The Berald,

KINGSTON, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1834.

It will be seen that our European intelligence comes down to the 23d of August .-Yet the additional information is meagre and uninteresting.

As the following sketch of the proceedings at our election last Wednesday apine of the whole.

The Election for the Town of Kingston was opened this Morning at 10 o'clock, by the Returning Officer, David John Smith, Esq. T. Markland, Esq. Seconded by W. McCuniffe, Esq. nominated Mr. HAGERMAN as a Candidate for the suffrages of the electors; and Dr. Armstrong, seconded by Dr. Dormer, proposed Mr. O'GRADY. Mr. Hagerman then rose and in a most excellent speech, of nearly two hours duration, explained and defended his principles and Parliamentary career. This speech was received with great enthusiasm, and made a deep impression on the hearers.

with great enthusiasm, and made a deep impression on the hearers.

When Mr. Hagerman brought forward and condemned Hume's letter, the applause was tremendous, and almost every voice answered his inspiring call to support a man of inflexible loyalty and who will maintain our connexion with Great Britain. After Mr. Hagerman had concluded, Mr. O'Grady for upwards of two hours explained his political opinions, and canvassed the proceedings of his opponent. His speech shewed considerable ability, and was well received; but he failed to produce a deep impression like that made by Mr Hagerman. At the close of Mr. O'Grady's speech he took the oath of qualification, and polling commenced. At 5 o'clock the Polt adjourned, when the numbers stood as follows:—Mr. Hagerman 64.—Mr. O'Grady 18.

The proceedings were conducted with great harmony and good humour.

On Thursday morning the poll re-open-

The masters say have held dark cabals,—plotted cunning schemes,—given away hundreds of inflammatory newspapers,—published violent placards,—called public meetings,—vaunted their prowess, their bold and firm array,—and proclaimed their triumplis, as if the victory were won, and they were Lords of Kingston. REMARKS ON THE MONTREAL MARKET.

Montreal, Oct. 2, 1834.

Within the last few weeks the Import trade has considerably revived. Auction Sales have been generally well attended, Sales have been generally well attended, seems and intellectual actiones. 37 votes! They have put forth their utmost strength, nerved themselves for battle, and polled the "veloud only muster 37!!

What has been gained by eight months and before the steam could be blowed off, in so much mischief was done, that the engine is rendered perfectly useless. In consequence of this accident, this noble vessel will, we regret to be informed, have to be laid up for the season.

The United States, we are also sorry to learn, has received some injury in her machinery, and is now repairing at Ogdens, to resume her route.

The very numerons instances, this year of breaking of shafts and derangement of machinery on board steam-boats, should be the means of especially directing the attended, worthlessness of all their ideot vapourings.
