

Selected Poetry.

From the New York Evening Post. SUNSET.

Oh it is sweet at twilight hour to view, While sinks the sun behind the western sky, The bright clouds sailing through a sea of blue...

Thus do we ever see the fairest forms, Blighted the soonest by Death's ruthless sway; And thus the brightest minds that Genius...

A Southern Friend's Soliloquy ON THE SEA SERPENT.

It must be so—Yankees, ye reason well! Else whence these many tales, these long accounts, These well attested narratives? or whence This secret dread and inward horror...

A few Pairs STAYS.

Kingston, 2d July, 1819.

TO THE PUBLIC.

AT the close of the first year of its operation, the Directors of the Quebec Fire Assurance Company feel themselves bound to express their acknowledgements and thanks for the great and unprecedented encouragement this new establishment has experienced from an enlightened public. And at the same time they congratulate their fellow citizens and the inhabitants of these provinces generally, on the complete attainment of the object this company was associated for; in the short space of six months from the day the office was opened, premiums of insurance against fire were lowered to less than half the former rates; and at this moment in many instances, property is insured at or under one third the rates of premium charged twelve months ago!
