

LANDS &c.

FOR SALE,

A FINE PROPERTY, lying on the Navigable River Thames, in the Province of Upper Canada, it consists of about Nineteen Hundred Acres, of most excellent land, divided only by the said river, which abounds with fine fisheries and many and great advantages. On it there are three excellent Mill Seats, and an adjoining Pinery of 300 acres, which from the situation, being the nearest to the large and improving settlements of Amherstburgh, Sandwich, and Detroit, &c. &c. would prove of great value to any person of enterprise.—It possesses also extensive flats on the river, well calculated for raising Hemp and Tobacco, which articles are becoming of the first importance.

The whole of this property, which has been obtained by the owner at a great sacrifice, will be sold very cheap, or it will be exchanged for any eligible situation on any part of the frontier between Forts Erie and the Outlet at the head of Lake Ontario, or on the Sea coast between New York and Halifax, or on the Sea Shore of England, Scotland, or Wales, giving or receiving the difference of value, live and dead stock, crops, plate, linen, books, furniture, &c. may be had at a valuation.

On this property are several considerable improvements in a high degree of cultivation, with Houses, Out Houses, &c.

The Subscriber requests the Editors of the Niagara, Kingston, Montreal, and Quebec papers, and the Editor of the New York Spectator, to insert the above in their respective papers for three months, next ensuing, whose bills will be paid on demand by A. MERCEUR, Esq. land Agent at York, U. C.

For particulars apply to
J. MATTHEWS.
