

FRANCE.

SENTENCES UPON THE EX-MINISTERS.

We have just received from our own reporter, the sentence passed upon the State Prisoners...

ble to be done. I am the more convinced of this, since I have become intimately acquainted with the personage we have placed on the throne...

PARIS, Dec. 21, 1830.

Sir—The government has spoken! This was as necessary as it was wise. It has spoken from the Tribune...

The sentence finds all the prisoners guilty of High Treason, upon a charge of having conspired to the illegal deprivation of the Charter...

RESIGNATION OF LA FAYETTE.

On Friday evening, Dec. 24th, a resolution was passed by the Chamber of Deputies...

1st. The Government has spoken from the Tribune. What M. Lafayette has declared that there is a conspiracy against the public tranquility...

It was always understood, before the vote of Friday, that La Fayette's appointment was for life, but that the office would die with him...

2nd. The Government has spoken from the Tribune. What M. Lafayette has declared that there is a conspiracy against the public tranquility...

In a neighboring nation it is the custom when a citizen retires from a distinguished office, for him to come before his fellow citizens and explain the cause...

Lafayette has called on the Guards—the Citizens—and on the youth of Paris to assist him in maintaining the laws...

I have now no other honor than that of being one of your colleagues. One word more, gentlemen. I do not have given in my resignation, which the king has accepted...

He says in that Proclamation, "The freemen are those who have professed the most profound respect to the rights of the tribunals. Obedience to justice is the essential basis of social order and liberty..."

the Peers of France to reach the holy precincts of the High Court of justice. The neighborhood of the Luxembourg was all confusion. The women were insulted...

Well, then, M. Lafayette was right, when he said that there exists a conspiracy against the public tranquility. Let us, then, let them be arrested. They are known to all...

Thus, then has the Government spoken. And it speaks in a language which is justly admired. Generally speaking they are well...

DOMESTIC.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

Thursday, 10th Feb. 1831.

PRIVILEGE OF PARLIAMENT.

Mr. John Wilson, chairman of the committee appointed to enquire into the Printing of the Journals for the last Session of Parliament, reported...

After the report had been read, Mr. Mackenzie declared that he considered the delivering of copies of the Journals, without the appendix, by Mr. Mackenzie, before the late election, a gross violation of the privileges of the House of Assembly...

He would move that it having appeared upon the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee...

This appeal has made a great impression. I have watched the groups of unwashed artisans as they address one of their known and tried friends...

It is in the midst of you, be found a man criminal enough to make an attempt upon the life of one of his fellow-citizens, though he be an ex-Minister...

Thus, then has the Government spoken. And it speaks in a language which is justly admired. Generally speaking they are well...

DOMESTIC.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

Thursday, 10th Feb. 1831.

PRIVILEGE OF PARLIAMENT.

Mr. John Wilson, chairman of the committee appointed to enquire into the Printing of the Journals for the last Session of Parliament, reported...

After the report had been read, Mr. Mackenzie declared that he considered the delivering of copies of the Journals, without the appendix, by Mr. Mackenzie, before the late election, a gross violation of the privileges of the House of Assembly...

He would move that it having appeared upon the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee...

House as the malignant persecutors of one of the informers of others, and as the mainstay of the British Government...

Thus, then has the Government spoken. And it speaks in a language which is justly admired. Generally speaking they are well...

Thus, then has the Government spoken. And it speaks in a language which is justly admired. Generally speaking they are well...

DOMESTIC.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

Thursday, 10th Feb. 1831.

PRIVILEGE OF PARLIAMENT.

Mr. John Wilson, chairman of the committee appointed to enquire into the Printing of the Journals for the last Session of Parliament, reported...

After the report had been read, Mr. Mackenzie declared that he considered the delivering of copies of the Journals, without the appendix, by Mr. Mackenzie, before the late election, a gross violation of the privileges of the House of Assembly...

He would move that it having appeared upon the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee...

retracts from the Journal for the week of the 10th of the month of February, and surely the obligation ought not to be made an excuse to the rule. In 1825-6 the Hon. Mr. Bristow West Flamboro' was my agent...

Thus, then has the Government spoken. And it speaks in a language which is justly admired. Generally speaking they are well...

Thus, then has the Government spoken. And it speaks in a language which is justly admired. Generally speaking they are well...

DOMESTIC.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

Thursday, 10th Feb. 1831.

PRIVILEGE OF PARLIAMENT.

Mr. John Wilson, chairman of the committee appointed to enquire into the Printing of the Journals for the last Session of Parliament, reported...

After the report had been read, Mr. Mackenzie declared that he considered the delivering of copies of the Journals, without the appendix, by Mr. Mackenzie, before the late election, a gross violation of the privileges of the House of Assembly...

He would move that it having appeared upon the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee...

least fifty years. I expect, support them from the... Mr. Perry moved, and the resolution was carried...

Thus, then has the Government spoken. And it speaks in a language which is justly admired. Generally speaking they are well...

Thus, then has the Government spoken. And it speaks in a language which is justly admired. Generally speaking they are well...

DOMESTIC.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

Thursday, 10th Feb. 1831.

PRIVILEGE OF PARLIAMENT.

Mr. John Wilson, chairman of the committee appointed to enquire into the Printing of the Journals for the last Session of Parliament, reported...

After the report had been read, Mr. Mackenzie declared that he considered the delivering of copies of the Journals, without the appendix, by Mr. Mackenzie, before the late election, a gross violation of the privileges of the House of Assembly...

He would move that it having appeared upon the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee to whom was referred the report of the select committee...

Public Record Office Reference

4757

COPYRIGHT OF PHOTOGRAPH RESERVED TO PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE. FOR PERMISSION TO REPRODUCE, APPLY TO PUBLIC ARCHIVES, OTTAWA.

Mackenzie—As the Rev. James H. Mackenzie of this Diocese, who has been appointed to the office of Secretary of the Diocese of Upper Canada...