NOTICE.

HAVING seen in the Herald a very erroneous statement, John Burley saying that the Subscriber sold him John M'Bear's Lands, viz. No. 18 and the half of 19, Lake-side East of the Rock, Marysburgh, I do hereby declare to the Public, and to whom it may concern that I never sold nor intended to sell him Mr. M'Bear's Lands, John Burley has a Deed upon Record, but when his manner of obtaining that Deed, is illustrated, the Public will be able to form a proper idea of John Burley, Gentleman of Kingston, as he calls himself. Coming under the appellation of a Gentleman I of course was less guarded.

Wm. X BENNIKER, mark. Witness, SAMUEL MOLINEUX. June 27, 1827.

LOOK AT THIS. MR. Benniker's notice in the last Herald, deserves a little comment. The fact is, that document was drawn by McBean to suit his own vile machinations and usual bad language. Benniker is a very illiterate man, and the witness also is a very ignorant person, (a discharged soldier, living at Benniker's); I would ask Mr. McBean the reason he did not take Benniker to some respectable farmer, and have his certificate explained and witnessed? I can tell the reason, (and he knows it) that there is not a respectable man in the country who knows McBean, will have anything to say to him. Look at the respectability of my certificate, and that will show how I came by the deed for lot 18, and the west half of 19.

JOHN BURLEY. Kingston, 9th July, 1827.

I CERTIFY that about eight years since, I Wm. Benniker and John Burley came to my office, and Benniker transferred to Burley lot 18 and the west half of 19, east of the rock, Marysburgh; and writings from Burley were given to Benniker for his security of payment, and Benniker appeared to be well satisfied with the transaction. All the writings were done in the office before me DANL WRIGHT, Sen. Late Dep'y Register for the county of Prince Edward. Marysburgh, 5th July, 1827.

LOOK AT JOHN BURLEY'S MACHINATIONS TO OBTAIN A FORTUNE. WHEN I, the subscriber, refused his notes because he could not give satisfactory security, as a prelude to the plan &c. his coadjutors began by cutting & clandestinely taking my hay from my meadows whilst I was absent upon other business to the value of from twenty to thirty pounds, as I am informed by men who say they can prove the same, that the hay was taken away but could not then prove who cut it and carried it away, I accused his Brothers of having taken the hay, determined to cover the transaction, John Burley went to William Benniker with a false story, saying I the subscriber had agreed to let him have such a part of my farm, by him Burley paying the subscriber the valuation of me to me, the subscriber, William Benniker agreed to let him have the mortgage, by his paying the subscriber the whole value of the land; and Burley made Benniker believe that John M'Bean was satisfied; Benniker signed a deed, not knowing it to be a deed; but supposing it to be a mortgage, and when he paid Benniker left that part for the subscriber to do viz. to give a deed; Burley never paid, never was paid the mortgage, and many of his family, lived upon my estate until the interest according to his offer in notes amount to 480l. The total sum he owes me and Benniker—amounts to 1,480l. John Burley is more cunning than common men, to get an estate of that amount, without paying any thing for it, all that I have asserted here, I have affidavits to shew to be true, he has mentioned Benniker, Mollenx and the subscriber with contempt, he is not worthy of an answer upon that head, if it was not for decorum, I could depict his character, the subscriber's will stand strict scrutiny, as well as Mollenx's and Benniker's, he has made me poor in keeping me out of my estate and not paying as he promised, I call upon the Governor, Major Hillier, the Attorney General and particularly the Lawyers and every other honest man to take my part and not let him depress and oppress a true British subject, who never did and never will do a dishonourable transaction.

JOHN M'BEAN. Kingston, 19th July 1827.

PUBLIC NOTICE. THIS is to Caution all persons against Purchasing two Notes of hand given to Messrs. Gough and Nowlan for ten pounds each in 1825, by James Meagher, for which they Received Payment from the said JAMES MEAGHER. Kingston, April 24th 1827.

THIS IS TO GIVE PUBLIC NOTICE, THAT Peter McDonald holds a Note of mine Indorsed by Robert Walker for eighty Pounds, which he said he Paid in the Bank of Upper Canada for me, which is false. I paid the Note to the Bank myself, and went to him to take of his Indorsement and forgot it at his House, and he now refuses to give it up. He also made a demand of three Hundred Dollars for one years Rent, he said he Paid to me in a mistake, in presence of Joseph Daley, which is also false.
