PROSPECTUS.

Tissomewhat a matter of surprise, that the District of Newcastle, which, in every other respect, has not a superior in the Province of Upper Canada, whether we regard the internal improvement of its country, or the highly intellectual character of its inhabitants, should yet be deficient in one most obvious means of its advancement; viz. A RESPECTABLE AND INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER, through which to convey to the surrounding Districts a just idea of its relative importance.

PROSPECTUS.

To supply this defect, and thereby to afford an enlightened people the power of asserting and maintaining their true position in the moral and political world, is the object of the person who new, for the first time, presents himself before the public.

In accordance with this purpose, he proposes, as soon as a sufficient number of Subscribers shall have appeared to sanction the undertaking, to issue weekly, in the Village of Cobourg, a Paper of the above description—aiming to be truly Independent and Respectable—ALIKE FREE FROM THE AN-To supply this defect, and thereby to af-
