amateur stage. She is the daughter of Mr. J. Burling-Lawrence. Miss Rosalie Flagg is a niece of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. She has golden hair, dark eyes and a brilliant complexion.

Mrs. Leon Harvier, the only married lady given, is one of the most charming and popular ladies in the metropolis.

Miss Kathryn Brady is the youngest daughter of Judge John R. Brady. She is slender and graceful, with expressive eyes. She, too, has won laurels on the amateur stage.

The Psychology of Joking.

Dr. Hughlings-Jackson publishes some interesting remarks on this topic in The Lancet. He regards punning as the lowest stage of the evolution of humor, but even in the pun he sees a material for the study of normal mentation. In a pun we have two ideas called to the mind at once—a double vision, as it were; and, as all thought is the comparison of relations, this is simply a caricature of the normal process of thought. Again: the world owes a great debt to the first punster, because he began the "play" of the mind (in the same sense as art is founded on the play instinct), and so detached himself from the grossly useful, and showed a surplus energy capable of developing into the highest traits of mankind. To lack a sense of humor is a bad thing. "The man who has no sense of humor, who takes things to be literally as distinct as they superficially appear, does not see fundamental similarities in the midst of great superficial differences, overlooks the transitions between great contrasts. I do not mean because he has no sense of humor, but because he has not the surplus intellect which sense of humor implies."—Science.

LATE SPORTING NEWS.

Suggestions Made for the Improvement of the Game—Miscellaneous Notes.

The Cleveland club will most likely release Mike Morrison.

Tony Mullane is the latest pitcher who says he gives up twirling after next season. He wants to be either a first or third baseman.

Manager Hackett will play his Syracuse Stars in the fore part of April in New York, Brooklyn, Newark, Jersey City, Washington and Baltimore.

The San Francisco papers do not rate Latham very high as a ball player. They make no effort, however, to rob him of the reputation as a first-class mouth artist.

The peculiarity of the Newark team of 1887 was that it had three separate national batteries. There was the African battery in Pitcher Stovey and Catcher Walker; the Irish battery in Hughes and Derby; and the German battery in Miller and Cantz.

Crane's work recently has been a great improvement on what he did when he first appeared in San Francisco. He has great speed, and now seems to have good control of his curves. After all, the New York team may find him a most valuable acquisition.

Early in the winter Spalding, the baseball man, advertised for old waggon tongues and well-seasoned sticks. This material is now manufactured into the black-tip bats. They are expensive clubs, and will be sold only to professional players and leading amateurs.

Sunday, late of the Chicago team, and now of the Pittsburghs, has been for years a teacher in one of the largest Sunday schools in Chicago, and the superintendent thereof says he has been remarkably successful. He knows the New Testament as thoroughly as he does the base-ball playing rules.

A New York despatch says that Robert Ferguson, the celebrated umpire, is in favor of abolishing the base hits and errors in base-ball games. He declares them the greatest evil ever introduced. "If a player is credited with one more error than he has made in a game," says Mr. Ferguson, "he is all broke up, and will do nothing but talk about that error. I really believe there would be more interest taken in the national game were runs to be made the chief feature of the game."

Miscellaneous Notes.

Sullivan began training for his fight with Mitchell on Monday.

Thomas Conneff, the champion long distance runner of England, has arrived in New York.

Le Blanc and Jim Bell are matched for a ten-round glove contest, to take place inside of a month.

At Punta Gorda, in Florida, on Feb. 10th, Teemer, Hanson and McKay row for a purse of $1,000.

The wheelmen of the capital are anxious that the next annual meeting of the C. W. A. should be held in Ottawa.

A pool match was played between James Burrows, Toronto, and William Thompson for $30 a side. Thompson won eleven out of fourteen games and was awarded the stakes.

William O'Connor, Toronto, matched to row Henry Peterson, San Francisco, on the 18th March, for $2,000 a side, has arrived in 'Frisco, accompanied by James A. Ten Eyck, Worcester, Mass.

A winter meeting will be held at Brockville shortly, when the following programme will be carried out: First day, 2.30 and green race. Second day, trotters and pacers; 2.34 and 2.50 class. Third day, three minute and free-for-all.

In New York on Saturday, in the twenty-five mile skating race for gold, silver and bronze medals, contested at Fleetwood park, F. W. Craft, of St. John, N. B., won the first prize, with S. O'Brien and S. L. Lee, of New York, second and third respectively.

A new Australian fighter has appeared in San Francisco, and showed so well in a fight with Dan Slattery that he has been matched to fight Tom Cleary, Dempsey's old protegee, to a finish with hard gloves in San Francisco Feb. 3rd. The new man is known as "The Australian Comet," and his name is Sam Fitzgerald.

Ike Weir the Belfast Spider, knocked out Tommy Miller, the Omaha bantam, at Minneapolis in the seventh round. The fight was for 20 rounds, Queensberry rules, two-ounce gloves, the winner to take 75, and the loser 25 per cent. of the gate receipts.

An autopsy of the body of Billy Dempsey, who died while engaged in a prize fight with "Swipes, the Newsboy," early Sunday morning, shows that all the organs were in normal condition, and that Dempsey was apparently in perfect health. The coroner says death was the result of shock, caused by exertion, or a blow, or both.

FUTURE OF THE DRAMA.

How it is Viewed by Different Persons—Protection of its Purity.

Lawrence Barratt in North American Review.

Divines and scholars hopefully regard the future of the theatre as a grand helpmate in the education and culture of the nation. A willing hand will be given to any scheme which promises to give us an improved theatre, to elevate the standard of the art. The munificent support given by the people of England to Henry Irving, the estimation in which our Edwin Booth is held by our own people, the sympathy which the public seems eager to extend to any of those who carry their ermine unstained, are indications of the popular feeling. It is the duty of the actor to meet this feeling at least half way, to give his hearty aid in any movement which looks to the improvement of the theatre, and by his own life to echo the good thoughts which are born of hope in the general heart. Many schemes suggest themselves, but the length of this article prevents their mention here. The simplest plan will be the best, the plan which leaves our ranks from below. We must, by a caution in the admission of unfit or unworthy members to the novitiate, create an esprit de corps which will be jealous of the purity of the whole order and cause each actor, high or low, to share the artist feeling. We can thus lay a foundation deep and broad, by which we shall not only preserve what is good of our traditions, but render it impossible for future evil to creep in. All true lovers of art will aid us, a liberal public will gladly sustain us, and we shall have shown the lovers of the theatre that we are not indifferent or careless where the interests of the drama are concerned.

The Moon's Influence

Upon the weather is accepted by some as real, by others it is disputed. The moon never attracts corns from the tender, aching spot. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor removes the most painful corns in three days. This great remedy makes no sore spots, doesn't go fooling around a man's foot, but gets to business at once, and effects a cure. Don't be imposed upon by substitutes and imitations. Get "Putnam's," and no other.

The fragrance of Henry & Thompson's is now unsurpassed. Try it and you will use no other.
